MISS LINGENFELTER WILL BE HERE TONIGHT

Will Sing at the Christian Church Revival Each Evening.

Pendleton people are to be favored with the privilege of hearing one of the finest singers on the Pacific coast. Miss Mary Lingenfelter of Seattle, Wash., is to begin an engagement to sing in connection with the Christian church revival tonight, and will sing one or two solos each evening from now on. The Tacoma Evening News says she is "one of the most gifted vocalists in the state" while the Seattle Post-Intelligencer declares that "her voice is almost perfect."

A noted evangelist for whom she sang says:

During the month of July last I had the pleasure of holding a meeting for the Fremont Christian church at Seattle, and during this meeting, Miss Mary Lingenfelter assisted me as soloist and leader.

I am pleased to say for her that not only was her work satisfactory in every way, but it was the best I have ever had in an evangelistic experience covering some five years, and during that time I have had with me several excellent singers.

Miss Lingenfelter's voice is exceptionally fine, and she has a personal charm and naturalness of expression that wins the audience from the start. Besides this she is thoroughly consecrated and her influence is worth much to a meeting. She comes from one of our very best Christian homes.

During the past four years she has taken instruction from Madame Armentis, of Seattle, considered one of the very finest vocalists in the west and I am sure, she has made splendid use of this opportunity.

I sincerely hope that it will be possible for us to secure the services of Miss Lingenfelter this year in a meeting at the Central church.

Evangelist Holmes will discuss "Seedtime and Harvest" tonight. The special services will continue at least over Lord's Day.

"BIG TIM" CHASES COYOTE.

In Auto Politician, Guest of Jeffries, Is In at the Death.

Los Angeles.—Chasing to earth the real coyote with hounds, Senator Timothy D. Sullivan of New York, the "Big Tim" of political and theatrical fame, with members of his party, were piloted along the trails of the real west. As the guests of James J. Jeffries, Sullivan, William J. O'Brien of Chicago, John Conzidine, his theatrical partner, and Chris. O. Brown, his chief booking agent, were "in at the kill" of a coyote chase that smacked of the olden days of California.

Except that a high power automobile was used to follow the hounds in their wild scramble after the fleet-footed coyote, none of the elements of the picturesque chase were lacking. The event, arranged in honor of the visit of "Big Tim" and his companions, took place in Verdugo canyon, where the hounds were first turned after the coyote.

Following in an automobile, the members of the party took the chase when the hounds flushed from cover a coyote that proved equal to the event. Senator Sullivan, tired, dust covered and with face begrimed, arrived at the Hotel Alexandria satisfied that he had "seen something new."

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Headless Trunk Beside Tree.

Tacoma, Wash.—Reclining against a tree the headless body of a man was found in Point Defiance park by N. L. Tallman. The skull was eight feet away with a bullet hole through it. A .44 caliber revolver lay near it. It was evidently a case of suicide, the head having dropped off after many months. Identity is a mystery.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fractures of the bone, toothache, neuralgia or rheumatism can be relieved by applying BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power relieves the pain, reduces swelling and restores natural conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

HAINS GETS HIS DIVORCE.

Final Decree Is Given to Slayer of William E. Annis.

New York.—A final decree of divorce was granted by Supreme Court Justice Stapleton in Brooklyn to Captain Peter C. Hains, the slayer of William E. Annis. Hains brought the action several months ago and Annis was named as co-respondent.

STRIKE CAUSED TROUBLE FOR LA GRANDE POLICE

La Grande, Ore.—While the La Grande police force has been materially enlarged, it appears to be inadequate to cope with the strike situation and almost daily there is trouble between the two factions. A near riot in a barroom occurred and four of the participants, one striker and three strike-breakers, were arrested. The three strike-breakers pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years, but the striker pleaded guilty and was fined $25, but the fine is now being protested by the head of the strikers, Mr. Alexander. These constant outbreaks it is thought, will result in additional police being asked for.

The Orpheum.

One of the very best programs for Tuesday's change.

1. "Vittagraph Monthly of Current Events." Vittagraph. This issue is packed full of wonderful news happenings of the past month. First and foremost is the International Motor Boat Races at Huntington, Long Island; the Annual Mardi Gras at Colney Island; the Start of the Aviators at Sheephead Bay, New York; and the flight of the intrepid Rogers on his way from New York to San Francisco.

2. "How They Stopped the Run on the Bank." Selig. Rumor has it that the Forest City State bank is hard pressed for cash. The news spreads and a run is imminent. The president faces ruin and disgrace. His finance secures a ferocious live lion from the circus and the crowd forgot about their money in an effort to get as far away as possible.

3. "Christian and Moor." Edison. A Christian knight falls in love with a Moorish maiden. Her father makes an oath that anyone crossing his boundary lines shall be killed. His daughter is entrapped by an unknown person and before it is realized she has crossed the boundary and is doomed to death and is saved by her lover.

4. "The Squaw's Mistaken Love." American Pathé. An old miner leading some of the younger men across the mountains to the gold fields permits his daughter to accompany him in the disguise of a man. The camp is surprised by Indians and the girl and her companion are taken prisoners. One of the squaws falls in love with the girl dressed in men's clothes and helps them to escape.

The Pastime.

Where you see only the best in motion pictures. Tuesday's change of program:

"An Accidental Outlaw." Lubin. A strange streak of fate turned a quiet cowboy into a desperado and stage robber and finally enabled him to win the prettiest girl in the country.

"An Old Sweetheart of Mine." Edison. By James Whitcomb Riley. Adopted from the well known poem and carried out in a novel way, the film conveys all the poetic feeling of the original. The verses are used as sub-titles.

"A Revolution in the Bachelor Club." American. A farce dealing with a bachelor and a beautiful woman. The result of the mixup is a revolution in the club which surpasses words.

"Conals of Fire." Selig. A strong frontier drama. This story treats of two men, one a big, brawny fighting man, who wins a girl from the other weaker in vitality, but superior in his intellectual mentality. In future years this disappointed man becomes governor of Missouri and saves his old sweetheart's husband from paying the death penalty after killing a man.

The Cosy.

For Monday and Tuesday a truly wonderful program full of the most spectacular scenes imaginable. It's a feature show.

"The Mask of Red Death." Ambrosia. From the famous story of Edgar Allan Poe. The king and court fled to a distant castle to escape the plague and a defied death. A shadowy man, who wins a girl from the other weaker in vitality, but superior in his intellectual mentality. In future years this disappointed man becomes governor of Missouri and saves his old sweetheart's husband from paying the death penalty after killing a man.

SHANGHAI WILL AID FAIR.

Shanghai.—M. H. de Young of San Francisco, who arrived several days ago with his family, was given a reception today by the Chamber of Commerce. The Chinese of the city have promised hearty support to the San Francisco exposition.

"The Emperor's Debt." Torlour. A spectacular military drama showing the battle of Bar-sur-Anbe, where Napoleon's forces fought the allied armies. Powder exploded in front of Napoleon, but Fraufau saved him. Returning home Napoleon found Fraufau about to lose his home. The emperor stopped the sale and made Fraufau an officer.

"The Wolf." Imp. A splendid child drama, with several scenes laid in a fresh air farm. Hundreds of pinched, wan children from the cities are shown. A homeless boy finds a home with his grandmother, who had disowned the boy's mother on account of a forbidden marriage.

"Mrs. Richard Dure." Solax. A laugh raising comedy. Dick, having told uncle he was married in order to get money received word that Uncle would come to see him and wife. Dick had to get a wife by 4 o'clock, and none in sight.

"The Hornet." Ambrosia. The kind of comedy that makes you laugh out loud.

PLAN UPRISING IN LISBON AS ARMY CROSSES LINE

Lisbon, via frontier.—The opinion generally prevails that disorders which occurred here on November 25 were only preliminary to more serious events.

The riot, it is said, was started by monarchists, who recently arrived at Oporto. It is declared they are bribing the monarchist element and preparing for an uprising in Lisbon to coincide with crossing the frontier by the royalists.

SIMPLE COLD REMEDY

We have found a new remedy for colds and catarrh that actually does the work and we want to tell all our friends and patrons about it.

It is a simple matter to cure a cold if treatment is given promptly with Mentholiptus.

We have been in the drug business a great many years and we know that Mentholiptus is the simplest and most logical remedy for colds and catarrh that has ever been found. All you have to do is to inhale the pleasant vapor and use a little soothing salve, and you get instant relief, no matter how severe the cold.

This Mentholiptus not only soothes and heals the inflamed tissues, but seems to absolutely protect you from further infection.

We want all our friends and patrons to come in and learn about this remedy. We are so confident of the merits of Mentholiptus that the first package is sold on a money-back guarantee. It is never safe to let a cold drag along, and even if you have not got a cold now it will certainly pay you to investigate. Pendleton Drug Co.

There doesn't seem to be any really good, strong reason why Colonel Roosevelt should get mad about it.
