Manchu Princes Furnish Money for Premier to Quell Chinese Rebellion

ROYALISTS JOIN REBELS

Revolutionists Closing in on Peking From North and South—Dowager Empress Seeks Protection of Russians as President Sun Takes Office.

Shanghai, Jan. 2.—Satisfied that his tenure of office ends with the final collapse of the Manchu dynasty, Premier Yuan has accepted Tang Shao Yi's resignation, because he is displeased with Tang's surrender to the rebels and it is reported that Yuan is planning to continue the fight to kill the revolution as soon as the armistice is ended. It is said that the Manchu princes have given funds to do this from their private purses. Premier Yuan will negotiate further with Wu Ting Fang. It is understood he wants a powerful place in the new government if he quits the Manchus.

Tien Tsin, Jan. 2.—Imperial troops stationed at Lan Chow, the capital of Kwang Su, in North China, have deserted the Manchus and joined the rebels.

Tomorrow under the command of General Wang, once one of Premier Yuan's trusted deputies, they will start to march on Peking. Simultaneously the revolutionists in the south will begin their northward march on Peking. The capital's fall seems inevitable.

Thousands of troops have deserted, comprising practically all the imperial army in Kwang Su. As they heretofore have been the most loyal their desertion is a severe blow to the throne. Other troops have followed and the wholesale defection is taken as a sign of the ultimate total disintegration of the Manchu dynasty.

The troops were persuaded to desert by the rebels who promised to pay them regularly, something that the government is not doing. It is reported the dowager empress is fleeing toward Russia from Peking.

Seek Russian Protection. St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—Semi-official dispatches have been received here from Peking, saying the dowager empress of China, accompanied by the baby emperor, is fleeing in disguise, toward Zhikho, on the Mongolian frontier. It is believed they intend to place themselves under Russia's protection.

Ching Tao was appointed minister of finance. His and Wu's selection are expected to aid in establishing close relations with the United States and European nations.

DYNAMITE CAPS ARE AGAIN FOUND

Who is responsible for the dynamite caps being found on the street and is their appearance the result of carelessness or malicious intent? These questions arose several weeks ago when several of the harmless looking little explosives were found near the Pendleton hotel and they arose again this morning when Chief of Police Gurdane picked up one in front of the city hall.

While the caps are so insignificant in appearance they are highly destructive and would cause considerable damage and injury in all probability should they be struck by a steel wagon tire or the iron shod hoof of a horse.

The opinion of the officers is that the caps have fallen from the pockets of some careless laborer who has been working with dynamite and, to prevent a repetition of such dangerous negligence they are making a searching inquiry to find the person or persons responsible.

Loses Nose; Finds It Later. Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Michael Belo's nose was cut off with a razor early yesterday. Eight hours later the member was found in a doorway where the fight occurred and just before sunset surgeons grafted it back in position. They believe today that the operation will prove successful.

QUAKE ROCKS WINDY CITY

Residents of Northern Illinois Towns Are Badly Frightened.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 2.—Chicago and surrounding territory, for a wide scope, today were rocked fearfully by an earthquake, which is not believed to have resulted in any damage further than breaking dishes and similar property. The underground rumbling was very distinct and frightened many people.

At Joliet several large buildings are reported to have been rocked to such an extent as to badly frighten the citizens. The penitentiary convicts here were thrown into a small panic by the quake.

Other towns reporting having felt the shock were: DeKalb, Lockport, Yorkville and Waukegan and all northern Illinois. This is the first quake felt here since 1909.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 2.—Six persons were injured in a rear end collision between a Glendale and a Burbank car on the Pacific Electric Glendale line near Ivanhoe about 12:45 a. m. None of the injured is reported seriously hurt.

Robbers Get 19 Cents.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 2.—Walking into a down town livery stable a few minutes before 7 o'clock last evening a masked man leveled a revolver at the head of William Gordon, night stableman and ordered him to throw up his hands. ### WILDE EVIDENCE STOLEN FROM HIS PROSECUTORS

Offices of State's Attorneys at Portland Entered and Thoroughly Ransacked.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 2.—The offices of District Attorney Cameron in the Chamber of Commerce building were entered over a transom and the office of Attorney E. Clark, special prosecutor of Louis Wilde, the San Diego banker who is to go on trial January 8 for embezzlement of $90,000 from the defunct Oregon Trust Savings Bank, were broken into during last night, and valuable evidence against Wilde was stolen.

District Attorney Cameron charges that Wilde's agents did the job. Wilde says: "It is a damnable plot to blacken my name and give the prosecution a chance to get out of a hole. They had no case and will use this means to 'get under'."

In Cameron's office desks were broken open, bankbooks holding evidence against Wilde were torn up and all parts referring to Wilde taken and all cancelled checks of the bank and other documentary evidence.

In Clark's office in the Yeon building the door was taken from the hinges. His strong box was opened and the list of the prosecution's witnesses was taken.

The robberies follow recriminations between the attorneys who are very bitter.

TAFT OFFERS TO WITHDRAW FROM RACE FOR PRESIDENT IF TEDDY IS CANDIDATE

Washington, Jan. 2.—Political circles this afternoon were astounded by the report, credited to Taft leaders, that the president is determined to force Colonel Roosevelt into the open, in a contest for the presidential nomination.

The rumor, which white house attaches would not discuss, was that Secretary Hilles is enroute to New York to tell Colonel Roosevelt that President Taft will withdraw if Roosevelt is really a candidate for renomination.

It is believed that Hilles is first to confer with Otto Barbard, a New York banker, who was a New Years guest at the white house. Hilles then will go to see Roosevelt.

If the latter is a candidate it is said, President Taft will say he is not a candidate. Otherwise he will remain in the race even if Colonel Roosevelt is backing La Follette.

PROGRESSIVES SWARM OVER TAFT'S STATE

Waging Bitter War to Win Ohio Delegates for La Follette

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 2.—Headed by Gifford Pinchot and Senators Clapp and Works, a dozen progressives of national repute are spread out over the state, continuing the fight for progressive principles and Senator LaFollette. They will remain in the state most of this week.

All La Follette's friends declare themselves satisfied with the action of the progressive conference here. The committee went on record individually by a ratio of seven to one, as favoring La Follette's presidential candidacy, but did not endorse him as an organization, as La Follette had requested.

Taft is Alarmed.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 2.—Notwithstanding the attempt in administration circles to create the impression that President Taft's campaign for another nomination is proceeding along the lines desired, it has remained for the president to give evidence of his fear that Senator La Follette will deprive him of that honor.

The progressive republican campaign committee has known all along that in Ohio there exists a progressive sentiment which is so strong that if the president remains in the race for the presidential nomination he will find himself in the exceedingly embarrassing position of going into the republican convention without a solid delegation from his own state. The administration up to a few days ago sought to give the impression that this progressive sentiment was a mere flurry. Senator La Follette's speeches in Ohio, however, have so thoroughly cemented the sentiment against Taft that the president's advisers have at least been forced to admit the necessity of sending the president back home in the hope that he can stem the tide which long ago turned against him.

It would be impossible to over-estimate the advantage of the progressive cause in going into the national convention with a very large percentage of the delegates from President Taft's state. In strong contrast to the feeling of hostility toward President Taft in his own state will be the unanimous support which will be accorded Senator La Follette by the delegation from Wisconsin. On the one hand will be the president of the United States, unable to control his own delegation, and on the other will be Senator La Follette, not only supported by the delegates from his own state but also supported by those from Ohio.

ECONOMY WILL BE NEW MAYOR'S AIM

To Cut Expenses and Improve Affairs of the City

"Economy" is to be the keynote of the new city administration, according to Mayor Matlock who yesterday took the reins of government from the hands of the retiring mayor, E. J. Murphy. "My policy will be to conduct the affairs of the city in a business-like manner," said the new chief executive of Pendleton in speaking with a representative of this paper.

"Wherever it is possible to cut down expenses in any department I intend to make an attempt to do so in order to maintain the city on a sound basis." Speaking further on his policy, Mayor Matlock declared he intended to fulfill all of his pre-election promises and to live up to his platform as announced to the voters before they cast their ballots. The principal planks in this platform were a continuance of the strict regulation of saloons, the regulation of public service corporations, better lights and water, progressive city improvements, a strict enforcement of all laws and ordinances, employment of home labor in public improvements and a square deal for all.

The new mayor will preside over his first meeting of the new council tonight, which meeting will however not be an official one. It will be in the form of a caucus to determine the appointive officers of the city. Indications today continue to favor T. B. Gurdane, the present incumbent, for chief of police while the present holder of the position of recorder, Thomas Fitz Gerald, also seems to be a favorite although rumors have it that Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes will be in the running. Other men mentioned for the position are G. W. Conitts, "Billy" Chamberlain, Norbourne Berkeley and Harry Bickers.

FRANCE SIDES WITH RUSSIA IN TREATY EMBROGGLIO

Paris, Jan. 2.—Unstrange as it may appear, it is an inspired statement, declares tonight that the absence of Ambassador Jessestrand from Washington, is in the nature of an official rebuke by France, to President Taft, because of the abrogation of the Russian treaty. France and Russia are closely allied and France represents the treaty abrogation.

CUPID MAKES POOR SHOWING HERE IN SPRINGTIME BUT GETS RESULTS IN WINTER

Spring marriages are not popular in Umatilla county despite the age-worn theory that the time of birds and flowers is the most productive of holy alliances between man and woman, a consultation of the records at the county court house proving that the latter months of the year 1911 have been far more satisfactory to little Dan Cupid than those in which poetic circles to turn toward.

June, the far-famed month of weddings, only led seventeen couples in this county to the altar, while cold, bleak December, the period when the heart fires are credited with burning low and the passions with being in hibernation, eclipsed all of its eleven predecessors with 29 licenses issued, or an average of more than one for each judicial day.

The three other high months from the marriage point of view were the three immediately preceding December, September ranking second with 27, October third with 23, and November fourth with 19, all of which seems to indicate that the swains of the great wheat county believe in the sentiments of the old song, "When the Harvest Days Are Over, Nellie, Dear."

A total of 207 licenses were issued in the twelvemonth just past, the other months not mentioned contributing to the yearly sacrifice to Hymen as follows: January, 13 couples; February, 11; March, 10; April, 13; May, 13; July, 16, and August 14.

Not Up to Last Lear. Despite the fact that many more Pendleton couples abandoned the ways of the single during the year 1911 than during the year 1910, the county as a whole did not furnish as many license fees as its predecessor.

During 1910, the county clerk granted 258 of the little passports, or 53 more than he did in 1911.

December of that year, like the one just past, claimed high honors, 33 licenses having been issued during the course of its 31 days.

RUSSIANS STILL MURDER

Bayonet and Drag Bodies of Hanged Persian Patriots.

Tabriz, Persia, Jan. 2.—Fearful reprisals, by Russian troops, continued today and eight more Persian patriots were hanged because they tried to oppose the invasion of their country by the Russians without the formality of declaring war.

Their bodies were dragged through the streets and repeatedly bayoneted by the Russians and it is feared that hundreds of others will be treated in a similar manner, to show that Russia will not tolerate any opposition.

It is firmly believed in official circles that the Russians have planned to hang eight Persians every day until their lust for blood will have been thoroughly satisfied.

Sits on Dead Body.

Oakland, Cal.—"All night long I sat on the body," said Captain John Evans of the schooner Rock Island when giving himself up for the death of Peter Gessen, his only deckhand, whom he had choked to death. "In my mind I went over the struggle, seeking to think of some other means by which I could have subdued him without killing him. I put into Oakland and, on my wife's advice, gave myself up."

Gessen, thought to have been crazed by liquor, attacked the skipper shortly after they put to sea.

He was driven to the wrong depot and rode some distance before he discovered the mistake. Then he alighted and made special arrangements to reach Owosso, where he speaks.

WOULD PROSECUTE LAWYERS WHO AID TRUST FORMATION

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—Federal legislation that will make lawyers, who aid in the formation of trusts, equally guilty, with the corporation, is proposed here today by Governor Marshall. "Some lawyers," he said, "assume that their duties to their clients involve the right for them to be parties to criminal transactions. They should be held equally responsible."

Governor Marshall first broached the matter at the Jackson club banquet last night. Today he amplified his remarks by saying: "This would be a step in the solution of the 'big business' problem. Lawyers should be made assessories before the fact, for a corporation's violation of the anti-trust laws. In case the trust is proven guilty the lawyer should also, the same as a drug clerk who knowingly sells poison for a murder."

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 2.—Before entering the court room where Tvietsmo, Johanssen and Munsey were arraigned today, Attorney Job Harrison said: "These men are entitled to the support of the laboring people. I'm sure they will get it. The case will be fought to a finish."

Clancy is sick in San Francisco and was not arraigned. He is at liberty under a surety bond. It is unknown when he will be arraigned. It is reported that Ortle McManigal, who is now en route to Indianapolis, may get immunity.

Separate trials will be asked in court by each of the defendants. They waived the reading of the indictments, which charge conspiracy in transporting dynamite in violation of the federal law.

The defendants' request for ten days to decide upon a plea was allowed by Judge Wellborn who set January 12 as the date for them to plead.

McManigal Taken East.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Ortle E. McManigal, confessed dynamite, left Los Angeles last night in company with Detective Malcolm McLaren of the Burns agency. His destination is thought to be Indianapolis.

McManigal, accompanied by Detective McLaren and Under Sheriff Brain, left the county jail shortly before 6 o'clock. They entered an automobile at a side entrance and were whisked away in the direction of the Santa Fe railroad station.

It was more than two hours before an inkling of their departure leaked out, and jail officers refused information as to McManigal's whereabouts. McLaren said several days ago that when the time came for him to leave for the east with McManigal nobody would know it until he had left the city.

It is believed that McManigal will appear before the federal grand jury now in session in Indianapolis and repeat the confession he made to District Attorney John D. Fredericks, which it is alleged named many labor leaders of the "higher up" circle as having knowledge of the doings of the McNamars in the many explosions throughout the country.

Detective McLaren was quoted some days ago as stating that when McManigal was taken to Indianapolis and had testified before the federal grand jury that he would immediately returned to Los Angeles to answer to the indictments against him here.
