Attell to Box Hogan.
New York, Dec. 28.—Abe Attell and One Round Hogan will box ten rounds tonight in the main feature of the Madison Athletic club's show. This affair has been twice postponed, the last time because Attell got into a quarrel with a doorkeeper at the National Sporting club and knocked him down, injuring his hand. Attell declares he can whip Hogan in a big time, but didn't want to tackle the job with one hand on the blink.

Kid Burns, the New York lightweight has gone to Pittsburg, Mass., where he will tackle Paddy Sullivan, the "Fighting Irishman," in a ten round bout before the Twentieth Century Athletic club of Springfield this evening. Burns has been working hard for this battle, as he has been promised matches with some of the big fellows in the lightweight division if he can win over the scrapping Hibernian.

Battling Nelson is now in New Orleans, where he will take on Jack Redmond of Milwaukee in a twenty round affair before the West Side Athletic club of the Crescent City day after tomorrow.

Another important match soon to be pulled off will be that between Pal Moore, the clever Philadelphia lightweight and Billy Allen of Syracuse, the featherweight champion of Canada. This will be for ten rounds and will be the main event of the opening show of the Olympic Athletic club of Rochester on Monday night.

Cobb to Quit Stage.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 29.—Tyrus Cobb, baseball wonder and now starring with the "College Widow" theatrical company, announces that he is going to leave the stage for good within a short time stating that if he doesn't he will be unfit to join the Tigers when spring training opens. He is on the verge of a nervous breakdown. The calcium lights are said to have pained Cobb's eyes. "I can't stand the strain," said Cobb. "I haven't had a good night's rest since we opened the show in Newark. If I kept on until training begins, I'd be unfit to join the team."

HAS GUN IN VIEW; SEIZED.

La Grande, Ore.—Fearing trouble might come from Leonard Huntly, a tinner employed at the local O. W. R. & N. shops, and his gun, which he carried with him a holster strapped to his waist, police officers arrested him on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Huntly claims he was carrying the gun in accordance with the law, which provides that a man may carry a weapon provided it is not concealed, and that he wished to do so for his own protection. The police claim that he has not asked for protection. It will be up to Police Judge Humphrey to decide.

"LOADED" SAFE IS OPEN.

Expert Neutralizes Nitro and Makes Postmaster Happy.
Warrensburg, Mo.—Joy came to Postmaster Smith when Roy A. Cramer, of Kansas City, opened the safe, which had been standing in the postoffice nearly a week with an unexploded charge of nitroglycerine around the cracks of its door. Several thousand dollars in stamps and money in the safe were undisturbed. No one had been found with nerve enough to try to open the safe until Cramer arrived. He neutralized the nitroglycerine by pouring over it a chemical solution, afterward exploding a dynamite cap on the door to prove that the glycerine had been rendered harmless.

RUSSIA PAYS NO HEED TO STARVING PEASANTS

Refuses Famine Official "Registration" and Forbids Charitable to Give Aid to Destitute.

Petersburg.—The appeal of the Bishop of Chelabinsk on behalf of the peasants of the Orenburg and Turgai districts has emphasized the deplorable condition of the peasants in many parts of Russia, due to the failure of the crops. The famine-stricken citizens are flocking to the towns and villages, asking for special services and the administration of the last communion so that they may be prepared for death. The crops in the Orenburg government are 86 per cent below the average.

In the province of Ufa for many months the children have had no other food than acorns, and even acorns will very soon not be available as snow will cover the forests.

For some strange reason the government not only is trying to minimize the seriousness of the situation but is refusing permission to give private aid to the famine victims.

The Central Zemstvo organization, the headquarters of which is at Moscow, has been prohibited from aiding the victims on its own account. The organization already has collected nearly $15,000 and this sum will therefore be distributed in the most necessitous provinces by the various individual Zemstvos.

Side by side with stories that the peasants in the Samara government are eating dogs and bark from trees comes the announcement that the chief of police of Syzran has prohibited the local press not only from organizing subscription lists, but also from making any mention of the famine.

In the administration of Rostok a concert organized in aid of the starving peasants has been forbidden

OPINION ON WATER RIGHTS MODIFIED

Salem, Ore., Dec. 29.—Superior Justice Robert Eakin added a modification to the opinion handed down by the supreme court Tuesday, which decision was written by Justice Burnett. The decision was that in the case of J. L. Caviness vs. La Grande Irrigation company et al., involving litigation over the division of water rights Chief Justice Eakin says:

"I concur in the result of this decision, but I cannot give my consent to the following statement: 'Primarily, any use of the water of a natural stream for beneficial purposes is free to him who has an opportunity to take it without infringing upon the property rights of another. Concerning the mere division and use of water, there is no difference between a non-riparian appropriator and a riparian user, provided the former has a lawful right of access for that purpose to the stream from which the diversion is made. The essential condition of appropriation in the first place on public lands was the consent or acquiescence of the then riparian owner, the general government. The reason for the rule is not changed by the fact that the riparian owner is a private person provided the appropriator has his consent or what is equivalent, that the appropriator and the riparian owners are one and the same person. The deduction then is that if any one can lawfully gain access for that purpose to a non-navigable stream and water is not subject to use by another, such a one may appropriate it for his own use. The effect of which statement is to abolish or do away with riparian rights as heretofore recognized in this state.'

Raid Alleged Coiners.

Portland, Ore.—Quantities of metal several dimes, some coins and other paraphernalia used by counterfeiters, were seized by the police in rooms alleged to have been occupied by Herbert Yost and Russell Weatherly, youths still in their teens, who were arrested. A third member of the alleged counterfeiting gang, known as Arthur Hief, is supposed to have gone to Seattle. Remarks made by Yost led the police to suspect the young men have had relations with the Duffy-Reagan gang of counterfeiters. Duffy is serving a five-year term on McNeal Island for counterfeiting.

BUDDHIST STATUES FOUND.

South Sea Carvings Similar to Those Uncovered in Yucatan.
Victoria.—Dr. Frederick Starr, professor of anthropology at the University of Chicago, who returned from a scientific mission to Corea, made the discovery at a deserted semi-subterranean temple on the southeastern coast of Corea of Buddhist statues and carvings remarkably similar to the carvings discovered in Yucatan and southern Mexico.

He is bringing 40 negatives which tend to prove the theory held by some American anthropologists that Buddhist tendencies are shown in the ruins found in Yucatan and on the southern Mexican border. He considers that the origin of the famous Buddhas of Nara and Kamalaura are due to suggestions brought by Buddhist monks from this little temple, now fallen into decay and abandoned.

"PHANTOM" SHIP SIGHTED.

Steamer Willissen Passes Strange Vessel Which Ignores Signals.
Vancouver, B. C.—Whether the steamship Willissen, which arrived from Honolulu saw a phantom steamer or a real one in distress 200 miles off Cape Flattery Christmas eve is puzzling Captain C. E. Cox. The Willissen was forced to alter her direction by the stranger, which did not acknowledge any signals and was finally lost to view.

Freewater, Ore.—J. R. Chapman and Miss Esther L. Walline were married Tuesday by the Rev. C. O. Kimball at the Methodist parsonage in Walla Walla. Mr. Chapman is a prominent young rancher and educator and is at present teaching in the Copeland district in Walla Walla county. Mrs. Chapman recently came from Cambridge, Ill., and is a teacher.

They left yesterday for a trip to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

T. R. Not in Politics.

New York.—Theodore Roosevelt announced that he was taking no part in the New York state situation and "that not a single human being" had asked him to lend his influence to the support of any candidate for the republican nomination for governor next year. "I haven't been asked because I'm not in politics and nobody expects me to be in politics," said he. Colonel Roosevelt today had an hour's conference with Darwin P. James, Jr., president of the Young Republican Club of Brooklyn.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL NOT PETITION PRESIDENT

Salem, Ore.—Replying to a letter from W. T. Reeves, a school officer of Stanfield, State Superintendent Alderman declined to take up the suggestion at the present time to get a state wide petition from the school children to ask President Taft to use his influence in having the battleship Oregon lead the procession of ships through the Panama canal, on the ground that Taft has already signified his willingness to do this in the event he is re-elected. Superintendent Alderman believes that such a move should not be made until after the election.

THE GREATEST SUCCESSFUL CURE OF ANY CHRONIC DISEASE WITHOUT THE KNIFE.

See our patients' testimony. Dec. 1st, 1911. I am glad to tell the public what the Chinese Doctor did for me. I was nearly dead suffering from abscess in the stomach and three American doctors told me there was no hope for me except an operation which I felt would kill me. So we called Dr. Leo Ching Wo and tried his medicine and in two weeks I was out of danger. Took his wonderful medicine four weeks more and am nearly well. I can cheerfully recommend his remedy to any one who is in need of a doctor, for he certainly saved my life. Mrs. Ida Herring, 215 West Alder St., Walla Walla, Washington.
