CLASSY WRESTLING BOUT AT HERMISTON

Wrestling fans in Umatilla county will on Saturday evening, February 3 have an opportunity to witness what will probably be the most scientific bout ever held in this section of eastern Oregon. Ed J. O'Connell, wrestling instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club in Portland and who claims the 150 pound championship of the United States, has consented to journey to Hermiston to meet Jack Kennedy, the idol of the project and former champion of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. O'Connell is too well known over the state to require testimonials as to his worth as a mat artist and Kennedy, since coming to the county, has displayed such cleverness that the residents of the irrigated section swear by him.

It is probable that some of the Pendleton fans will go down to see the match.

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL WILL AID INDICTED UNIONISTS

Fresno, Jan. 19.—Absolute belief in the innocence and integrity of Olaf Tvetmo, Johansson and Clancy, who were indicted for conspiracy in the McNamara cases, with pledges of moral and financial support, was declared by the California Building Trades Council here today, adopting the strongly worded report of the committee, which unanimously approved the annual report of Secretary-Treasurer Tvetmo.

The report says the action is of "dastardly character" and that the indictments are a conspiracy against labor and flays Lawler, Fredericks and others in the prosecution.

CABLE OVER DEEP GORGE. Telephone Lineman Proposes to Save Himself Many Miles of Travel.

Ellensburg, Wash.—In order to save himself from a fifteen-mile walk through the forests of the Cascade mountains in the dead of winter, Ben Huengardt, a lineman for the Postal Telegraph company station at the summit, has constructed an aerial tramway across the Keechelus river and is now able to make his daily patrol on the route without making the detour around the lake.

Huengardt is a brother lineman of Frank Hoopes, the man who was frozen to death last winter at the summit of the hills while endeavoring to locate a break in the wires.

During the summer months, with the help of two trappers, he strung a seven-eighths-inch wire cable across the river, a distance of 157 feet, and ingeniously constructed a basket or carriage large enough to hold two men, with which to haul themselves across the stream. At the point where the wire crosses the river runs through a canyon and never freezes, even in the coldest weather.

SUICIDES TO AVOID DISGRACING EMPLOYERS

San Francisco, Jan. 18.—After penning a note to his employers, Barrows, Wade and Guthrie, public accountants in which he said he had been drunk and feared he would disgrace the firm, William Bellamy age 24 suicided by sending a bullet into his brain in the office today.

The middleman is useful, but he shouldn't want over 40 per cent.

Pasco Defeats Pendleton.

The Pendleton Bowling team last night received a defeat from the hands of the Pasco rollers in Pasco, there being a difference of 38 pins in the two scores at the end of the session. The local men were "off color" decidedly and, further handicapped by strange alleys, could only make a score of 2442 while their opponents pulled out with 2479. Adolph Mollitor emerged with high score for the local team but he was the only one who was able to do himself justice. The other members were Nick Noel, Bred Boob, L. E. Hoover and W. H. McMonies.

Minister Old Football Star.

Rev. Emmel, who is conducting evangelistic services at the Methodist church, was a few years ago one of the notable football stars of the country. He was a member of the famous team of Northwestern University which succeeded in trouncing Coach Stagg's formidable Chicago eleven. A singular feature in connection with that team, according to Rev. Emmel, is that ten of its eleven regular members are now ministers of the gospel which fact would seem to be a counter argument to the claim that football as a sport is brutalizing.

ITALIANS CAPTURE ANOTHER FRENCH OCEAN VESSEL.

Paris, Jan. 19.—Italian torpedo boats today seized the French steamer Manobau, bound for Tunis. The ship had eighty-nine passengers aboard, including 26 Turkish nurses. No contraband of war was aboard and feeling here is high over the seizure because the liner Carthage was treated similarly. Probably a diplomatic investigation will result.

GIRL, 16, HER OWN MISTRESS.

May Wed Despite Father's Objection Montana Judge Holds. Butte, Mont.—Girls of 16 can select whom they will for husbands in Montana, according to a decision rendered by District Judge Jeremiah J. Lynch, who by his ruling held that a maid of 16 and 6 may marry without her father's consent and that her age is no grounds for the annulment of such marriage. Judge Lynch's decision was made when he summarily disposed of the case of Anthony J. Duggan, father and guardian of Mary Duggan, against John Nolan to have a recent marriage annulled. Mary Duggan started to school one morning several months ago in short dresses and with her school books under her arm. Before she had reached the school she met John Nolan, changed her mind about going to school, also changed her dress for a longer one, and went with her lover to Father Kennedy of St. Patrick's church, where they were married. The father will take an appeal to the supreme court.
