

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET FAVORABLE

DROP IN PRICES NOT AS HEAVY AS REPORTED

Good Showing Of Supplies at Yards—Hog Market is Showing Signs of Decline—Sheep Steady—Wheat is Uncertain.

(From Tuesday's Journal) The situation in the livestock market is generally favorable. The wants of killers have absorbed the huge shipments of yesterday, and with the exception of cattle there was another good showing of supplies at North Portland this morning.

After all the smoke has cleared away from the record offerings of yesterday in the cattle market, it is definitely ascertained that there was a drop of 5c to 15c in the previous price, instead of 15c to 25c as first reported.

While one sale was made with steers at $6.25, this shipment was sold for delivery at Tacoma. This would make the net price $5.20, as it costs 15c to send the product in that direction. For the same reason the sale of a lot of cows at $5.25 should be taken with an equal grain of salt, as the purchase was made with delivery price added.

Offerings of cattle in the North Portland yards today were but 31 head, this being the extent of the arrivals of the past 24 hours. This compares with none a week ago.

North Portland cattle prices today: Select steers $6.15@6.20; Fancy steers $6.10@6.15; Choice steers $5.75; Common steers $4.75@5.00; Feeder steers $4.75@5.00; Spayed heifers $5.85

Table with livestock prices: Ordinary heifers 5.00@5.25, Fancy cows 5.10, Ordinary cows 4.25@4.75, Poor cows 3.50@3.75, etc.

Hog Market is Easing Up. Values in the North Portland hog market are easing up, owing to the much better offerings. In addition to the arrival of 804 head yesterday, there was an offering of 331 head today and therefore killers were much more independent in their view and more discriminating regarding quality.

This afternoon there was further weakening in the swine trade at North Portland and tops dropped to $6.85 or 5 to 10c below previous values.

Today's North Portland swine prices: Fancy mixed $7.00, Good heavy 6.90@6.95, Good light 6.90@6.95, Medium light 6.75, Rough and heavy 6.50, Poor and heavy 6.00

Sheep Trade is Steady. Steadiness is showing in the sheep trade at North Portland. There was a run of but 264 head for the day, but as offerings yesterday were 2562 head, there was enough for all. Competition in the sheep trade showed less than on this account, but prices were held substantially the same as during recent days.

Sheep market at North Portland: Select lambs $5.65@5.75, Choice lambs 5.50, Common lambs 5.00, Yearling lambs 4.75, Old Wethers 4.50, Fancy ewes 4.00@4.10, Ordinary 3.50@3.75

Grain and Hay. Wheat—Producers' prices nominal; track delivery, club, 80@81c; blue-stem, 83@84c; fortyfold, 81@82c; Willamette valley, 81c; red Russian, 80c; Turkey red, 81@82c.

Barley—Producers' prices—1911—Feed, $35.00; rolled, $36.00; brewing, $39.00@40.00.

Oats—Producers' price—Track No. 1, spot delivery, white, $30.00; gray, $30.

Wheat Shorts are Vary. Chicago, Jan. 17.—Shorts in the wheat market are vary and are covering every time the market hits the hard spots. Closing yesterday was 1-8c to 1-4c higher than Monday after a start that was 1-8c higher for May and July and 1-4c lower for September.

The mixture of foreign views kept the market here within rather narrow limits. Exporters were reported as buying in the Winnipeg market.

Minneapolis reported that millers were picking up a little May wheat on the break.

Range of Chicago prices furnished by Overbeck and Cooke Co. WHEAT.

May—Open, 99 1-2; high, 99 3-4; low, 98 7-8; close, 99 5-8B.

July—Open 94 1-2; high, 94 5-8; low, 94; close 94 5-8A.

Sept.—Open, 92 5-8; high, 93; low, 92 1-2; close, 93B.

HOT SOUP A HIT IN RURAL SCHOOLS. Cocoa Also Served With Lunch to Pupils at Rice and All Are Enthusiastic.

Rice, Wash.—Hot soup and cocoa have been served at noon to the pupils of the public school here for the last two weeks, and the plan has met with such favor that it will be continued all winter. Each pupil contributes 5 cents a day, or its equivalent in meat, butter or vegetables, and the food is cooked in the schoolroom by the girl pupils, under the direction of the teacher.

Bread, cake and other accessories of the lunch are brought by the individual pupils, and at noon the hot soup and cocoa are served in graniteware bowls.

The teacher, Miss Vera Owens, who originated the plan, said: "It is wonderful how the hot food invigorates the children and helps them in their work. Besides the plan teaches the girls the elements of domestic economy and the rudiments of cooking. The boys wash the dishes and cooking utensils. The patrons of the school are enthusiastic over the plan and we expect to elaborate until the entire lunch will be served."

PARIS IS GIVEN SHOCK BY DUNCAN DRAPERY. Isadore's Brother and His Wife Notified They Must Move.

Paris.—The movement against scant drapery that is now sweeping over France has struck Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duncan. They are being prosecuted and will probably be evicted from their apartment next week.

Raymond Duncan is a Californian and a brother of Isadore Duncan of Greek dance fame. His wife is a beautiful Greek girl whom he married in Athens six years ago.

The "reign of prudery" began at Nice only a short time ago, where Regina Asadu, the beautiful Paris danseuse, appearing in a piece by Pierre Louys, is being prosecuted for "excessive nudity."

After this case was well under way detectives were put to watch Isadora Duncan and last night her brother, Raymond, and his companions were put under arrest. Duncan and his guests are living in apartments in the Avenue Charles Floquet, loaned him by Madame Sturges.

Wore Seashore Costumes. Notwithstanding the bad weather and with the cold so intense that a man died of congestion today on the Rue de Rivoli, Duncan and his companions continued to wear what would be considered highly appropriate for a seashore resort in July.

orous complaint with the landlord, who, admitting that he is not of an aesthetic nature nor an admirer of the harmonious in motion, asked the court late this afternoon to give an order for Duncan's immediate expulsion.

The tenants also complained that they are kept awake by Doric music played on a lyre every night by the "head of the household," Duncan.

Order for Eviction. The court gave an order of eviction which is effective in seven days, although the tenants are allowed two or three days of grace.

Duncan characterized Parisians as "ungrateful" when seen tonight by a representative of "The Examiner." "I am adhering to the ideas which I have absorbed in my studies of optic motion," he said. "I have kept the costume which I wore in the mountains of Greece when studying the ancient dances there, and there is nothing wrong with it. It is decent, esthetic and convenient. It permits me to work easily in the pursuit of my calling, be it carpenter, blacksmith or dancer."

"France needs more liberty—that is, liberty of costume. The French landlords have no right to dictate what or what not I shall wear. I have met their wives—with faces smeared with powder and their daughters almost strangled with corsets. Compare my costume with theirs and see who is right."

"I have come among the French," he continued, "to teach healthy Hellenic simplicity and reveal the unknown beauties of Greek art. I am going to play Sophocles in the ancient text for them. Oh, these ungrateful Parisians!"

NO BEER WITH TRANSFERS. W. C. T. U. Wins Fight Against Street Car Advertising.

Hartford, Conn.—The W. C. T. U. has won its fight against the advertisement of New England breweries on street car transfer tickets in Hartford, New Haven and Meriden. Objecting to this manner of acquainting the people with the merits of various brands of beer the W. C. T. U. authorities of the state requested President Charles S. Mellam of the New York, New Haven and Hartford the controlling company, to discontinue the use of the tickets so embellished.

President Mellam took up the matter and announced that the use of such transfer tickets would cease. He stated that the advertising was contracted for in Boston without his knowledge.

MANY NEW YORKERS SMOKERS OF OPIUM. New York.—A number of books containing the names of many persons well known in New York's "smart set" were seized when the laundry of Frank Lee in West One Hundred and Seventh street was raided by customs officers.

The Chinese owner of the laundry made good his escape, but $7000 worth of opium was seized, together with two Chinese memorandum books in which were records of the sales of the drug. Among the names in the books were those of thousands in New York whose names are "open sesame" to the houses of Fifth avenue.

From the laundry the officers, led by Deputy Surveyor Norwood, visited a chop suey restaurant at 210 Manhattan avenue. Although they discovered no opium, they found that rooms in the rear of the restaurant proper were partitioned into smaller rooms furnished with divans instead of tables.

A government official who is eager to see an end of the opium trade in this city declared today that there are in New York at the present time 275,000 men and women addicted to the use of opium. The trade is more prosperous now than it ever was and the centers for the distribution of the drug are becoming more numerous every day, he added. At present there are but a few men who can be spared for the work of tracking the opium seller. Within the last four weeks twenty men, both Chinese and white, have been arrested for their connection with the opium selling industry.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of scouring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drug Co.
