

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardul, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardul and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardul to sick and suffering women."

Cardul is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardul has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

NEW R. R. TAKES STOCK TO PORTLAND

PRICE ON HOGS IS VERY LITTLE CHANGED

Ten Loads of Sheep Leave Market in Steady Tone — Cattle Situation Shows Signs of Weakness—Shorts Take Cover in Wheat.

(From Friday's Journal.)

The first livestock that ever came over the Tillamook railroad arrived at North Portland today. The shipment consisted of a load of hogs sent in by J. D. Jones, who had previously been a shipper by boat to this market. The installation of the railroad is expected to further the livestock industry of the Tillamook section and bring greater supplies to the North Portland market.

Hogs sold at $6.75 for tops in the local yards this morning this being the same price as in effect previous to the holiday. There was quite a fair supply offering, a total of 531 head being received from local points while a week ago the run was 173 head.

The local trade is discriminating against the heavier packing stuff and for this class of goods prices are less favorable. While there has been a material improvement in the demand for packing house stock at eastern centers and recently top prices have ruled there, the trade here is still inclined to pay most for the lighter offerings of quality.

North Portland swine trade today: Best eastern Oregon . . . $ 6.75 Medium eastern Oregon . . . 6.65 to 6.70 Best Willamette valley . . . 6.60 to 6.70 Good to heavy . . . 6.50 Feeder . . . 6.50 to 6.55

Sheep Market Is Steady.

There was a steady tone in the sheep trade at North Portland during the day. There were 10 loads offered and the trade took offerings at the first opportunity.

Yearling wethers sold this morning at $4.40 for $9 pound average.

Sheep values at North Portland: Select lambs . . . $ 4.75

Cattle Market Weak.

While there was only a small showing of cattle in the yards at North Portland today, the market was weak. There was an over supply in the hands of killers and with the holiday just over and everyone filled with turkey there is naturally a decreased call for meats.

At Chicago today there was a steady tone in the cattle trade with a run of 600 head for the day.

At South Omaha cattle run was 1,800 head today with the market firmer and higher for ordinary quality.

M'NAMARA WILL NOT BE HANGED

DRAMATIC CONFESSION TO DYNAMITING MAY SAVE HIM

Greatest Murder Trial in Nation's History Had Burdened Heavily on Minds of Every One Interested and Court Will Give Man Consideration.

Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—The confession of John and James B. McNamara yesterday afternoon, which brought one of the greatest murder trials in recent history to a sudden and astounding termination, and ended for all time the controversy regarding the manner in which the Times was blown up, probably means that James McNamara will not hang.

It was dramatic in the extreme. For over an hour previous chief counsel for the defense, Clarence Darrow, and District Attorney Fredericks surrounded by their assistants, had been in earnest consultation with Judge Bordwell in his chambers. Then shortly after two o'clock Fredericks and his deputies seated themselves in the court room and were followed a few moments later by Darrow and his aides.

Then ensued a tense silence throughout the crowded court room which was broken only by a whisper occasionally as James B. McNamara, on trial for murder, conversed with Attorney Davis seated near him.

A momentary buzz of voices followed the sudden appearance of John McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, who was charged with conspiracy in dynamiting the Lewellyn Iron Works near here.

Then the buzzer above the clerk's desk hummed, indicating that Judge Bordwell was coming into the court room. An instant later he appeared and with set face took his seat.

"The State vs. McNamara," droned the judge.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out, and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist today and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drug Co.

LeCompte Davis rose to his feet. "On behalf of my client, James B. McNamara, I desire to withdraw the plea of not guilty heretofore entered in this case and to plead guilty," said he, his voice crescendoing.

When the crowd in the room realized what had happened there came a deep murmur, almost a sob, and every eye sought out the slender prisoner who sat impassive as for the first time it was admitted that he was the agent that caused the terrible explosion that killed 21 men last October.

"And on behalf of our other client," added Davis, "J. J. McNamara, indicted jointly with this prisoner we want to withdraw the former plea of not guilty to the charge of placing dynamite under the plant of the Lewellyn Iron Works and enter a plea of guilty."

It was done. People sat bolt upright and this time gazed at John B. McNamara, the labor leader who sat quietly before the bar, chewing a toothpick.

The painful pause which followed was finally broken by Captain Fredericks who arose with the original indictment charging James with the murder of Charles Haggerty and walked over to James McNamara who arose and gazed squarely in his eyes while Fredericks hurriedly read the document.

"James B. McNamara, you have heretofore pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder contained in the indictment. Do you wish to withdraw that plea?"

"I do, sir," was the answer.

"Do you want to plead guilty?"

"I so plead," said McNamara and he sat down without a muscle in his face twitching.

Judge Bordwell quickly announced that he would impose sentence at ten o'clock next Tuesday morning, which is election day here.

The same procedure was gone through with John McNamara. At the time the Lewellyn Iron works explosion took place he was accessory before the fact and his plea was therefore entered as that of a principal. He like his brother was impassive.

It was plain they both realized that the end had come and the last act of the big case was closing.

Then the prisoners were remanded to the custody of the sheriff and crowds rushed in to congratulate Fredericks.

"I've simply won another murder case," said he. "That's all."

Others crowded around Darrow seeking an explanation of the sudden termination of the case. His face pallid, the famous lawyer stood stern, every line showing that he had been struck a heavy blow. He had little to say.

When the court room was cleared the jurors were notified and excused. They expressed pleasure at not being compelled to pass on the case.

"It's a great load off my mind," said Judge Bordwell simply as he hurried away.

Deputy District Attorney Horton is of the opinion that McNamara will not hang. He said:

"Although the court could sentence McNamara to be hanged, it

HEALTHY MOTHERS

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores.

seems to me that the least we can do for a man who has saved us a lot of money is to spare his life. While it is an unusual thing for a man to plead guilty to a crime punishable by death, in this case that fact will be considered, and will save J. B. McNamara."

Asked about McNamara, he said: "He will have to take his medicine with the rest. He won't go free. Probably he will plead guilty to the indictment charging him with exploding dynamite at the Baker Iron Works and will be sentenced for that."

Burns Vindicated.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—William Burns, head of the detective agency that hunted down the McNamaras speaking of the confession of John and James McNamara said:

"It is a great vindication of the prosecution. Ever since the arrests were made, labor papers have reeked with libelous charges. Men like Samuel Gompers charged us with conspiring against labor, and insisted on it despite our absolute denials.

"We were certain of conviction from the beginning. I hope the authorities will now make the rest of the guilty persons come into court and plead guilty. They ought to be forced to do so."

"I think one result of the confessions will be the election of George Alexander as mayor of Los Angeles next Tuesday over Job Harriman."

The Rayo Lamp

It Never Flickers

The long winter evenings give a woman a splendid chance for sewing or embroidery; but her eyes suffer from the strain unless she has a good light.

The Rayo is the best lamp made.

It gives a strong, diffused light that is remarkably easy to the eyes. There is no glare to it; no flicker. It lights up a whole room. The Rayo is an economical lamp, too. You get the most possible light-value for the oil burned; and the Rayo itself is a low-priced lamp. Yet it is a handsome lamp—an ornament to any room in the house. The Rayo Lamp is easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and re-wick. Made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the

Akers' Hoe Attachment

All farmers realize the importance of sowing their grain at a uniform depth and at the right depth; but this cannot be accomplished with any drill as they are found on the market.

This problem is solved by the simple attachment shown in the accompanying cut. It consists of a collar which fits the hoe, to which it is secured by means of two set screws, and a shoe, with means for adjusting same for any depth of sowing desired.

The shoe answers the double purpose of
