AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
A swell program for Sunday and Monday's change:

1. "Wig Wag." Vitagraph. Boys will be boys. Willie Van Durn's parents are so solicitous about him that they cannot bear to have him out of their sight. He goes down to the lake and jumps into a boat and pushes out just as his father and mother mother rush to the edge.

2. "The Way of the Eskimo." Solig. A unique story of the far north. The way of the Eskimo opens with an altogether unique scene in picture-dom. A tribe of Labrador Eskimos are seen in their peculiar ceremony of bidding the sun good bye. It is called the feast of the adieu to the sun Zak.

3. "The Smugglers." Kalem. At the opening of our story Old Tom and Billie are off for a two days' fishing trip. Rose, Old Tom's daughter, goes along the beach to gather mussels. Just ahead of Rose, hidden by monster boulders is a party of smugglers surreptitiously landing a party of Chinese. Rose unexpectedly comes across the smugglers and is captured. A thrilling production made on the rocky shore of southern California. Ruth Roland as Rose.

4. "The Traitor." Pathe. In

Corsica love runs at fever heat, which accounts for the fact that Peppino is in love with another man's wife and that he is roused to jealous anger when the woman's rightful husband showers caresses upon her. She has repulsed Peppino until he decides to get rid of her husband. Then the wife promises to marry the one who will avenge her husband.

The Pastime.
Where you see the best in motion pictures. Sunday's program follows: "The Venom of the Poppy" (Edison). Here is a novel smuggling story with an interesting love tale in which a girl must condemn her brother or her lover, but the brother, a custom inspector takes the matter into his own hands, and refuses to divulge the name of the leader of the smugglers, who is his sister's sweetheart. The brother resigns.

"Making a Man of Him." (Selig). A comedy drama drawing strong comparisons between city and country life. Bertie was perhaps too much of a dude when he married the pretty country girl Bertie "touches" his new father-in-law for a hundred and spends the next few months "playing the races." It is papa who makes a man of Bertie. See how he does it. "Rejected." (Kosmik). Recounting the incidents of a comic opera star's vacation in the country, during which, though not intentionally, she breaks the heart of a rustic youth.

"Pansies." A beautiful picture. "The Ranch Girl's Terrible Mistake." (American). An exciting story of a ranch owner's daughter's elopement with a cowpuncher. Just how the story ends it would be a shame to tell.

The Cosy.
For Friday and Saturday. A program strong on comedy. "A Few Minutes." With Steeple-Jack Lindholm. Imp How would you like to climb a pole 685 feet above the ground with a big flag snapping at the end of the pole? The steeplejack does this; he is also seen swaying in the air 36 stories high.

"The Life of a Muschik." Gt. Northern. This film taken in Russia, besides telling a pretty story, shows the way in which the Russian peasants are oppressed. The home life of the family is shown. The official insulting the farmer's wife was beaten. Pilled with repentance, he appointed the farmer to a good position.

"The False Alarm." Gt. Northern. A good comedy in which hubby tried to dodge his mother-in-law, who comes to visit him.

"Cupid's Pocketbook." American. The lover put some money in his sweetheart's pocket book while she was out and put it in his pocket, and lost it. An old lawyer found it and advertised it. Both went to claim it but neither could describe its contents. He sent for the police but everything was straightened out at last.

"His Dress Shirt." Imp. Dandy comedy. Kirby receiving an invitation to a party told his wife to send his only dress shirt to the laundry but she forgot till it was too late. She then tried to launder the shirt herself but made a mess of it.

"A Midnight Visitor." Solax. A screaming comedy. Brown and wife asleep, heard a terrific crash and started to investigate. Brown took several "nips" to brace his courage and soon fell asleep.

CADETS CAUGHT CHEATING.

Annapolis, Md.—For the first time in the history of the new naval academy, four cadets have been caught cheating at examinations.
