

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET IS STEADY

FAIR SHOWING OF HOGS FOR BEGINNING OF WEEK

Cattle Receipts are Heavy With Prices Holding Their Own—Grain Fed Lambs Bring Good Figure—Wheat at Dollar Mark.

(From Monday's Journal.) While there was another heavy offering of livestock at North Portland the market was considered steady all around. The volume of local hogs is increasing, a total of 977 being received over Sunday. While this is smaller than last Monday, when 1540 head came forward, the run was better than expected.

North Portland swine trade today: Best packers 6.50; Good heavy 6.45; Good light 6.45@6.50; Rough and heavy 6.00@6.25; Poor and heavy 5.00@5.50.

Cattle Market Steady. While there was a big run of cattle in the yards today trade was generally considered steady around last week's last quotations. There was a run of 548 head over Sunday, compared with 216 last Monday, but a large per cent of the arrivals were for through shipment and did not enter the trade at all.

North Portland general cattle range: Select steers 5.75; Fancy steers 5.60; Choice steers 5.50; Feeders 4.50; Common steers 5.00; Fancy cows 4.85; Fancy heifers 5.00@5.25; Feeder cows 4.50; Fancy bulls 4.25@4.50; Good ordinary bulls 4.00; Stage 4.25; Fancy light calves 8.00; Medium calves 5.00@5.50; Ordinary calves 4.00@4.50.

Sharp Rise in Lambs. The first grain-fed lambs of the season arrived today and sold at $5.65 in the North Portland yards. This would place the general market about 15c higher than formerly.

Indiana Court Suspends Sentence of One Day's Imprisonment. Princeton, Ind.—Convicted of the theft of two skunk skins, Frank Davis was sentenced by a jury to one day's imprisonment and to pay a fine of one cent. The court suspended the sentence and remitted the costs because Davis had been in jail several days and the defendant then produced the one cent, paid his fine and was freed.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

MOTHER CUT DAUGHTER'S HAIR TO USE FOR "RAT" Bakersfield, Calif.—When her father had a vaquero cut off her hair and her mother used it for a "rat," Lena Huntington twelve-year-old daughter of a butcher employed at Bellevue, decided to leave home.

Clad but thinly against the frosty morning and wearing part of a white stocking over her shorn head, she set out for the depot, ten miles distant. A Mexican with a team gave her a ride and twenty-five cents to buy her breakfast, and she was about to board a train for Los Angeles, where her aunt lives, when a constable picked her up and took her to the Children's Shelter.
