Nat Kimball left this morning for Portland and will go on up to Eugene Monday to continue his work at the University of Oregon.

J. E. Keefe, Charles W. Melghan and A. R. Lord, members of the Commercial club quartet, returned this morning from Vincent, where they sang before the Odd Fellows and their wives of that vicinity. They report a very enjoyable occasion.

Mrs. Harry Bickers entertained the children of her Sunday school class at her home on Thursday afternoon and the little tots enjoyed the occasion immensely. Mrs. Bickers was assisted by the Misses Lotta Livermore, Georgianna Fletcher, Louisa Jones and Emily Carney.

At the Grand.

Last night amateur night, drew a large audience and the different local stunts pulled off drew big encores. Little Miss Longenecker, a five year old mite, in a recitation, did exceedingly well, while Kid Casey in buck and wing dancing was at his best. But the hit of the evening was the Pendleton colored bootblack quartet. They responded to four curtain calls with a new song each time. The management will try to have them appear again Sunday night Monday a special attraction. "The Good Ship Nancy Lee" is more than making good. Monday night the Austin company will produce "In Vacation Time," a far superior bill to any yet put on. Special matinee Sunday and Monday, 2:30.

Notice to the M. B. A.

All members of the M. B. A. are requested to meet at the Eagle-Woodman hall at 1 p. m., December 31, 1911, for the arrangements for the funeral of the late sister, Mrs. R. E. Baird.

P. A. ANDERSON, Pres.
MRS. MILLER, Secretary.

Chinese Royalty Flees.

Tokio, Dec. 30.—Peking dispatches received here today say that most of the royal family is fleeing in disguise from the forbidden city. It is reported that Prince Chun, the deposed regent, has fled with the baby emperor, in the disguise of a colic and it is rumored that they are enroute to Tokio. The dowager empress it is said, is determined to remain until the rebels actually enter Peking.

KANSAS CITY BANK IS CLOSED BY STATE OFFICERS

Kansas City, Dec. 30.—The American Union Trust company with $162,000 paid capital, failed to open its doors today. The bank is less than a year old. About 3000 depositors are affected. State banking officials who are in charge, say their investigations have not proceeded far enough to make any statement.

LaFollette at Taft's Home.

Dayton, O., Dec. 30.—Senator LaFollette's activities in the Ohio tour this afternoon center in a speech at Hamilton, Ohio. Tonight he addresses a meeting in Cincinnati, the home of President Taft. LaFollette today expressed himself as greatly pleased with his reception in the state.

Turkish Cabinet Resigns.

London, Dec. 30.—The entire Turkish cabinet resigned today. The official reason was that the Turkish legislators would not pass laws which the cabinet wanted action on.

KING'S SKULL IS STOLEN.

Tomb of Black George of Serbia Desecrated; Jewels Untouched. Vienna.—The vault in St. Mark's cemetery in which reposed for many years the bones of Kara-George Petrovitch, founder of the Servian dynasty, has been desecrated. The skull of the former Servian chief has been stolen, but the decorations and rings were not touched.

The coffin of Queen Persida was not opened. There is no clue to the desecrators.

Kara-George (Black George, or George Czerny) was a peasant, born in 1786, who in 1806 became the leader of the Servians in the revolt against Turkey. He defeated the Turks, captured Belgrade and liberated Servia. He was driven out of Servia in 1813 and was murdered in 1817.

SMUDGE POTS FOR STANFIELD ORCHARD

(Special Correspondence.)

Stanfield, Ore., Dec. 30.—F. H. Page of Portland, was here Wednesday looking after his 160-acre tract under the Furnish ditch, most of which is already in a high state of cultivation. He plans to protect his peach orchard from frost during the coming spring by use of smudge pots, in which case he will undoubtedly harvest several thousand boxes of peaches from his three year old orchard.

The O. W. R. & N. has placed a light at the depot here which has been desired for some time and the residents of our little city appreciate the improvement very much.

W. T. Reeves, the well known Stanfield farmer, was transacting business in Pendleton Thursday.

C. P. Bowman of Butler creek was a Stanfield visitor Thursday.

J. M. Bruce, manager of Eschbach Bruce Co., the contractors who are constructing the drainage ditch, was here Thursday looking after business matters.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Mary Appleby, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Rose Schlosser, went to Sunnyside, Wash., where she will remain for several weeks.

J. E. Reeves, L. T. Kenison and George Riseling went to Pendleton Thursday evening to attend the Odd Fellows encampment and banquet.

Joe Bailey of Echo, was calling on friends here Thursday.

R. H. Irwin, secretary of the Inland Irrigation company, returned from Portland Friday morning, having spent several days in the metropolis looking after business matters.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

The multimillionaires will give generously New Year's, but only to those who have plenty.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Excellent program for Sunday and Monday.

1. "In the Days of Gold." Selig. A western story full of thrilling action. It tells the love story of a girl who is made friendless by a band of Indians who kill the family.

2. "Jimmie and His Country Uncle." Gaumont. The boy teaches his uncle how to win an attractive widow.

3. "A Trip on Marne from Creteil to Saint Maur." Gaumont. Taken between Creteil and Saint Maur on the outskirts of Paris.

4. "A Brother in Arms." Pathé. Military story. This is an interesting picture, showing the capture and rescue of a soldier by United States regulars.

5. "Sir George and the Heiress." Edison. A brilliant society comedy. The players being used to good clothes and manners, give a touch of real society at its best.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Sunday's program.
"Man to Man." Vitagraph. A

A Happy and Prosperous New Year to You

Our business for the past year has been the best and largest in our history. We attribute this not alone to the superiority of our lines of merchandise, but more especially to the good will and active co-operation of our customers. They have sent us their friends and we have numbered these among our customers.

Wohlenberg Department Store

Better Goods for Less Money

western story of great power, with wild realism and imparts a lesson of duty's call that stretches the heart strings of love and friendship.

"His Chorus Girl Wife." She was true as steel to the man she loved. A son of a millionaire, after several years of high life, married a chorus girl. The plot leads from the marriage of the "gilded youth" to the chorus girl, his disinheriting by his father and a final happy end.

"The Empty Saddle." Essayay. A dramatic episode of the rebellion. It would be hard to devise a picture that would tell the story more forcibly.

"Vendetta." C. G. P. C. An interesting dramatic picture of great strength.

"The Birth of a Flower." C. G. P. C. A remarkable film of an educational nature.

Have you heard our new pianochestron play?

The Cosy.

Friday and Saturday program is strong on western and good comedy.

"A Range Romance." Bison. After a quarrel, Bob Adams left his wife, taking their child Ethel. Ten years later the foreman of the ranch went to town to find a new cook and brought back Bob's wife. A reconciliation took place.

"When the Sheriff Got His Man." Champion. Comedy drama of western life. The sheriff was unable to meet Alice because "a bad man" had tied him to a tree. He later got free and found the outlaw flirting with Alice. After some exciting moments he got his man with Alice's help.

"Magdalene." Great Northern. A powerful drama of a young girl's repentance, finely told. A story that grips.

"Thirty Minutes." Reliance. Comedy. Jack, an actor, dresses as a minister, to create a good impression on his rich uncle. He had lots of fun, but was found out. Uncle saw the joke and things ended all right.

Hewett's Last Appearance.

The Hewett company appears at the Oregon theatre for the last time tonight, producing a change of program in every detail. The Hewetts have had excellent houses all this week and have presented plays and moving pictures which have given great satisfaction. The dramatic sketch, "Matrimonial Squabble," will be given tonight with change of pictures.

YOU CAN ORDER your COAL by TELEPHONE?

The Telephone is the coal man's best salesman.

Many of his customers he never sees, for their orders come by wire and their checks by mail.

If you move into a new house or have an unexpected need of fuel, you can often save a day's time by telephoning your order.

In the mining and shipping of coal, the Bell Telephone has become an important factor. The wholesale markets and source of supply are kept in constant touch with the Bell Long Distance Service and the danger of a coal famine greatly reduced.
