AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orphan.
Sell masterpiece for Friday's change. The best is none to good for our patrons.
1. "Lost in the Jungle." (Selig). Absolutely the greatest animal picture ever produced. A thrilling all-absorbing, gripping drama of the jungles.
2. "A Western Redemption." (Essanay). A western drama excellently played. Interesting all the way through.
3. "The Greatest of Engineering Feats." (Kalem). An interesting and instructive picture of New York City's water system, showing the problem of bringing to New York, an abundant supply of water.
4. "The Plot Against Bertie." (Kalem). Here is a good Bertie comedy. In this instance Bertie gets in bad because the men are jealous of him.
5. "Romance of Pond Cove." (Lubin). One of the best love stories of the year. Arthur Moore loses his fortune and the girl he loves. He goes away to forget to work. In later years he returns, a prosperous engineer, and wins the hand of Flo, Ethel's little sister.
The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Tuesday's change:
"The Surgeon's Temptation." Edison. Norm Marsden an eminent surgeon, becomes engaged to Celia West, a charming society girl who is considerably his junior. One day while with Celia he meets a young friend of his whom he presents to Celia. Evans is a handsome young chap with a winning personality and it is not long until the young people are very much in love. An automobile accident in this picture causes a real thrill.

"Too Many Engagements." Essanay. A lively comedy in a fashionable restaurant. Two adjoining private dining rooms are shown and in each Bob Crandall, stock market plunger, is trying to entertain a girl without letting either know of the other.
"Trapped." Ellipse. An absorbing story telling how a thumb print aids justice in finding the guilty party.
"White Brave's Heritage." Kalem. A ranchman dashes up to the Westworth home and informs the family that a terrific prairie fire is sweeping down upon them.
The Cosy.
For Wednesday and Thursday.
"The Empty Crib." Reliance. A pathetic drama. The orphaned child yearned for a mother's love, while a woman mourned for her departed child. Through a series of touching incidents the orphan is taken from a life of hardship and the longing of both is realized.
"The Land Thieves." American. The story possesses historic as well as dramatic interest. Life of the period it depicts has been reproduced with absolute fidelity and the story contains a chain of tragedy, pathos and love.

"The Five Rose Sisters." Thant-houser. A heart interest story of five sisters who retired from the stage to the country and were ostracised by the narrow minded villagers. They uncovered the hypocrisy of a deacon and were restored to favor.
"World's Happenings Day by Day." The world's most interesting events told in pictures. Parade of 10,000 boy scouts in London. Atrship race from Paris to Madrid. Horse racing at Nice.
Coming soon, "The Cowboy Pugilist." Coming Christmas, greatest of all war dramas, "The Golden Wedding," in two reels.
When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.
