(Special Correspondence.) Stanfield, Jan. 18.—Monday even-

Two Old Maids

Anna—What do you think Mr. Eklund charged me for sewing on a pair of soles on my shoes?

Clara—Don't know and don't care Anna, he only charged me 65c and did fine work too—yes, but I don't like him.

Anna—Well, well, you evidently do or you wouldn't care.

Men's soles sewed on for 90c. Full line of men's fine shoes.

A. EKLUND

ning some light fingered artist, or artist, engaged here in appropriating articles while the owners were not looking. G. L. Dunning had an elegant fur lap robe taken from his buggy and O. M. Hoosier also lost a fine robe; Glen Richards lost several dollars worth of groceries and other articles, all these thefts being perpetrated while the owners were attending an entertainment. Another party lost a pair of chaps, taken from his horse that was left standing on Main street, several blocks from where the other goods were taken. No trace of the culprit has been found, which is fortunate for him, as the victims are not in this instance what might be termed good losers.

Chaperoned by Miss Maude Smith, Tuesday evening John Beavert and Floyd Brumfield gave a party in Webster hall on Main street, their guests being the following members of their class in high school: Misses Anita Howard, Myrtle Anderson, Mary Connelly, Helen Wheeler, Messrs. Ralph Hlatt, Clement Howard, Ed Fulford, Glen Wallace and Harold Wheeler. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner with games, after which refreshments were served.

The Hermiston basketball team has made arrangements with the Stanfield team to play a game here tomorrow evening.

News has just been received here to the effect that Ivan W. Dunning, one of Stanfield's pioneer business men, he having been for some time of the hardware concern of Buchholz, Dunning Co., was on January 10, married to Miss Hilma Matson at Fargo, North Dakota, Rev. Ulrick, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, performing the ceremony in the parsonage. Miss Matson was for two years a teacher in the public schools of Wheatland, North Dakota. The young couple are on their way here now to spend the winter in Stanfield as guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dunning, parents of the bridegroom.

LETTER SIX YEARS LATE.

Girl's Acceptance of Proposal Goes Astray and Each Weds Another. Morgantown, Va.—Because of the snail-like manner in which Uncle

Sam sometimes delivers mail, Mrs. James Wormser is not the wife of Cecil G. Morris, both having married since that day six years ago when the present Mrs. Wormser wrote a letter from her home at Webster Springs and accepted the proposal of Morris, who resided at Rivesville. The letter was six years traveling 200 miles, and when it finally reached Morris it was too late. The letter was mailed in 1906. It reached Rivesville, Morris' former home, two days after it was mailed, as the postmark shows. Where the yetter has been all these years cannot be ascertained.

Supposing the failure of the woman to answer was a rejection of his proposal, Morris married another. The woman, believing he had changed his mind after receiving her acceptance, also married another.

ALL ST. HELENA TO AMERICA.

Plan to Bring 3000 Residents of Napoleonic Isle to California.

San Francisco.—When Napoleon surrendered to the British he asked permission to come to America. It was refused and he was taken a prisoner to the barren island of St. Helena, 1200 miles west of the African coast. If he were alive today he might have his wish to be brought to America granted.

Alfred Mosely, the English philanthropist, was in consultation with immigration officials about a plan to bring the 3000 poverty stricken residents of the rocky island to California. The British government withdrew its military station several years ago, and since then the residents have had a desperate struggle for existence.

Most people get but a small portion of the things they desire; it is good philosophy to take disappointment lightly.
