STANFIELD MAYOR MAKES BIG SPLASH

TAKES UNPREMEDITATED MUD BATH WHILE AIRING

Bum Board in Sidewalk Deposits Oregon's Finest Municipal Chief Executive in Slush Pool That is Much Too Small.

(Special Correspondence.)
 Stanfield, Ore., Jan. 24.—Monday evening while walking hurriedly from the hotel to the depot Mayor James M. Kyle met with quite a distressing accident. The evening was dark and Mr. Kyle, who has the distinction of being the largest mayor in the state, was tripped by a loose board and plunged into a convenient mud puddle, well filled with water. He emerged from his impromptu bath well covered with mud and it is said that the only reason he did not have more mud on him was that he was too large to get into the puddle, or else the puddle was too small for "Jimmie."

A very pretty and delightful reception was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dunning in honor of their son Ivan and his bride who arrived here Sunday from Fargo, North Dakota, where they were married on the 10th inst. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and dancing, followed by dainty refreshments which were served by the hostess. Among the

"MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY" FOUND; WORKS IN CHICAGO

Massachusetts Congressman Offers Resolution Which Will Give Son of American Protection of Stars and Stripes.

Washington, D. C.—Representative Gardner of Massachusetts has discovered a "man without a country." He is a Chicagoan and his name is Eugene Prince, and in order that Prince may become an American citizen Mr. Gardner offered a joint resolution in the house. It is said that the case of Prince has no parallel in the annals of the state department.

Eugene Prince's great-grandfather Henry Prince, was born at Salem, Mass., and was an officer in the United States navy. As a young man George Henry Prince grandfather of the "man without a country," left the United States for St. Petersburg to represent some exporters of petroleum. He married an English woman and had six children. His fifth child, John Henry Prince, was born in St. Petersburg and still resides there as the representative of the Carnegie Steel company and other American firms. He has always retained his American citizenship. He is registered by the Russian government as an American citizen doing business in St. Petersburg under a "billet de sejour."

 Eugene Prince, his son, has been an employe of the International Harvester company of Moscow but recently came to this country to enter the Chicago office of that firm. Under the statutes of the United States Prince can not be recognized as an American citizen, inasmuch as his father never resided in this country. On the other hand, under the Russian law he can not be recognized as a subject of the czar.

SPOKANE TO HAVE WOMEN "COPS" IN THE FUTURE

Spokane, Wash., Jan.—Zora E. Hayden, commissioner of public safety, has sent letters to the officers of the various women's clubs in Spokane, saying that if any of their members desire to wear police badges and be invested with full authority the wish now will be gratified, adding however, that such services must be of a voluntary character, without pay from the city. He also says he is willing to grant police powers to a joint committee of the clubs to visit the dance halls, promising that its report will receive full consideration. Numerous complaints have come to Commissioner Hayden's department regarding the dance halls, but he says he has not been able to verify them by personal visits or by having plain clothes men stationed in the places. It may be, he says, that women might view these things differently and in that way the department could get at the truth in the matter.

JOINS IN DOG FIGHT AND GOES TO JAIL

Mrs. Mary Galloway Subdues Bull Pup With Bottle of Ammonia.

San Francisco, Calif.—Patriots have bled and been thrust into prison for principle, but it has not happened often that a gently reared girl has gone to jail for devotion to her dog as did Miss Mary Galloway, society girl and niece of Dr. John Galloway.

Miss Galloway lives at 3329 Jackson street, and one of the rays of sunshine in her home is a furry, blue-eyed Irish water spaniel. Across the street lives Moses Levy at 3320 Jackson street, and one of the respected members of the Levy household is a blooded bull terrier.

An ancient feud exists between these two aristocrats of canine circles. Across the quiet width of Jackson street they have eyed each other with sullen hate and bristling backs. A week ago the Japanese servant of the Levys carelessly led the bull terrier to the Galloway home. There was a swift exchange of insults and two infuriated dogs twisted themselves into one snarling, howling, vibrating ball.

The pandemonium of dog fight reached the ears of Miss Galloway and she ran out to the porch and tried to separate her pet from the fangs of the bull terrier. Kicks and cries were futile and Miss Galloway ran indoors and returned with a vial.

A dash of ammonia into the nose of the bull terrier quenched his fighting spirit and sent him wobbling back to his home a sick dog. According to Levy the animal was unable to eat for three days and the help of a veterinary was summoned to save his aristocratic life.

Upon the demand of Levy an investigation was made by Special Officer A. J. Knops of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Miss Galloway was arrested by Policeman Louis Balleto. She was released on $50 bail.

Great numbers of Russian peasants are starving. Pity it isn't the czar and his associate tyrants.

I tried physicians and every available remedy but found no relief. THE GREATEST SUCCESSFUL CURE OF ANY CHRONIC DISEASE WITHOUT THE KNIFE.

See our patients testimony. Dec. 1st, 1911.
 I am glad to tell the public what the Chinese Doctor did for me. I was nearly dead suffering from abscess in the stomach and three American doctors told me there was no hope for me except an operation which I felt would kill me. So we called Dr. Leo Ching Wo and tried his medicine and in two weeks I was out of danger. Took his wonderful medicine four weeks more and am nearly well.

I can cheerfully recommend his remedy to any one who is in need of a doctor, for he certainly saved my life. Mrs. Ida Herring, 215 West Alder St., Walla Walla, Washington.
 We receive testimonials from our patients daily who have been cured. If you want to be cured, come and see us or if unable to come, write and enclose a two cent stamp for symptom blank. Write without delay. Address:—LEO CHING WO, CHINESE MEDICINE CO., 14 E. Main St., Walla Walla, Washington.
