HAIRPULLING LADY ADMITS OFFENSE

The hair pulling case at Pilot Rock was settled yesterday afternoon when Mrs. T. S. Gibson pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery and was fined $5 and costs, which were $10.

The trouble arose, it is alleged because Mae Vaughn took up a homestead in the middle of Mr. Gibson's pasture. As Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were driving to their home Monday they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. Mrs. Gibson, it was charged, began a wordy abuse on Mrs. Vaughn, finally attacking her and pulling her hair.

The case was tried before Justice Matthews at Pilot Rock, Deputy District Attorney Pruitt appearing for Mrs. Vaughn and Attorney Dan Smythe for Mrs. Gibson. The defense argued for a change of venue to bring the case to Pendleton, but Justice Matthews refused to grant the motion.

MAY ELECT WOMEN GOVERNORS

California House Passes Bill Opening Offices to Feminine Voters.

Sacramento, Cal.—"Her Excellency the Governor of California," may soon become a familiar title if a bill swept through the lower house of the legislature by unanimous vote finds its way to the statute books. The measure would open every elective office of the state to feminine citizens.
