

The Great White Sale

Brings a Store-Wide Wealth of New Opportunities

This great event which we were months in planning and preparing for has entirely repaid us for our trouble and work. It is the greatest success of any white sale we have ever had, LARGEST ASSORTMENTS, FINEST QUALITY, LOWEST PRICES are the chief arguments that should induce you to buy during this world of white sale

Look at the goods and the prices! Consider the worth-wile savings then stop to think that in addition you secure the advantage of making selections from broader assortments than any time of the year, and come; you'll be glad you did.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Don't Miss Friday's change:
1. "Saving the Special." Vita-graph. Who doesn't like a stirring bit of realism that makes us feel the tingle of indignation and desire of impulse. No one who has the red blood of life in his veins. Go see this splendid drama, it is thrilling and strong in denouement and climax, it fairly throbs with melodramatic intensity.
2. "The Miser's Heart." Biograph. He experiences a love greater than the love for gold. The story is stirring and sufficiently unusual to add to its interest.
3. "Live, Love and Believe." Essanay. A drama of mission and army life. The story of a young man's struggle from the city slums to a commission in the U. S. A. There is a pretty love story running through it, excellently acted.
4. "His Brother's Double." Lubin. Double, double oil and trouble, fire burn and caldron bubble." So sings the witches in Macbeth. The fact that Bob was his brother, Jack's double gave rise to plenty of trouble. It's very funny. Not only that but it has a strong plot, and also a charming love story woven through it.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Today's change of program:
"Love's Labor Lost." Lubin. In the fable while the wolf and bear quarreled over the honey, the fox ate it. In this story, while two lovers fought a duel over pretty Peggy, a third lover won her. There's spirit and go to this picture.
"Her Mother Interferes." Biograph. Mr. Jack is married now, so goodbye to his bachelor friends, but they promise to stand by him should he need their aid or sympathy. Well—he needs it and they help him out in a most unique manner.
"The Frontier Doctor." Essanay. A western drama, beautiful in sentiment, with superb scenic backgrounds.
"Resourceful Lovers." Biograph. A comedy romance, well conducted and prettily acted.
"The Lighthouse by the Sea." Edison. The angry waters of a troubled sea make a beautiful background for this dramatic story.
Musical program for Friday and Saturday:
No. 1—You've Got Me Goin', Kid. Two-step. P. D. Cochran.
No. 2—Take Me Up With You, Dearie. Waltz. A. Von Thilzer.
No. 3—That Memorizing Mendelssohn Tune. Two-step. I. Berlin.
No. 4—When You've Won the Only Girl You Love. Waltz. H. Armstrong.
No. 5—Tie Your Little Bull Outside. Two-step. J. Brockman.

The Cosy.
For Wednesday and Thursday, a sensational western feature showing a real 12 mile race.
"The Eric." Rex. Lured away from her simple country home the girl left her babe and husband alone. She became a great actress, fame and riches were hers. But in after years her youth and beauty gone, she was cast aside. It was then her country lover came to her and too late she realized the price of sin.
"A Race for a Bride." Bison. A sensational 12 mile cross country race for the position of express rider and a girl's love is the theme of this story. A genuine race, at frightful speed down hills, through water, around curves, hurdling obstacles, a score of cowboys thundering at break neck speed; a real thriller.
"The Moonshiner." Reliance. A stirring drama of the hills ending in a battle. A barn dance the revenue officer learns the location of the still and his men attack the mountaineers but are defeated.
"The Courting of Mary." Majestic. A quaint comedy of country life in which a bashful lover was finally made to come through. The old maid who opposes the match, is very funny.

At the Grand.
Tonight a complete change of program. The Austin company present "The Midnight Express." This is a western melodrama and is full of vim

Years of Suffering
Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.
Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."
Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

from start to finish. This bill holds all house records at the Unique Theater, Spokane, and the only play ever repeated the second time at that musical comedy house. The company has been working diligently on "The Midnight Express" for the last two weeks and have guaranteed to make this the best bill ever presented in Pendleton. This being a scenic production, special scenery had to be gotten ready for same. Everything has been done to make this bill a success. Two feature reels of motion pictures will also be run each show. Friday night is amateur night and a long list of contestants have handed in their names. The Pendleton colored boot black quartette will also appear Friday night and will render some new songs. The colored boys have been working hard rehearsing of late and will render some classy songs.

MASKED MEN GET $40 AT HUNTINGTON CAFE

Huntington, Or.—The Oregon cafe, owned and operated by Chinese, was entered by masked men, who at the point of a gun held up the inmates, securing more than $40 in money and successfully covering their retreat. Local men are under suspicion and may be arrested at any time.

Farmers Take Notice.
Anyone wanting lumber, doors, frames, etc., at reasonable prices, will do well to see Chas. Cole within the next two weeks, at Pendleton high school grounds.
