Wilson Dress-hooks

These popular new Dress-hooks are not ordinary hooks and eyes or snaps--they will completely overcome your dress-fastening difficulties. The free cards are not samples but the same value for which you would regularly pay 10c.

We make this most unusual and liberal offer as we are confident you will find Wilson Dress-hooks the very thing you have always wanted. They can't come unhooked or "pop" open accidentally. They hold securely without bulge or gap, though you can unhook them with perfect ease. Guaranteed not to rust or crush in washing and ironing, and to outlast any garment; perfectly flat and never show.

Don't neglect this opportunity to try the Wilson Dress-hooks you have seen so widely advertised in the leading magazines and style books. Used by fashionable women everywhere and endorsed by leading dressmakers.

STEEPLEJACKS FALL TO DEATH

Two Tumble 120 Feet from Spire of Philadelphia Church.

Philadelphia. Two steeplejacks fell 120 feet to death when one of them attempted to save his companion, who had slipped from a ladder on the top of the North Broad Street Presbyterian church.

When a passerby who had witnessed their terrible fall reached their bodies he found the hand of Herman Greenwald, aged 25 years still clutching the overalls on the body of August Johnson, aged 48 years, whose life he had vainly attempted to save.

The two men were engaged in placing new slates in the high steeple of the church when Johnson, who was on a ladder, suddenly slipped. As he rushed past Greenwald the latter grasped him, but was unable to check his momentum and was also dragged to his death.
