This sale is positively one of the greatest bargain events ever held in Pendleton. We are sacrificing winter goods of all kinds to effect an immediate and radical clearance. Dimes now do the work of quarters. It is an unequalled opportunity to benefit your pocket book

CLEARANCE HERE means sacrifice, an upheaval of values without precedent. All goods not going are given deeper price reductions. Value is not the consideration now—our one thought being to name prices so low that goods will sell quickly and surely. Why say more when these prices tell so decisively and emphatically of the surprising values now offered.

AND REMEMBER—This is a sale of new QUALITY MERCHANDISE, not JUNK.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Vitagraph feature film for Friday and Saturday.

- "An Aeroplane Elopement. Vitagraph. The start of the lovers in the aeroplane; the race with the father's automobile. The young folks win the race and father dies."—ing.
- "The Coward." American Pathé. A good war drama. A younger son is summoned by his brother to join the army. The boy proves to be a coward and runs. Later, in a charge he loses his life.
- "The Fishermid of Bally David." Kaleim. An Irish feature film made on two continents and on board steamer in mid-ocean.
- "Dad's Boy." Pathe. John Chester is a country storekeeper. He put his son through college by mortgaging the store. The son prefers law and goes to the city. The mortgage fell due and Mr. Chester has no money to meet it. An old friend has telegraphed the boy of his father's plight and the son hastens to the sale, buys the store and returns the property free to his dad.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. A classy program for Friday's change. "Who's Who." Vitagraph. The people of this town like a good comedy, and they are no different from the rest of folks. "Who's Who." shows us "What's What." This refined Vitagraph comedy is it.

"When California Was Won." Kaleim. The story of a great day in California history. This production was made on Dead Man's Island, where part of the action originally took place.

"Old Billie." Selig. The story of a veteran fire horse. Another great fire subject. Billie was sold and doomed to die on a milk wagon. But when the fire engine goes tearing past him he cannot resist the old impulse and starts after it.

"The Helress." Eclipse. She has many suitors. She pretends to be financially ruined. All desert her and she wins another love.

"Lyons." The second city of France.

ed; after being saved from a pot of boiling tar, Claude is put in a big safe and thrown overboard but lands on the back of a big turtle, who kindly puts him ashore. By means of wireless he calls a battleship to his aid, and Rosamond is saved.

"Lucky Bob." Bison. Bob got the job of Farrel who was discharged and also won Nell, the Superintendent's daughter, incurring the enmity of Jack, the foreman. Jack bribed Farrel to tamper with the hoisting machinery, causing a serious accident and bob was blamed. Nell clears him and the plotters were pursued and lassoed in a sensational manner.

"The Last Friend." Ambrosia. Beautiful story of a child's love for her little pet.

"Molly of the Regiment." Ambrosia. Stirring story of war time.

"Was It Worth While." Nestor. It's a worth while picture of great dramatic strength.

At the Grand.
Tonight the Austin musical comedy company presents the sidesplitting farce comedy, "The Good Ship Nancy Lee." This bill has always been a big success. Every thing has been done to make it a success. New special scenery has been painted. Two feature reels of motion pictures will be shown.

The management of the Grand has arranged with E. Fisher the booking agent of Seattle, for a change of musical comedy companies every two weeks of 12 people in each company after January 7th.

Amateur night Friday night and special holiday matinee Saturday and Sunday.

HEWETT'S IMPROVE.
The Hewett company played to another good house last night at the Oregon theater. The magic and illusions by Mr. Hewett were even better than the opening night and were enjoyed by every one. A laughable negro farce will be presented tonight. Tomorrow night another change of program.

receive nearly $20,000,000 less per annum for space used in mail service in comparison with the revenue received from other space used on passenger trains. The post office department, on the other hand, through alteration of the statistics has come to the conclusion that they are overpaid $9,000,000 per annum, or a difference of $23,000,000. Just how to account for this difference is proving a pretty puzzle and many officials have already called attention to certain changes which they claim the statisticians of the department have taken the liberty of making in the certified statements made by the railroads.

POSTAL DEPARTMENT MAY CONTROL WIRELESS
Washington—What may prove to be the entering wedge for control of all wire communications in the country by the postoffice department is found in the proposition to transfer all the duties of the signal corps of the army in Alaska to the postmaster general's department.

In Alaska the signal corps maintains and operates an elaborate system of telephone, telegraph and wireless communications. There are about 75 stations, cables, land wires and wire- less, with a mileage of 1,125 on land and 2,633 by cable. There are nine wireless stations. These stations handle not only the government traffic but the commercial and press as well. The receipts of the Alaskan stations amounted during the last year to more than $218,000. The enlisted men of the signal corps handle all this money without the loss of a cent, according to Brigadier General James Allen, who describes the system in his annual report.

Owing to the shortage of men in the signal corps, it is proposed to turn this entire business over to the postoffice department. Congress will be asked to authorize the change.

JUNCTION CITY MAN KILLED BY A TRAIN
Junction City, Ore.—John A. Lawrence, of this place, was struck by southbound train No. 19, at a street crossing on Tenth street here and killed. Mr. Lawrence, who was 54 years old, has been in bad health for the past year that had weakened his mind, and it was necessary to watch him to keep him from leaving home. He could walk with difficulty as he could not balance himself, and staggered like a blind man. He left the house in his stocking feet and walked one block to the railroad crossing and was trying to cross the track. It is thought he saw the train coming but his mind being weakened he did not realize the danger in time to get out of the way of the train, which was going at a speed of 15 miles an hour. He was struck by the buffer on the side of the engine's front and hurled about 60 feet, and instantly killed. Mr. Lawrence was road supervisor for six years previous to his sickness and for many years was a successful farmer. He leaves a wife who has been his sole nurse during his long sickness. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and will be buried by the order at the Monroe cemetery.

TOP OF MOUNTAIN FALLS TO BOTTOM
Lizard Peak, in Rockies, Shorn of 1,000 Foot Crest in a Strange Convulsion.
Telluride, Colo.—With a crash like the discharge of a battleship's broadside, followed by a prolonged roar, the crest of Lizard Peak, one of the highest mountains in Colorado, tumbled into the canyons at its base.

The few residents of that locality did not discover what had happened until some one noticed a queer change in formation and an apparent lowering of the crest of Lizard Peak, which was over 14,000 feet high.

Advices from points surrounding the peak, which is eighteen miles from here, indicate that 1600 feet of the crest has crumbled away.

Lizard Peak was one of the sharpest pointed of the many slender tipped monarchs of the San Juan range. It was difficult of ascension and the few who have tried to scale it have reported large caves and fissures near the summit.

Local geologists cannot offer any explanation for the collapse.

Flees from Dead Barber.
New York—George Hutchenheimer of Brooklyn was badly frightened when a barber who was shaving him died suddenly beside him with the razor in his hand.

With one side of his face shaved and the other lathered he jumped out of the chair and ran from the shop without stopping to get his coat and hat hanging on a hook. His property was identified by cards the police found later, as nothing could move him to return to the shop and claim it himself.

The dead man was Jesse Commertano, sixty-five years old, who kept a shop in Nassau street. He was pronounced dead from apoplexy by Dr. Towell, who found him lying beside the chair with the razor still clasped in his hand.

SAYS HE KILLED BEAR WITH BLOW FROM FIST
Smith Broke Jaw With Brass "Knucker;" Beat Beast to Death.
Boulder, Colo.—What is claimed to be the champion bear story of the season was told today by William Smith of Syracuse, N. Y., who returned here after a hunting trip of two weeks in the mountains.

Smith claims to have killed a 250-pound black bear with a blow from his fist. He said he and his companions left camp without their guns to gather firewood, when their hunting dogs treed a big bear. The men hom- parded the animal with stones and it descended, the hounds closing in on it.

After the bear had killed two valuable dogs with strokes of its paws, Smith, according to his story, put on a pair of brass knuckles and swung on the bear's jaw knocking him out. Then, he said, he jumped upon the animal and beat him about the head and spine until the bear was dead, later dragging the animal through the snow to the camp, two miles distant.

Smith said he would take the pelt back to New York to show his friends there that the day of giants had not passed.

INDEPENDENCE MAN DIES IN FALL FROM BRIDGE
Independence, Or.—Matthew Cassidy of this city, was found dead on the bank of the slough in the north part of this city. He had been drinking, and at a late hour the preceding night started home, and the supposition is that he fell from the bridge which crosses the slough and was killed by the fall. He leaves a large family, the members of which were dependent upon him.

GARRISON SENTENCED AT COQUILLE TO HANG
Marshfield, Or.—Frank Garrison, found guilty of the murder of Roy Perkins, was sentenced to hang by Judge Coke in the circuit court. Garrison made a statement protesting his innocence.

Schools Get More Room.
Freewater, Or.—Owing to the crowded condition of the primary grade of the Freewater public school

It has been found necessary to provide another room and the building formerly occupied by the Freewater Times has been fitted up by the school directors and the present primary grade in the public building divided. Mrs. F. Noordhoff has been engaged as teacher in the new room.

SLAVERS KIDNAP CHILD ON STREET
San Francisco.—Kidnaped by six men from her home in Oakland, brought to a Barbary Coast dive in an automobile and held prisoner there until her escape by means of a fire ladder, Ida Le Fevre, 14, has returned to her home with one of the strangest stories ever brought to the attention of the San Francisco police.

While waiting for a car at a busy corner in Oakland, she said, an automobile stopped near her six men enveloped her in a great cloth, threw her into the machine and then she lost consciousness. Next she remembers being locked in a room, devoid of furniture. Finally she picked a window fastening, climbed many stories down a fire escape and dropped from the second story to the ground, into the arms of a policeman.

TRIANGLE SHOP OWNERS ARE SET FREE BY JURY
New York.—"Not guilty" was the verdict of a jury here in the cases of Max Blanck and Isaac Harris, owners of the burned Triangle shirt-waist factory, in which more than 100 employes met death by fire here last summer. Harris and Blanck were charged with contributory negligence in not having provided fire appliances.
