BOND BROTHERS

PENDLETON'S LEADING CLOTHIERS

On Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Ermal Ollita Mann was united in marriage to Mr. George Clinton Baer of Portland, by Rev. Frank J. Milnes of the First Presbyterian church of this city, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride. Miss Mann had as her attendant her cousin, Miss Hazel Mann of Portland, while Mr. Baer was attended by Mr. Roy Cole, also cousin of the bride. The bride, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mann of this city, is a very charming and accomplished young lady. For a number of years she has been prominently connected with the younger society circles and is a popular member of the Sigma Epsilon Omicron sorority of this city. The bridegroom is also well known here, having attended the local high school, where he was identified with the Lambda Sigma fraternity, and both he and his bride have an unusually large number of friends who rejoice in their union. Mr. Baer is at present employed in the office of the S. P. & S. Railway company at Portland, for which city the young couple left Thursday morning. They will be at home after January fifteenth at 250 Twelfth street.

On Thursday evening members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity in Umatilla county met at the banquet board for their annual Christmas gathering and spent a most enjoyable evening in reviving again the spirit of their college days. The affair was held in the basement banquet room of the Bowman Hotel and the partaking of the feast and postprandial speeches held off adjournment until a late hour. The organization of an eastern Oregon alumni association of the fraternity was perfected and officers were elected as follows: president, A. C. Hampton, vice-president, J. H. Strohm, secretary-treasurer, M.

R. Chessman, members of executive committee, E. I. Davis, J. P. Neal. Members of the association hail from all parts of the county and claim as their alma maters colleges in all sections of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The present roll is as follows: Arle C. Hampton, University of Oregon, Edmund Mable, Union University, Merle R. Chessman, Oregon, James S. Johns, Jr., Oregon, Lyman G. Rice, Oregon, Bertrand S. Jerard, Oregon, all of Pendleton; J. Herbert Strohm, Washington, Edward I. Davis, Maine, John W. Campbell, Washington, Fred Faude, Minnesota, Maurice D. Scroggs, Washington, Gerald Bohn, Purdue, all of Hermiston; James P. Neal, De Pauw, of Freewater, and Arthur G. Means, Oregon, of Umatilla.

Miss Mary Connelly, at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Carr, on Thursday evening entertained several of her fellow high school students, the evening being most enjoyably spent with games and music. Those present were Misses Myrtle Anderson, Anita Howard, Helen Wheeler, Mary Connelly and Messrs. Floyd Brumfield, Glen Wallace, John Beavert, Clement Howard and Harold Wheeler, and Mr. and Mrs. Nolton.

Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs entertained with cards Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Ermal Mann, a bride of the past week. Those present besides the honor guest were Miss Hazel Mann of Portland, Miss Genevieve Clark, Miss Una Smith, Miss Sibyl Clopton, Miss Edna Storie, Miss Edna Wissler, Miss Elizabeth Sawtelle, Miss Paralee Halley, Miss Katherine Campbell, Mrs. Walter Cresswell, Mrs. George Strand and Mrs. Merle Chessman.

Among the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mann who came up to attend the Baer-Mann nuptials are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole of Oregon City, Mrs. Hill Mann of Portland, Miss Ollita Cooley and Miss Hazel Mann of Portland and Ray Cole of Oregon City.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Edwin P. Marshall invited a number of young ladies to her handsome home on North Main street to meet her niece, Miss Dorothy Greene of Walla Walla, who is spending the holidays with her, and a most enjoyable time was had at the informal affair.

Miss Emily Abbott of Walla Walla is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Alexander, having come over for the Lambda Sigma dance Wednesday.

Miss Ollita Cooley, who came up from Portland to attend the Mann-Baer wedding, will return to her home Monday.

Miss Mary Ritner who has been visiting relatives during the holidays, leaves today for Portland.

Jack Vincent is visiting his parents during the holidays.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If every-should be long, thick and glossy, wint-even in comparatively elderly people, thing is right with nature, the hair, out even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle today, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drug Co.
