

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

No case of contagious blood poison is ever cured until the last particle of the virus has been removed from the circulation. The least taint left in the blood will sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous and destructive symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. No other medicine so surely cures contagious blood poison as S. S. S. It goes down into the blood and steadily and surely drives out every particle of the infection. It absolutely and perfectly purifies the blood, and leaves this vital fluid as fresh, rich and healthy as it was before the destructive virus of contagious blood poison entered the circulation. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and other blemishes, the hair stops coming out, the mouth and throat heal and when S. S. S. has cleansed the system of the poison no trace of the disease is left. S. S. S. cures contagious blood poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers tested and proven for more than forty years. Book on this disease with suggestions for home treatment, and any medical advice sent free to all who write.

SCHUBERT COMPANY A SOURCE OF DELIGHT

Those who were at the Oregon theatre last evening to hear the Schubert Symphony club and lady quartet had the pleasure of listening to the classic musical aggregation that has been in this city in many months. The program was a source of continued delight to the music lovers present and proved that the glowing praises that have been bestowed upon the troupe in the past have not been unmerited.

As a violinist Thomas Valentine Purcell is a star and his several selections were well appreciated. Mr. Purcell also leads the symphony club. The two readings given by Anna Pearl Weatherington showed her to be remarkably clever and when she responded one time to an encore with a darkey dialect selection, the applause was almost deafening.

Miss Leate Cordier, leading soprano in the quartet is the chief soloist and she sang "Aria from Traviata" with "The Last Rose of Summer" as an encore. Miss Cordier has a splendid, well trained voice that is full of music.

The ladies-quartet which has three numbers upon the evening program is worthy of attention anywhere. The voices blend beautifully and the selections are well made.

As a finale for the program the entire club joined with voices and instruments in rendering specially arranged selections from Strauss, "Sunlight," "Twilight" and "Morning." It was a fitting end to a splendid program.

"FIGHTING BOB'S" WIDOW'S PENSION $30 A MONTH

Washington.—Mrs. Robley D. Evans, "Fighting Bob" Evan's widow, will draw a pension of $30 a month from a grateful country.
Rear Admiral Evans lost the little money he had in the plunges in California oil he made late in his life. He left his widow not a penny. She owns the house in Indiana avenue in which she lives. It came to her from her father, but it is encumbered. Besides her pension, Mrs. Evans must rely for her maintenance on whatever financial assistance may be given her by her two married daughters and her son, Commander Frank Taylor Evans, U. S. N.

DREAM OF DEATH COMES TRUE

Beloit, Wis.—Glenn Stockman stepson of Solon R. Hayes, who shot and killed himself, is much perplexed over a dream he had the same evening. He was living in Rockford, Ill., but dreamed his stepfather had fatally shot himself. The following morning he received a telephone message telling him that his dream was the truth. He is unable to account for the phenomenon.

CHAS. TAFT'S PURSE CLOSED TO BROTHER

Promised Toga Not Hung on His Shoulders, So President Must Finance Fight.
Washington.—Financing the Taft campaign for re-nomination will have to be done by the party or by individuals in it who are friendly to the president.
Charles P. Taft, whose fortune was placed at the disposal of his brother in 1908, will not "come across" next year. Charles is friendly to his exalted brother, but those who are in the confidence of both say emphatically that he has done all the financing of campaigns that he intends to do.

The family ambitions of the Tafts included the presidency for Brother Will and the Ohio senatorship for Brother Charles.
Brother Will got the presidency with the aid of Brother Charles. All that Brother Charles got was a letter saying Brother Will was deeply grateful and regarded Brother Charles as his greatest ally in the fight, not even excepting Theodore Roosevelt.

This letter infuriated Colonel Roosevelt past placating. But it did Brother Charles no good. And when the time came for the senatorship to be passed around it was found that Brother Will had written another letter to Theodore E. Burton, inviting Burton to be the senator.
When Burton was elected, Brother Charles sat down and thought. When he had concluded this labor he decided that if he must stay out of politics, his money would better stay with him.

Thus two of the most powerful factors in Taft's nomination and election have been alienated—the influence of Friend Theodore and the moneys of Brother Charles.

AGED COUPLE EXPIRE IN A RECONCILIATION

Often Parted, Man and Wife Meet for Forgiveness and Both Fall Dead.
Chicago, Ill.—The hand of death brought reconciliation and peace to an aged couple for whom life had held only unhappiness.
They had met for a final reconciliation, but before the words that were on both their lips could be spoken death had claimed the feeble woman. The husband looked, gasped and fell across the body of his wife, his arms about her neck.
He too was dead.

The reconciliation had been effected, but not as their fancies had pictured. A single grave will receive the bodies of the couple whom life had parted.

Alonzo H. Echols, 70 years old, was the husband and Mrs. Annie Jerrel Echols, 65 years old, was the wife who figured in the drama staged in their former home at 3044 West Madison street.

Echols, who was a confederate veteran and who served on the staff of General Robert E. Lee, had cultivated a soldier's fondness for drink. It was this habit that resulted in the separation of the man and wife several times.

But their differences had failed to stifle the love they bore each other. Mrs. Echols forgot her pride long enough to make an admission, that she considered a weakness, to a neighbor.

"I need papa," she said. "I know he will come to his senses and come back to me soon."

The husband must have felt this same impulse at the same time as the next mail carried a letter in which he told of his plan to visit her and ask to be taken back again.

Mrs. Echols was in a fever of excitement. The hours intervening seemed months. Before going to bed she said she could scarcely wait for the morrow that would bring "papa again."

But her sudden happiness was too much for her frail physique. When Echols finally arrived he leaned over the bed to find a woman too weak to more than smile faintly up at him. She moved her lips to utter words of forgiveness that never were spoken.

Seized with a sudden fear he leaned over the bed to kiss the trembling lips. But his wife was dead.

Bewildered, the man stumbled to the door and called a neighbor. Then back he went to the bed, wrung his hands a moment, then fell across the bed as he clasped his hands about his wife's neck.

The neighbors who crowded into the flat, hat in hand, could not but believe that it was a power greater than had taken the two lives almost at the same moment.

ALASKA ASKS SELF-RULE.

Non-Partisan Convention Demands End of Distant Bureaucratic Control.
Valdez, Alaska.—The Alaska non-partisan convention closed its sessions by adopting unanimously a platform declaring for self-government by the 40,000 former citizens of the United States now resident in Alaska, and demanding the same rights of self-government that have been accorded to every other territory, of American citizenship, and abolition of far-distant bureaucratic government.

The platform also demands these reforms:
Governmental construction and operation of a railroad from tidewater to the Yukon river by way of the Mantanuska coal fields.

Speedy opening of the coal lands and their operation both by the government and by private enterprise under liberal leasing system.

Reform of the destructive fishery methods and imposition of a reason-

TO PALE, THIN PEOPLE.

Druggist Koeppen & Bros. Offer to Pay for Samose If It Does Not Make Thin People Fat.
Pale, thin people are simply suffering for want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.
Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food should be used by all who are pale weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation, so that when taken for a short time, Nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.
The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh, will find his desires accomplished by Samose.
Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that Druggist Koeppen & Bros. are willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. They make this offer generally and want all who are thin, weak and out of health to get a box of Samose from them on those terms.

able tax upon the canners, payable only in cash.
Abolition of forest reserves in the third division.
Extension of the interstate commerce commission's jurisdiction to Alaska.

Appropriation of at least $1,000,000 annually for ten years for further development of roads and trails.
Use of all Alaska public land receipts for road and school funds.
Establishment of life saving stations and light houses and extension of the public land survey to Alaska.
The platform condemns commission government and opposes any change in the mineral laws which would stifle individual effort.

GERM HUNT IN THE ORIENT.

Seattle Doctor Goes to China to Study Diseases That Threaten U. S.
Seattle, Wash.—Dr. Herbert E. Coe of Seattle, an agent of the State Board of Health, will sail for China to study the nature and source of diseases which prevail in that country and which may be brought to America. Seattle is under heavy expense to keep the bubonic plague out of the city.

Dr. Coe plans to trace silks, teas, spices, hides and other imports from points of origin, to the shipping ports and to find out through what infected districts they pass and how they are handled.

Modern science has traced forty-two great European epidemics to the Orient, including the black death, smallpox, diphtheria, Asiatic cholera and bubonic plague. Other strange diseases exist there unknown to Occidental scientists.

FEARFUL BURNING ITCH WAS CURED

By Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Another Man Had Itching on Scalp. Hair Fell Out, Leaving Bald Spots. Now Hair Has Grown, Thanks to Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

"I deem it my duty to tell about a cure that the Cuticura Soap and Ointment have made on myself. My trouble began in spots breaking out right in the edge of my hair on the forehead, and spread over the front part of the top of my head from ear to ear, and over my ears which caused a most fearful burning itch, or eczema. For three years I had this terrible breaking out on my forehead and scalp. I tried our family doctor and he failed to cure it. Then I tried the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and used them for two months with the result of a complete cure. Cuticura Soap and Ointment should have the credit due, and I have advised a lot of people to use them." (Signed) C. D. Tharrington, Creek, N. C., Jan. 26, 1911.
"I will say that I have been suffering with an itching on my scalp for the past few years. My hair fell out in spots all over my head. My scalp started to trouble me with sores, then the sores healed up, and crusts formed on the top. Then the hair fell out and left me three bald spots the shape of a half dollar. I went to more than one doctor, but could not get any relief, so I started to use the Cuticura Remedies. I tried one bar of Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment, and felt relieved right away. Now the bald spots have disappeared, and my hair has grown, thanks to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I highly recommend the Cuticura Remedies to all that are suffering with scalp trouble." (Signed) Samuel Stern, 236 Floyd St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 7, 1911.
