AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Excellent program for Friday and Saturday.
1. "The Trial of Books." Biography. This picture shows how a reconciliation was brought about between husband and wife. The couple quarreled and a separation seems inevitable. Their little child endeavors to smooth matters without avail. Left alone to amuse herself, she starts off to find a school. Her parents miss her and by the time she is found their quarrel is forgotten.
2. "The Outlaw Deputy." Essanay. Western drama. Buck Stevens, an outlaw, escapes from jail, but is captured. Later, the sheriff learns of the whereabouts of Daredevil Kelly, but is unable to go after him. Buck volunteers to go and takes Kelly to jail.
3. "She Came, She Saw, She Conquered." Vitaphone. The boys try to run the school, when the new teacher comes they become her champion. She wins them all.
4. "Aunt Jane's Legacy." Lubin. A rollicking love comedy with a hundred laughs and a happy end. Wealthy Aunt Jane's nephews tried to win her good graces. Did they succeed? Not so you could notice it.
The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Friday's change of program:

INSTANT RELIEF FOR COLDS AND CATARRH

In order to cure a cold in the head before it reaches the lungs nothing more is needed than simply to cleanse the affected canals of the nose and head.
This can be done easily and effectively by inhalation of a mild and soothing disinfectant.
We have a good deal to do with different kinds of inhalants and we have seen nothing which seems to do the work of cleansing the nasal tract so quickly and so thoroughly as Mentholypus. The vapor from this Mentholypus gives instant relief and then the salve which is used soothes and heals the affected portions better than anything else I have ever tried.
We hope you will drop into our store and let us tell you about this simple remedy. It is never safe to neglect a cold, and we are so certain that Mentholypus will reach your case that we give you the first package on a money-back guarantee.
Better call and investigate this Mentholypus remedy today.
Pendleton Drug Co.

"A Southern Soldier's Sacrifice." Vitaphone. A war story which appeals very strongly to the emotions. It represents a brother saving a brother when he is captured as a spy, and giving up his life for his brother.
"Her Dad, the Constable." (Essanay). The constable's daughter is waiting in bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms for her bridegroom, a millionaire, who has lost his train and is hurrying to her in his motor car. The girl's father, the constable, receives a telephone message to arrest a chauffeur, whom he doesn't know is his prospective son-in-law.
"The Story of the Typewriter." (Pathe). A dream realized. An industrial film that opens and closes with a story. It is not only highly instructive, but it is interesting and entertaining.
"Logan Babies." (Edison). Logan is to be married on Friday, the 13th. Everything goes wrong and he is left at the end in a very embarrassing position. However, we know it isn't really serious.

The Cosby.
Four reels of beautifully colored film. Stories that grip and hold. The kind you'll tell your friends to come and see.
"The Call of the Song." Imp. A sweet story of love and neglect. The young man forgot his sweetheart till he heard the song she used to sing for him. Then he returned with the first Rose of Summer.
"The Schoolmaster's Overcoat." Ambrosia. A touching story of school days. The kids used to laugh at the teacher's old coat. One day he pawned it to buy medicine for his sick mother. The kids found out and donating their precious pennies they bought the coat back for the teacher.
"Marine Views of Naples." Ambrosia. Short, beautiful subject, showing pretty parts of a fine city.
"Percy and His Squaw." Solax. A laughable comedy of western life. The Indian maiden saved Percy's life and fell in love with him. Poor Percy was certainly in a terrible mess. See how he got out.
"A Wrong Telephone Call." Ambrosia. Story of a ruined man who heeded the voice of temptation and fell, but was saved by the noble-hearted woman at the telephone. How he repaid her kindness to himself and child makes a pretty story.

THEEVES OUTWIT THAW'S.
Rosell Jewels Stolen from Them for Nearly Full Value.
Pittsburg—Negotiations were reported to have been concluded by which jewels valued at $25,000, stolen from the residence of Mrs. William Thaw the evening of January 24 last, while the family was at dinner, were returned.

The robbery was committed by thieves of international reputation who hastened to Chicago from Pittsburg and at once offered to return the jewels if Mrs. Hbay paid the price demanded, about $20,000.
Negotiations lagged while the price attempted to run down the gang, but they succeeded in hiding their tracks and only when it became known that several heliograms were about to be broken up and sold separately was the money paid and the valuables returned.

Deep-seated coughs that resist ordinary remedies require both external and internal treatment. If you buy a dollar bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP you get the two remedies you need for the price of one. There is a HERRICK'S RED PEPPER PORUS PASTER for the chest, free with each bottle. Sold by A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

AT WAR OVER BODY.
Two Women Claiming to Be Widows of Dead Policeman View the Remains.

Chicago, Ill.—Two women, each claiming to be the wife of George O'Brien, policeman from the South Clark street station, who died in Alexian Brothers' Hospital, appeared at the undertaking rooms at 90 East Randolph street to view the body.
The women did not arrive at the same time, and consequently there was no scene.

O'Brien's first marriage occurred twenty-five years ago, but he separated from his wife a few years later, and since then she has been working as housekeeper for a family living on the South Side. He is alleged to have married Miss Jeanette Ryan at the hospital a few days before his death.

A life insurance policy for $2,000 which O'Brien carried in the Policemen's Benevolent association is the bone of contention between the two women. Mrs. O'Brien the first asserts her husband never obtained a divorce, and that the insurance money belongs to her.

It is said, however, that a new policy was made out in favor of the new wife. If the first marriage was not annulled, officers of the benevolent association say, the money will go to the first wife.

Each woman has announced her intention of riding in the carriage behind the pall-bearers in the funeral procession from St. Mary's (Paulist) church, Wabash avenue, to the cemetery. Twenty-five policemen have been ordered to march as a guard of honor before the cortege.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

FOLK PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—A 10-Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physices. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels need is a gentle and natural tone. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.
