MURDERED BABY BOY FOUND NEAR ASTORIA

Infant of Two Days Thought to Have Been Killed With Acid.
Astoria, Ore.—The dead body of a boy baby apparently about two days old, wrapped in a sheet, was found near the Grange Hall at Lewis and Clark. Particulars were not obtainable until late yesterday, as the discovery was kept secret until yesterday. Coroner Gilhaugh brought in the body. Everything points to murder, as an examination of the body reveals the fact that the inside of the baby's mouth is burned as if acid had been poured into it. There was no exterior marks of violence.

A New Year's dance was in progress at the hall Sunday night and one of the women present made the greswome discovery. No clew has yet been found.

TRAMP GIVES AN ALARM; SAVES MANY FROM FIRE

Rescuer After Arousing Sleeping Boarders Jumps on Freight Train to Resume Travels.
Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 3.—Sleeping, blissfully ignorant of the fact that the main portion of the Park Hotel, a railroad men's boarding house, was in flames, occupants of the burning building were rescued by an unknown tramp.
The man, attracted by the blaze, dropped off a passing freight train, saw the situation and pounded on the doors until he awoke Fred Briggs, who owned the place.
A hurried exit followed, nobody having time to don clothing. When his heroic work was done the hobo ran down the tracks to overtake the slow moving freight, which had not yet left the railroad yards.

WHISKY STILL IS UTILIZED.

Revenue Officers Capture Illicit Liquor Plant on Ranch Near Petaluma.
Petaluma.—Revenue officers Geo. B. Baer and W. J. Dlaney, working under Chief Officer D. M. Thomas, seized an illicit distillery on the S. Gillardi ranch on the Sonoma mountains. They carried away a complete outfit, which has been deposited in the bonded warehouse here to be used as evidence by the Federal authorities.
The Gillardi ranch is high up in the mountains in the center of a dairy district where there are several creameries and where dairymen congregate to dispose of their product.

Rebels Are Dispersed.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 3.—Active campaigning against the Zapistas in the states of Puebla, Morelos and Guerrero, is reported here. The rebels appear to have been dispersed in every ngagment. A force of forty-three rurales of the tenth corps was ambushed in a mountain pass in the state of Puebla, Monday, by 200 Zapistas, but fought their way out with a loss of five. General Equialis and Casco Lopez are operating against the rebels in the vicinity of Cuatla and have been engaged in severe fighting since Saturday, the rebels making short stands and then fleeing into the mountains. The town of Huaguechua of Puebla was taken by Zapatas Sunday and completely sacked. Five hundred were in this party and a large detachment of federal troops are now moving against them.

Leap year, ladies—but that won't make any difference to most of you.

WOMEN GET VOTES CHEAP.

15.3 Cents a Head is Campaign Cost; Men Usually Spend $2.30.
Los Angeles, Calif.—It cost the women of California 15.3 cents a vote to win their fight for equal suffrage at the recent state election, according to reports given out at the headquarters of the Southern California Political Equality League.
Men politicians admit $2.30 a vote is cheap for campaigns.
The women's reports show that $13,000 was spent from Fresno south. The women leaders said they learned that "just about an equal amount" was spent in Northern California.

FIGHT SNAKES AMID FIRE.

Firemen in Burning Bird Store Inadvertently Release Reptiles.
San Antonio, Tex.—While copperheads, rattlers and adders writhed over the floor and trantulas and other poisonous insects darted here and there, firemen fought a blaze in the bird and snake store of W. O. Leary.
The reptiles were liberated when the streams of water shattered the boxes in which they were confined.
Five hundred parrots were suffocated and 350 snakes were roasted.

PRESIDENT GIVES TWO CONVICTS THEIR FREEDOM

Washington, Jan. 3.—President Taft today commuted to expire at once the life sentences of Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, two negro British subjects convicted at Wilmington, N. C., in 1906, of murder on the high seas. In a confession before his conviction Henry Scott, another negro convicted of the same crime, exonerated Adams and Sawyer.
Originally Adams and Sawyer were sentenced to death, but this was commuted by President Roosevelt to life imprisonment. The prisoners were natives of the British West Indies and the British ambassador intervened to secure consideration of the pleas for executive clemency.
The mutters were committed on the American schooner A. H. Berwind, whose four white officers—master, engineer, mate and cook—and one negro seaman, were killed while the vessel disabled by stormy weather, was off the coast of North Carolina, October 10, 1909. During the voyage a controversy arose between the master and the sailors over food and other matters. After the five men had been murdered Adams and Sawyer succeeded in overpowering Scott. They signalled a passing vessel and all three were delivered into custody at Southport, N. C.

COAL BARONS FEAR A STRIKE OF MINE WORKERS

New York, Jan. 3.—In fear of preparations for another gigantic strike by 150,000 miners in the anthracite region, coal barons, through familiar channels, have started a publicity campaign. A statement is being sent broadcast that the operators are preparing to strike in the spring, indicating that they will resist any effort of the United Mine Workers of America to gain any change in conditions for the miners.

N. P. ROAD DISTRIBUTES NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

St. Paul, Minn.—The Northern Pacific Dining Car Department has issued a little wall plaque made of sugar carrying a resolution for 1912, reading as follows: "I hereby promise that whenever the opportunity presents itself, I will use the superior passenger service offered by the Northern Pacific railway and partake of the high class dining car service rendered on its trains."

The plaque is in the shape of a shield about seven inches long and is equipped with a metal ring affixed to the back for hanging it up. Friends and former patrons of the road have been sent one of these greetings enclosed in a neat pasteboard box lettered in gold with 1912 New Year's greeting.

LESS WOOL AND LOWER PRICES.

The Production in the United States Fell Off 2,818,000 Pounds in 1911.

Boston.—The total domestic wool clip for 1911, exclusive of pulled wool, is 277,547,909 pounds, as estimated by the National Association of Wool Manufacturers in its annual review. This is a decrease of 2,818,850 pounds from last year's output. The estimate of pulled wool for 1911 is 41 million pounds, making the total wool production for the country 318,547,909 pounds, or 2,818,850 pounds less than in 1910. The value of the product is estimated at $66,571,337, or nearly 6 million less than that of 1910. The number of sheep for shearing in the United States on April 1, 1911, the association estimates was 39,761,000 or 2,238,500 less than in 1910.

The average value per scoured pound of the domestic wool clip for 1911 is 47.7 cents, as compared with 51 cents in 1910, 63.6 cents in 1909, 46.6 cents in 1908, and 62.3 cents in 1907.

SECOND VICTIM OF HARNEY SHOOTING DIES

Burns, Or.—Robert Settlemyre, who was shot by Jack Taylor in the shooting scrape at the Elmer Carlson ranch near Andrews a week ago, when a man named Perry was killed and Settlemyre was wounded, died from the effects of the wound received from a 45-caliber revolver. He lived only a few days from the time of the shooting. Taylor is now in jail in this city. Robert Settlemyre was a well respected citizen of Harney county, where he had lived for 15 years.

FUNSTON PREFERS HELMETS FOR MEN

Washington.—Head covering has a good deal to do with making a soldier, in the opinion of Brigadier General Funston. Based on his experience as commander of the department of Luzon, he strongly favors the helmet as against the campaign hat, pointing to the fact that the British soldiers, who have had much experience in the tropics still stick to the helmet and can drill and fight without knocking it off.
American soldiers, General Funston remarks, use the campaign hat as pillows too often, and consequently present an untidy appearance.

IDAHO GIRL HORSE THIEF IS SENT TO AN ASYLUM

Blackfoot, Idaho.—A pathetic era in the life of Marian Kirkpatrick has come with her commitment to the state asylum for insane at Blackfoot. Mrs Kirkpatrick is the girl who stole a horse in Owyhee county, rode it to Boise and sold it for $45. Women of Boise heard her stout defense and took up her defense, and she was released on bond and taken into the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Christian of the Children's home. It then developed she had stolen another horse and that her fondness for the animals overbalanced her judgment.
In the hearing it developed that
