TRY MOSES' BILL OF FARE

It May Give You a Long and Easy Life at Small Expense.

New York—"Go back and board with Moses if you wish to live 100 years," was the advice offered to New Yorkers the other night by Rev. Dr. Oscar Haywood in the Collegiate Baptist church of the Covenant, West Thirty-third street.

The simple diet prescribed in the book of Leviticus, the preacher said, was far more conducive to health, happiness and longevity than the miscellaneous bill of lobsters, oysters, crabs, clams, terrapin and snails in the restaurants of Broadway and elsewhere. All these dainties were for-bidden to the patriarchs.

The pork packers, Dr. Haywood informed his flock, are responsible for a great deal of ill-health of the present day.

"The south," added the preacher, "is the greatest pork eating country in the world, and its consumption of this kind of meat complicates its drink problem, for unwholesome food leads to drink. Temperance workers in Dixie ought to begin their campaign in the southern kitchens."

SUMMER SURF IN SOUTH.

Los Angeles Throng to Beaches in Warm Weather.

Los Angeles.—Mid-summer weather weather prevailed in Los Angeles today and all records for January surf-bathing broken at the beach resorts. The thermometer registered 80 degrees in the city and it was even warmer at some of the beaches.

More than a thousand enjoyed surf bathing at Ocean Park, where the mercury climbed to 83 degrees in the shade and at Long Beach there were fully as many more disporting themselves in the surf during the afternoon.

Electric railway officials estimate that 35,000 passengers were carried to the beaches.

Gets Pardon and Bride.

Savannah, Ga.—Convinced of the innocence of "Jim" Hickey, a convict, a girl of Athens, where the penitentiary is, promised to marry him as soon as he should be free. Now he is pardoned and the girl is to be held to her promise.

Hickey was convicted of highway robbery in Loudis county in 1905 on circumstantial evidence.

BOSTON IS WONDERFUL, SAYS MME. MAETERLINCK

Praises Opera, Says That It Is Better Than Paris Can Furnish.

Boston.—Madame Greogette Le Blanc Maeterlinck is enthusiastic over

Boston, which she pronounces "the artistic center of America."

"Nowhere in Europe," she adds, "is it surpassed for intelligence and discernment."

"Compared with the Boston opera house the famous Opera Comique a Paris is a wretched theater—I mean, of course, architecturally."

"Night after night at the Boston opera house I have heard performances that are better in many cases than those we hear at home. I have heard singers Paris does not know, and I admit that they are very great. Such scenery as Paris could not afford is displayed in Boston."

BROKE 900 COLD RAILS.

"Flat" Wheel Demoralizes Traffic on Railroad in South Dakota.

Aberdeen, S. D.—Traffic was demoralized on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad between here and Milbank. A "flat" wheel on a passenger coach broke 900 rails between the two points. Trains were halted, while railroad crews worked frantically to repair the damage. The extreme cold made the rails brittle.

YOUTH MUSHES 300 MILES.

Stanford Student Walks Through Alaskan Snows to Reach College.

Stanford University.—Three hundred miles on foot through Alaska snows with a temperature at times 50 degrees below zero is the remarkable journey just completed by C. M. Vrang, a Stanford student, who has returned to the university. Vrang made his long trip alone, starting early in December in order to reach Stanford in time for registration week.

Vrang, who is an engineering student in the junior class, was employed with seven other Stanford students and graduates by a Yukon gold dredging concern.

With the days but four hours long he "mushed" it to the nearest railroad at White Pass.

A LITTLE DANDERINE WILL MAKE YOUR HAIR LUSTROUS, SOFT, FLUFFY, ABUNDANT

Get a 25 Cent Bottle Now and Forever Stop Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff

If you Wish to Double the Beauty of your Hair in Ten Minutes surely Try a Danderine Hair Cleanse

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Try as you will, after one application of Danderine you cannot find any dandruff or a loose or falling hair, and your scalp will never itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair sprouting all over the scalp. Danderine makes the hair grow long, heavy and luxuriant and we can prove it. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

SUMMONED FROM THE GRAVE.

Sons of William Penn, Dead 200 Years, Told They Must Appear in Court.

Philadelphia.—The sons of William Penn will solemnly be summoned to appear in common pleas court No. 4 in an answer to an advertisement which appeared in Philadelphia papers a trifle more than a year ago. There is no likelihood that they will do so. They have been dead about 200 years.

Richard and John Penn, who held title to nearly all the land in the state having failed to appear, attorneys for Rudolph W. Birdsall, a property owner who is supposed to owe the Penns ground rent, will move that the claim of the Penn brothers be made void because they have not defended their claim.

The unwinding of this voluminous roll of red tape is made necessary by an oversight when the state wiped out the Penn ground rents in 1759. No record was then made of the redemption of that on Birdsall's property. The law required that a record of each redemption be made in regular legal form.
