LOCAL SLEUTH FAILS TO FIND MISCREANTS

Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 15 .- J. M. Sullens of Pendleton, who has been from Union county for robbery.

Two men are being kept on the lookout along the Walla Walla and Commissioner's quall killing will be a precarious occupation from now on,

After the rabbi had taken his post-tion Rosenthal balked because the dowry had not been paid in advance and over the character of the music. It was then that friends and rela-tives of the bride grabbed him and held Rosenthal beside Miss Seigel un-til the knot was tied. An hour after-ward the bridegroom disappeared. The bride found in his trunk papers which showed he was separated from Eitle Bennett, but there was nothing to show divorce. The police caught Rosenthal, who was held under the charge of deser-

Sullens of Pendleton, who has been in the Walla Tiver country for several days attempting to secure ev-idence against qualt killers in that neighborhood, returned to Pendleton Saturday and reported that while he knows positively that the birds were being slaughtered, he could find no good clues towards the guilty parties. Mr. Sullens was sent here from Pendleton by the Umatilla county au-thorities last Thursday to interview Forest Supervisor Schmitz, and a plan of action was mapped out. Sullens went to the vicinity where the qualis were reported to be disappearing and spent three days visiting farmers and looking for evidence of the illegal sport. No information could be gain-ed grom the residentis, except that they knew that quali were being killed. Two men are being kent on L. G. Frazier, supplies T. D. Taylor, freight and ex-
