EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. A. J. McAllister and Mrs. G. H. Clark were hostesses at a delightful afternoon for the Current Literature Club on Friday of this week, at the home of the former. The program on Sweden proved of more than passing interest and was unusually well carried out. The rooms were tastefully decorated in the club colors, violet and white. Mrs. W. R. Ellis and Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy presided in the dining room where dainty refreshments were served. Many treasures in the way of beautiful linens, done by Swedish women with the hand loom were shown by Mrs. McAllister. The following program was given: Historical Topics: Queen Margaret, The Kalmar Union, Gustavus Vasa.—Mrs. J. A. Fee.

An Excursion to Lake Malär and Classic Upsa.—Mrs. G. M. Rice. Reading: The Battle Song of Gustavus Adolphus.—Mrs. T. Vaughan. How Gustavus Adolphus Changed the Map of Europe.—Miss Adna Raley. Reading: Wallenstein's Death. (Schiller)—Mrs. J. F. Robinson. Discussion: Scandinavian Celebrations.—Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy, Mrs. Berkeley, Mrs. Moorhouse, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. M. LaDow, Mrs. Ringo.

A novel luncheon took place last Saturday at Mrs. Charles Greulich's handsome home on the North side, the motif being Mrs. W. E. Brock, who won the honor score for the 1911 season of the North Side Bridge Club of twelve ladies. The table was spread by the hostess and was artistic in its appointments. Each member contributed, prepared and served a course of the luncheon. The members found their place around the table by a dainty place card with a cleverly written verse thereon by Mrs. Chas. Bonney, relative to some quality or characteristic of the lady. The verses were read and created much jollity around the board. Mr. Bowman was called to photograph the club at the table. The afternoon was spent at bridge. Mrs. Phelps winning the trophy. Members of the club are the Mesdames Greulich, Brock, Bonny, Phelps, Moore, Frazier, Nash, Robinson, Laatz, Burgess, Jones, Montgomery, Mrs. Teutsch and Mrs. Pruitt were invited guests in place of absent members. The affair was in the nature of a surprise to Mrs. Brock.

One of the most delightful as well as most novel of recent social functions was the morning bridge party given at the home of Mrs. John Adams near Adams last Tuesday. Twelve young married ladies of the city left on the early morning train for Adams and were met at the station by a big wagon drawn by mules. They were driven to the Adams ranch where the morning was spent at cards, Mrs. Mark Moorhouse capturing the prize. At noon the guests sat down to a real country dinner and returned to Pendleton on the afternoon train. Guests of the party were the Mesdames Lawrence Frazier, Clark Nelson, Fred Earle, George Hartman, William Lytle, Mark Moorhouse, Roy Alexander, Henry Collins, Willard Bond, Richard Mayberry, Frank Hays, and Nesmith Ankeney.

The Mesdames Hazel Bishop and Helen Pierce of Salem, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, were the honor guests at a party given Thursday evening by Miss Mabel Bickers. The evening was very pleasantly spent at "500," prizes being won by Miss Sybil Cole and Miss Edna Thompson. The guest list included the Mesdames Sybil Clopton, Lotta Livermore, Helen Cranston, Irene LaDow, Helen Hart, Sybil Cole, Pauline La Fontaine, Una Smith, Elizabeth Sawtelle, Effie Parkes, Phyllis Parkes, Quindara Wilcox, Zenith Talison, Edna Thompson, Bernice Ruppel and Edna Zimmerman.

Reports come from Umatilla of a dancing party in that town last night which was one of the most brilliant functions given there for a long time. The K. Y. M. S. club, composed of young ladies of Umatilla, was responsible for the affair and have received many compliments for its unprecedented success. The hall was decorated in pennants and Indian robes and presented a scene of great beauty. Splendid music was furnished by the United Orchestra of this city which had been summoned especially for the occasion.

The Young Ladies Bridge Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Merle R. Chessman at her home, 109 Water street. In the play Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs captured the trophy. Guests besides the club members were Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen, Miss Norma Alloway, Miss Mary Shea and Miss Viola Shea.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Lawrence Frazier, Mrs. George Hartman, Mrs. William Lytle and Mrs. Frank Hays were hostesses to the members of the Young Married Ladies' Bridge Club and their husbands at the home of Mrs. Frazier. The ladies' prize was captured by Mrs. Roy Alexander and the gentleman's prize by Ernest Ruppel.

The annual library hall has been announced for the evening of Thursday, February 13, and as this is one of the largest parties of the social season, considerable interest has been aroused by the announcements. The ladies of the library board are making active preparations for the event and promise a function that will be fully equal to the library balls of the past.

Friends of Mrs. Russell Wayland (Miss Fanchion Borie) will be glad to learn that she will be in Pendleton next month. She is now living in Treadwell, Alaska, and is coming here to visit her father, J. A. Borie.

A delightful silver tea for the Episcopal church was given last evening at the home of Mrs. J. F. Robinson and was attended by many society and church folk.

Miss Mayme West was the complimented guest at a bridge and surprise miscellaneous shower given yesterday by Mrs. Earl H. Parker at her attractive new home, 155 Royal Court, Laurelhurst. Daffodils were charmingly arranged about the rooms. Four tables of bridge were played and card honors won by Miss Linley Morton. The invited guests were Mrs. Thomas H. West, Mrs. Lamber Dunbar, Mrs. Ben Stodgen Morrow, Mrs. Arthur Kerron, Mrs. Henry Frank, Mrs. James Darling, Mrs. T. Irving Potter, Mrs. William Hendricks, Mrs. Arthur W. Kendrick, Mrs. William Baker, Miss Sadie Knapp, Miss Lila Clark, Miss Camilla Herz, Miss Florence Hilton, Miss Rosemary Baldwin, Miss Fay Bartholomew, Miss Linley Morton and Miss Pearl Price. Mrs. Parker's sister from Seattle.—Portland Journal.

Miss Lotta Livermore was hostess last evening to about twenty young ladies of the city in honor of Miss Hazel Bishop and Miss Helen Pierce of Salem. "500" was played, Miss Elizabeth Sawtelle emerging with the prize.

Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias will entertain Monday evening in honor of Judge Bradshaw of The Dalles, a distinguished member of the fraternal order.

On next Wednesday evening the Terpsichorean Club, the recently organized dancing club of the city, will give the first of its series of five dances and society folk are anticipating the event with much pleasure.

Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen (Miss Adele Goff) came in from her husband's ranch near Athena Thursday to be the week-end guest of Miss Edna Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson have had as their guest Mrs. W. L. Benham of Salem, who came down for the opera.—Salem Journal.

Miss Josephine Cameron, formerly a very popular Pendleton girl, is over from Heppner on a visit to her sister, Mrs. R. W. Fletcher.

Mrs. Wesley Matlock is entertaining the members of the Young Married Ladies Club this afternoon.

The degree team of the Woodmen of the World will give another dance on Monday evening.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drug Co.

church, on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock sharp, to plan for the coming state convention in April. This is to be a great meeting and everyone will be needed to help make it a success.

Presbyterian Church.

Rev. C. A. Phipps will speak tomorrow evening at 7:30, and the pastor will speak at 11 in the morning as usual. Other services as usual. All are cordially invited.
