AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Excellent program for Friday and Saturday.

1. "The Trial of Books." Biograph. This picture shows how a reconciliation was brought about between husband and wife. The couple quarreled and a separation seems inevitable. Their little child endeavored to smooth matters without avail. Left alone to amuse herself, she starts out to find a school. Her parents miss her and by the time she has found their quarrel is forgotten.

2. "The Outlaw Deputy." Essanay. Western drama. Buck Stevens, an outlaw, escapes from jail, but is captured. Later, the sheriff learns of the whereabouts of Daredevil Kelly, but is unable to go after him. Buck volunteers to go and takes Kelly to jail.

3. "She Came, She Saw, She Conquered." Vitagraph. The boys try to run the school, when the new teacher comes they become her champion. She wins them all.

4. "Aunt Jane's Legacy." Lubin. A rollicking love comedy with a hundred laughs and a happy end. Wealthy Aunt Jane's nephews tried to win her good graces. Did they succeed? Not so you could notice it.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Friday's change of program: "A Southern Soldier's Sacrifice."

Vitagraph. A war story which appeals very strongly to the emotions. It represents a brother saving a brother when he is captured as a spy, and giving up his life for his brother.

"Her Dad, the Constable" (Essanay). The constable's daughter is waiting in bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms for her bridegroom, a millionaire, who has lost his train and is hurrying to her in his motor car. The girl's father, the constable, receives a telephone message to arrest a chauffeur, whom he doesn't know is his prospective son-in-law.

"The Story of the Typewriter." (Pathé). A dream realized. An industrial film that opens and closes with a story. It is not only highly instructive, but it is interesting and entertaining.

"Logan Babies" (Edison). Logan is to be married on Friday, the 13th. Everything goes wrong and he is left at the end in a very embarrassing position. However, we know it isn't really serious.

RUSSIAN CHILDREN LIVING ON ACORNS
Details of Great Famine Gradually Coming Out—Thousands May Starve.

St. Petersburg.—Appalling details of the present famine in Russia are gradually becoming known, despite efforts of the government to suppress the facts. Already it is predicted that unless adequate relief measures are undertaken conditions will be worse than in the great famine of 1891, when the number of deaths in the European provinces of Russia reached 800,000 in excess of the normal.

From official figures it is calculated that the crop shortage for the year will be 49,000,000 tons, but the Free Economic society estimates it at 50,000,000. From the government of Ufa comes the information that the children have for several months past been subsisting on acorns, and that the supply of these is almost exhausted.

In the Samara government the people are eating dogs and the bark of trees. In all a score of government administrations are affected by the crop failure.

Meantime the government is pursuing the most astonishing course, having absolutely prohibited the organization and operation of private relief societies for fear of an uprising.

KILLS INDIAN FATHER OF ILL-TREATED WIFE

Newport, Ore.—Word has just been received here that Abe Logan, an Indian on the Siletz reservation, was seriously if not fatally injured in a shooting scrape at the mouth of the Siletz. Duncan, an Indian, in search of the agency physician, Dr. Clausius, who was at Newport, brought in particulars.

Logan is said to have gone to the cabin of Ed Chase, have charge him with mistreating his wife, who is Logan's daughter; to have drawn a knife and despite his daughter's protestations that she was not ill treated, threatened to "cut Case's heart out." Case drove him out with a gun and chased him down the beach, shooting him in the breast when he turned.

The bullet lodged underneath the shoulder and last reports show Logan's condition is serious. Word has been received from Toledo that Case came in and gave himself up to Sheriff Gear this afternoon.

RODENTS CHEW TO PULP BILLS HOARDED FOR YEARS

Washington.—The savings of Jack Simpson of Atkin, Minn., amounting to $2,565, secretly hidden from burglars, were reduced to pulp by hungry rats and mice, and in a letter received by President Taft he appeals for the redemption by the federal treasury of the pulverized fragments.

His wealth, accumulated to buy a farm, Simpson explains, was placed in a box and deposited beneath the "upstairs floor and ceiling." No human being disturbed it, but when he took it from its hiding place he found it reduced to dust by the ravages of rodents.

The president has referred the matter to the treasury department for investigation.

The treasury department recently redeemed for a Kansas farmer a roll of bills which slipped out of his back pocket while plowing his fields and were buried in the soil for a year. The money, subjected to rain and frost, was a sorry sight when he recovered it upon replotting the field the following season.

The treasury experts succeeded in piecing it together and sufficiently establishing its identity for redemption.

MORE THAN 100 U. OF O. STUDENTS TEACHING HIGH

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.—A study of Oregon high school statistics show that over a hundred University of Oregon graduates are teaching in the high schools of Oregon. They are represented in forty-five separate high schools and in twenty-two counties. The Eugene high school with eleven claims the largest number. The Portland high schools are next with nine. Of the above number of high school teachers, thirty are men, and seventeen of these are principals and school superintendents. The class of 1911 has the largest number teaching—thirty-two in all. 1910 follows with nineteen, 1909 with fourteen, 1908 with ten, and 1907 with eleven. The average number of years that high school teachers follow the profession is not over four or five. Statistics show that the women get married and the men branch into more lucrative fields of enterprise.

DEAD WOMAN WINS SUIT.

Seattle.—The heirs of Mrs. Elizabeth Bell of Harrodsburg, Ky., have obtained a verdict for $10,000 against the Seattle, Renton & Southern Railway for injuries sustained in a collision on April 20, 1910. Her husband, Judge W. C. Bell, was killed beside her. The company paid heavy damages to Mrs. Bell for the death of her husband. She died before the termination of her own suit.
