EARTH'S SURFACE HAS BEEN TILTING, SCIENTIST LEARNS

Father Odenbach Discovers Part of the United States Has Taken a Slant in Direction of Canada. Cleveland.—The earth's surface has been tilting since 10 a. m. Christmas Day.

Father Odenbach, a learned seismologist and astronomer, reports that the tilting is being recorded and measured by the delicate instruments in St. Ignace's Observatory. The tilting so far has been 1-16 of an inch in 1000 feet, so do not be alarmed; the vessels will not be tilted from the mantelpiece or the pictures set awry. The tilting is from the United States toward Canada, but this country is not likely to slide into the Dominion.

The tilting affects a foe, or giant triangle, with a line from Newburyport, Mass., through Elmira, N. Y., and Cincinnati for its base and its apex in Canada. Cleveland stands on this foe. It is as a giant under the earth was pushing it in at the upper end and another pushing it out at the southern end.

Such tiltings are usually due to some known cases, Father Odenbach says, such as the piling up of an immense weight on the southern shores of the Great Lakes. But he can assign no cause for this disturbance. He considers that recent earthquakes in the Middle and Far West are only one result of it.

Any sort of weather is peculiar or unusual to some people.

BREAKS UP A COLD IN SEVERAL HOURS

A FEW DOSES END MOST SEVERE GRIPPE MISERY There is not one grain of quinine in Pape's Cold Compound, which, when taken ever two hours, until three consecutive doses are taken, will surely end the gripple and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs. It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, catarrhal affections, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges. Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or gripple.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or end gripple misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 35-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

"Polly of the Circus." Miss Ida St. Leon in Frederic Thompson's Great Success, "Polly of the Circus," is a true, clean American play and perhaps the best description that can be given to the play which will be the attraction at the Oregon theatre on Sunday, January 14, coming here with the endorsement of a so-called season's run at the Liberty theatre, New York, and another season equally divided between Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia. It is perhaps but fitting that in a season remarkable for attacks by religious and civic organizations upon recent plays because of their alleged questionable tendency, "Polly of the Circus" should be added to its laurels as the cleanest and prettiest story told on the stage in many years. There are no high sounding dissertations on marriage and divorce, no acute analysis of emotions, but just a compelling human study of a tender child, born and reared among the garish life of the circus tent, thrown by accident into the home of a young clergyman and awakening to love, to knowledge, to hope and to God. Miss Ida St. Leon will appear as Polly, supported by a company by all odds the best acting organization in America.

PICTURE PREACHING IS LATEST

Cambridge, Mass.—Preaching by pictures is the latest method devised to teach the children in the public schools the difference between doing what is wrong and what is right. Milton Fairchild, a Massachusetts educator, has photographed many incidents in child life for his horrible examples without the knowledge of the children.

MURDERER ASKS GOVERNOR FOR TIME TO GET RELIGION

Atlanta, Ga.—If proper assurances can be given Gov. John M. Slaton, that Benjamin Merick, of Gainesville, Ga., condemned to hang for murder, can "get religion" in the next thirty days, that length of time in the form of a respite will be granted him. Merick has been the most disappointing of near converts. He was convicted of wife murder six months ago, and ever since has been just on the verge of accepting the faith, failing to make the goal at the last minute. Then Merick's spiritual advisers have had to begin all over again. This is the situation at present, and Merick is fearfully anxious to get religion before he goes to the gallows. Thirty days he considers is sufficient to make him a real believer.

Because of Merick's eagerness to "get religion" before he goes to the gallows a delegation from Gainesville, headed by Congressman Tom Bell, called on Governor Slaton and asked that he be granted a thirty-day respite in order to make peace with God.

Congressman Bell, who was spokesman, said Merick ought to be hanged, as he was undoubtedly guilty, but that the man was truly penitent and should be given time to get religion, so that he might not lose his soul.

"I am inclined to grant the respite," said Governor Slaton, "if you gentlemen will assure me that Merick can get religion in thirty days."

This Youth Gets a New Lip. Memphis, Tenn.—Allen Hart, 19 years old, of Milan, Tenn., has successfully undergone an operation here of transplanting skin from his arm to his lower lip. For five weeks Hart laid with his right arm bound across his mouth, so that the operation might be complete. He now has practically a new lip and it appears quite natural.

Orpheum. Good program for Sunday and Monday.

1. "The Little Spy." Vitagraph. Nerve and courage enables a little fellow to secure the plans of attack on the confederate forces and save his father from defeat.

2. "A Blind Deception." Lubin. As pretty a love comedy as was ever flashed on the screen, faithfully and naturally acted. Florence Lawrence and Arthur Johnson play the leading parts.

3. "His Terrible Lesson." Melles. A lad was accused of a murder perpetrated while he was drunk. He would have been hung but for his sister.

4. "The Girl in the Cab." Essanay. A very humorous comedy with a big surprise finish. Good for many laughs.

5. "The Invincible Raffles." Essanay. Ezra Higgins, editor of the Quinceville Bugle, needs a wife and also money. He gets an idea. What he did will have to be seen to be appreciated.

The Pastime. The home of good pictures. Sunday's program:

"The Lure of the City." Edison. At the world's fair in Chicago the painting which touched the hearts of the people from all parts of the world was called "Breaking the Home Ties." This picture forms the basis of this film which tells of the ambition of a farmer boy to win fame and fortune in the city.

"Aunt Muddah, the Matchmaker." Vitagraph. A good old southern mammy takes a hand in her mistress' love affairs and brings about a happy reconciliation.

"Rover is Jealous." C. G. P. C. Rover through jealousy sets fire to the house, but he suffered from remorse and rescues the baby.

"Capturing Polar Bear Cubs." An interesting picture.

"Examination of the Stomach by X-rays." Educational. The first Cinematographic X-ray picture ever produced.

"Red Cloud's Secret." Melles. In gratitude the red kin gives the secret of a mine.

Cosy. The program for Sunday only, is one of the very best we have ever had. Look it over:

"The White Medicine Man." Nestor. Having been cured, the old chief insisted that the white doctor should marry his daughter. By an ingenious ruse he got out of his predicament.

"Secret Order of Horns." Powers. Jenkins was initiated into the order of Big Horns. The first and second degrees were awful, but the third degree, when he got home, was the very limit.

"The Little Thief." Powers. The best kid comedy you ever saw. He was a terror with a formidable gun, and in the end he captured a real criminal. It's a gem.

"The Two Browns." Champion. Two J. W. Browns loved Miss Virginia and one stooped to unjust methods to beat his rival, but was outdone. A fine western story.

"A False Friend." Waturdan. After killing the woman's husband in a duel the man gave his fortune to her and her children. A story that is entirely out of the ordinary.

At the Grand. Last night was amateur night and there were four contestants for the different prizes. Little Miss Katherine Neugebauer taking first honors and Babe Olive Longenecker and Master Guy Bates dividing honors for second prize.

The new bill, "A Trip to Coney Island" is more than pleasing all. Monday night the Austin company will present the comedy war drama, "Obeying Orders," for the benefit of Malabon Camp No. 6 of United Spanish War Veterans. The company will be assisted by the Commercial club quartette and other local talent. Jack Keefe of the Commercial club is a white show in himself. Native cowboys and Indians and soldiers will also appear in the drama. One hundred and ten slides showing the boys leaving Pendleton, going through the Philippines and return will also be shown. The show will run almost three hours. Doors open 7:30, curtain 8 o'clock. One show each night.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm. Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer. I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm." There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease. Please try it, for your troubles.

THE GREATEST SUCCESSFUL CURE OF ANY CHRONIC DISEASE WITHOUT THE KNIFE.

See our patients' testimony. Dec. 1st, 1911. I am glad to tell the public what the Chinese Doctor did for me. I was nearly dead suffering from abscess in the stomach and three American doctors told me there was no hope for me except an operation which I felt would kill me. So we called Dr. Leo Ching Wo and tried his medicine and in two weeks I was out of danger. Took his wonderful medicine four weeks more and am nearly well. I can cheerfully recommend his remedy to any one who is in need of a doctor, for he certainly saved my life. Mrs. Ida Herring, 215 West Alder St., Walla Walla, Washington. We receive testimonials from our patients daily who have been cured. If you want to be cured, come and see us or if unable to come, write and enclose a two cent stamp for symptom blank. Write without delay. Address:—LEO CHING WO, CHINESE MEDICINE CO., 14 E. Main St., Walla Walla, Washington.
