

SOCIETY

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The past week which has been the coldest and most disagreeable of the winter season, had a noticeable effect upon the social activities, very few functions calling the ladies of the city away from their homes. A few informal gatherings, a children's party or so and the musical event at the Christian church Thursday evening practically made up the social calendar of the week. Several functions which had been scheduled for the week were postponed on account of the disagreeable weather.

One of the most interesting meetings in club circles for many months was held Friday by the members of the Current Literature club with Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy as hostess. A program on the Tragedy of Hamlet was full of interest; and a debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Insanity of Hamlet was Feigned," resulted in a victory for the affirmative. The argument and speeches on each side were excellent and the contest was close and spirited. Miss Una Smith was the essayist for the occasion and in a well written paper gave the historical significance of the play. Delicious refreshments were served, Mrs. Bonney and Mrs. Winter presiding in the dining room. The program follows:

Mrs. Lowell was assisted in receiving and entertaining by her daughter, Miss Margaret Lowell, Mrs. John Halley and Mrs. F. E. Livengood presided at the tea table. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. P. Sturgis on Thursday, January 18th.

Yesterday was a great day for the local Masons, two installations being held and a banquet, musical program and dance concluding the occasion. During the afternoon, the new officers of the Royal Arch chapter, were installed and in the evening a public installation of the officers of the Commandery was held, the families of the members and the Royal Arch Masons being invited guests. The affair was held in the Masonic Temple and was very impressive. Following the ceremonies a musical program of unusual excellence was rendered, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, Miss Bernice Ruppe, Charles W. Vaughan and J. E. Keefe, Jr., contributing vocal solos and the United Orchestra of seven pieces interspersing enjoyable selections. An elaborate banquet and dancing completed the evening of entertainment.

The following were the officers installed last evening, under the direction of Clinton E. Roosevelt, past eminent commander, and Thomas C. Taylor, past grand commander and acting as grand marshal: Cliff J. Ballinger, eminent commander, James A. Best, generalissimo; Ambrose C. Funk, captain general; Charles Quinney, prelate; Till D. Taylor, senior warden; Guy D. Holsington, junior warden; John R. Dickson, treasurer; Joe H. Parkes, recorder; Frank Salinger, warder; William L. Thompson, sentinel; Will F. Wyrick, standard bearer; Elmer A. Snyder, sword bearer; W. C. E. Pruitt, first guard; Clinton E. Roosevelt, second guard; William E. Brock, third guard.

The Busy Bee Club held a very enjoyable session in Secret Society hall last Tuesday with Mesdames Yates, Krebs and Pierce as hostesses. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with needlework and was concluded with the serving of dainty refreshments. Besides the members, Mrs. Chatterman was a guest.

It now seems probable that Pendleton will have a dancing club similar to the one which gave a series of dances last season. During the past few days Paul Sperry and George Ferguson have been circulating a membership paper and the list of names secured warrants the announcement of another series of enjoyable parties.

Mrs. C. O. French, formerly a well known resident of this city, has written to friends that she is on her way west to make her future home and will stop here for a few days' visit. She writes that her son, Charles French has finished school at their recent home in Evanston, Ill., and is married.

Arrangements are being made for the annual library ball which will be held about the middle of February. Those who remember the social success of last year's ball are looking forward with interest to the coming event.

The Knights of Pythias are planning for their annual installation of officers which will be held next Monday evening. A large number of invitations have been sent out and the program which the committee is preparing will insure a most entertaining evening for all who attend.

C. E. Troutman, who has been visiting friends here while on business in connection with the letting of the contract for the new high school building, left for his home in Aberdeen today.

Donald Robinson and Merton Moore will entertain a number of their young friends this evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson.

Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs is hostess this afternoon to three tables of bridge at her home on West Court street in honor of her guest, Mrs. Marion Hemphill of Athens.

Miss Fay Warren of Weston visited yesterday with her sister, Miss Viva Warren, and returned to her home last night accompanied by her sister and Miss Anita Kirkpatrick who will spend the week end there.

Mrs. Leon Cohen left during the week for San Francisco, where she will spend a couple of months.

Clarence Bishop left today to spend the week end at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McEwen between Helix and Athena.

"Apostles" Are Out $3,500,000.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Francis Schlatter and B. H. Schrader have long worn a cross of gold upon their flowing black gowns, advertising as apostles of healing, but they were never thoroughly initiated to the mysteries of the double cross until this week, when they received a cablegram from Honduras stating that H. H. Hyatt, their former associate had unearthed their long-sought treasure of $3,500,000 and disappeared with it. At one time its location was known to only John Alexander Dowle.

Girl Dances Self to Death.

New York.—Miss Caroline Carpenter of Roosevelt, L. I., 19 years old, was so popular with the young gallants at a dance of the Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church in the board of trade hall, that she had to split her dances. Just before midnight, while waiting, she reeled, almost fell to the floor, and died without regaining consciousness. Physicians said she had danced herself to death.

Rector Will Teach Dancing.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Dancing and the principles of dramatic art will be taught church members in the guild hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal church under the supervision of the rector, George Thomas Lawton. The pastor has announced his intention to superintend the conducting of social affairs in the church parlors at least five nights a week.

Shoot at Target to Decide.

Bloomington, Ind.—If a tie vote is cast for two candidates for office, is settlement of the contest by a shooting match legal? Pending authoritative answer to this question, Trustee John Siscoe of Polk township, this county, has declined to recognize James Crouch as road supervisor. Both men had shot at the target, Crouch getting the better score.

Toledo to Have 3-Cent Fare.

Toledo, Ohio.—The Toledo city council has passed a street railway franchise under suspension of the rules, providing for three-cent fares on every line in the city with universal transfers.

FOR THE CHILDREN ALSO FOR GROWN PERSONS QUICK - SAFE - RELIABLE NO OPIATES NO NARCOTICS FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND

A COMMON COLD neglected may go quickly into CROUP, BRONCHITIS, or PNEUMONIA which often means a sudden fatality. Keep FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND always in the house and give at first sign of a cold. Refuse substitutes.

John Parsons, Stewart, Ohio, writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure any of my seven children of cough. My 2-month-old baby has had a most severe cough which our Doctor said he could not cure and that Baby would surely die. Several of our relations and neighbors had gathered to witness the ending of the child's life. Two bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured the child and he is alive and well today."
