$15,000 HOARD SHOWN BY DEATH OF RECLUSE

Supposed Poor Man Resident of This City for 25 Years Before Big Fire. San Francisco.—Stephen Cunningham, a resident of San Francisco for a quarter of a century before the big fire, who was believed to have been in almost indigent circumstances, died alone in his lodgings, 2527 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley, leaving a bank book showing deposits aggregating $15,000. Cunningham was 65 years old. As far as known he leaves no relatives.

Cunningham complained of being ill a week ago. He sought a physician, but his condition was not considered serious.

His body was discovered by George McNeil, proprietor of the lodgings, when he went to Cunningham's room with breakfast.

Edward E. Niehaus, deputy coroner in a search of Cunningham's effects, discovered deposit slips for sums ranging from $500 to $10,000, the largest amount being held by the Hibernian Savings Bank of San Francisco.

Cunningham lived the life of a recluse, telling little of his past to acquaintances. He told McNeil that he had been a tailor in San Francisco before the fire, but never mentioned any relatives. He cultivated few friends. He was a native of Ireland.

SAVED BY BLOOD.

Christian Church Revival Well Attended Last Night — Two Solos Given.

There were several new faces along with the regular attendants at the Christian church last night to hear Evangelist Holmes and Miss Lingenfelter of Seattle. The evangelist read as a lesson the parable of the rich man and Lazarus as a basis for the discussion of the question "Will Any Perish?" He noted that Jesus divided all mankind into two classes here and declared that the judgment there would still be but the two. One must be on the side of Christ or with the devil—there is no middle ground. Such a "tag" as an "inactive Christian" does not exist, save in the minds of backsliding Christians who seek to excuse their inactivity. They are really on the wrong side if they are not at work in the church.

Mr. Holmes pointed out the fact that to live for Christ means the restoration of the image of God, to serve Him is to advance, to grow better, to "go on unto perfection," and as John declared, "We shall some day be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." On the other hand, sin destroys the image, it is demoralizing, debasing, downward, a debasing and gels of the devil." Heaven is prepared for the effacing of the last remembrance of God, so that the lost are not addressed as "men," but as "angels for the righteous, those who restore the image of God, hell is prepared for those who sink to the level of the devil.

Another interesting phase of the discussion last night was the declaration that both the enjoyments of heaven and the suffering of hell will be in proportion to the degree of service rendered for Christ, or the extent that sin has ruled the life. "According as his work shall be," will be the measure of reward and punishment.

The singing of Miss Lingenfelter delighted everyone. She is certainly an artist in her chosen work. She sings without apparent effort but with a marvelous sweetness and power.

er. Her gentle, unassuming manner, coupled with her devotion to the work attracts all who come in touch with her. She sings twice at each service. The subject announced for tonight is "Saved By Blood."
