Good program for Tuesday's change:

1. "Industries of the South and West." Sellig. An educational review of accomplishment. We are shown among other subjects, The Prune Industry, the Famous Roosevelt Dam, Luther Burbank, the wizard of flower and plant life, The Watsonville Apple Fair, the Largest Locomotive in the World, the Santa Rosa Flower Festival and the Los Angeles Vaquero Club, in one of their thrilling exhibitions of horsemanship.
2. "Her Little Slipper." American Pathe. A good war story. It deals with the freeing of the slaves.
3. "Losing to Win." Kalem. An interrupted race around the world. This production was made on the steamship Baltic while crossing the ocean.
4. "Jimmie Tricks the Landlady." Gaumont. Jimmie, pretending to be a palmer, shames the landlady so that she does not force collection of the rent.
5. "The Challenge." Gaumont. A clever story of a formidable lady fencer.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Tuesday's change of program.
 "The Revenue Man and the Girl." Biograph. A very tense and dramatic story showing some of the Biograph players at their best. The story is like a mountain torrent, now lashed into white foam, now deeply emotional like a pine-shaded pool. The heroine pictures her love for the revenue man and her sense that her father's death should be revenged. Love wins.
 "Pull for the Shore, Sailor." Edison. From "The Madonna of the Tubs," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps. A sweet, pathetic tale that is sure to reach the heart.

"A Day With a Circus." Sellig. An exceedingly interesting subject.
 "The Plumber." Sellig. A rapidly moving, humorous comedy of human nature.

"The Mountain Law." Essany. A western drama, each scene being shown in a novel and most artistic way.

Musical program for Tuesday:
 No. 1. O Zronu—Polka Two-Step—A. L. Marsh.

No. 2. Vesnicko Ma (My Country Home) Waltzes—J. R. Blobner.
 No. 3.—Pode Mlejnem (At the Mill) March Two-Step—F. R. Kmoch.

Cosy.

Wednesday and Thursday program. Lots of comedy again this change:
 "A Western One-Night Stand." Bison. A real riot of merriment in which the cowboys having been fooled by the advance man, loaded up with ancient eggs and has been vegetables and bombarded the stage. A western whirlwind of joy.

"A Father's Heart." Eclair. Beautiful child drama that touches one of the deepest phases of human life. The mother and child though strangers, were drawn together by the silken strands of love through scenes that touch the heart and dim the eye.

"King the Detective." Imp. A clever detective story with a strong plot in which the interest is held until the final scene and with a pleasing and consistent end.

"Mutt and Jeff and the Lady Stenographer." Nestor. The two fun-makers are here again in a new gloom chaser and smile inducer. See them try to make love.

"The Suit Case Mystery." Nestor. A charming chuckle producer guaranteed to chase the blues.

Friday and Saturday, special in 2 reels, "Zoological Gardens of Rome." A great animal picture. Let the children see it.

At the Grand.

Two more packed houses saw the Austin company and the Pendleton Round-Up pictures last night. Harry Watson also gave his assistance last night and sang his latest song "Let 'er Buck" and certainly made a hit with the same. Tonight will be your last chance to see the Round-Up pictures. The three performances this first half of the week has been a benefit for the newly organized relief society and so far has netted them a neat sum. Come tonight and help them some more. Tomorrow night the Austin company will present the comedy drama, "Two Married Men." This bill is guaranteed to keep the audience in convulsions from beginning to end. Two new people have been added to the company which will strengthen it materially, as both have good voices. Friday night is amateur night. Don't forget this your last night of the Round-Up pictures.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

SANFORD DODGE HAS
"THE RIGHT OF WAY"

In casting about for a successful play for this season, Mr. Sanford Dodge decided to produce "The Right of Way." With this end in view he secured from Charles Frohman's agents the American and Canadian rights for this wonderful drama. He will use Eugene W. Presbrey's version which is conceded to be a most finished dramatization of Sir Gilbert Parker's popular story, which by the way is founded on absolute facts.

The story is not in any way a discussion of religion, still it propounds some questions that are difficult to answer and in fact can only be answered by the individual opinion and dictates of the individual brain and conscience. The play is constructed and executed with artistic care and detail and is intensely interesting with thrilling climaxes and tense telling dialogue. As Charles Steele, the brainy lawyer, Mr. Sanford Dodge will prove a revelation to those who have known him in the "Sack and Buskin" of the legitimate drama. Those who have read the thrilling novel "The Right of Way" will want to see it produced and those who have not will be just as intensely interested as the play is in life, living, throbbing chapter of heartbeats from experiences that might befall any or all of us. At the Oregon theatre Friday night February 2.

BIG "FLUNK" AT WEST POINT.

West Point, N. Y.—The semi-annual examination at West Point proved disastrous to thirty-one members of the largest fourth class ever gathered at the institution. The class was regarded as the best prepared appointees ever matriculated, as the members not only passed in the competitive examinations, but also passed the regular academic examination with flying colors. The first six months under the military discipline and class training proved too much for the thirty-one, who have been ordered to their homes.

MILLIONAIRE FOR DAY IS BACK; ALSO BROKE

Doesn't Envy Morgan, Carnegie or Rockefeller; Wants the Simple Life.

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—"I'm back and I'm broke, but I've had my fling and am satisfied. I hope my taste for prunes isn't forever spoiled," says John Jay McDevitt, millionaire and high roller for a day, who is plain McDevitt again.

"The man from Wilkesbarre" who went over to New York on a special train to spend his money in ascertaining the sensations attending life as a millionaire, returned in the lower berth of a Pullman.

"Here, porter," he said, giving that functional $1.50 as he left the train, "this is the last cent I have, but I am home in the good old town and I'm glad to be here."

"I certainly hit up a swift pace," he said, "and if millionaires live the way I lived, I don't wonder that Rockefeller has no stomach, that Carnegie has to go to Scotland for his home brand of oatmeal and the simple life, and that J. Pierpont Morgan is so backward about talking of himself. But I put Wilkesbarre on the map all right."

McDevitt says he will live the simple life. He says he turned down offers of $1,000 a week to go on the vaudeville stage.

THINKS MAYOR IS CROOK.

Dayton Detective Mistakes Springfield Official for Fugitive.

Springfield, O.—Mayor J. J. Miller, leaving Dayton on a traction car, virtually was taken into custody by a detective of the Dayton police force, who thought he was a crook for whose arrest he had a warrant. Mayor Miller took the matter as a joke until the detective started to handcuff him preparatory to taking him to police headquarters.

The mayor's wife and one or two other women who had preceded him to the car, rushed back, and their expostulations that he was mayor of Springfield finally convinced the puzzled detective that he had captured the wrong man.

BOYCOTT OF EGGS URGED.

Baltimore Doctor Blames Dairy Dealers for High Cost of Eggs.

Baltimore.—Urging a boycott of butter and eggs as the most effective means of forcing a decrease in the prices of these necessities, Dr. Guy L. Hunter of this city declares his belief that the skyrocketing of prices has been due to manipulation by concerns which are holding vast quantities of butter and eggs in cold storage.

GIRL WON'T BUY LICENSE.

Prospective Husband Only Had $1.50; Marriage Document Cost $2.

South Bend, Ind.—"Surely you don't expect me to pay for our marriage license," said Miss Mary Ford, an attractive young woman, to Peter J.

KIDNEY REMEDY THAT ACTS LIKE MAGIC

I have been a terrible sufferer for a number of years with kidney and liver trouble, also nervous prostration and health generally poor, constitution entirely run down until life became a burden. I tried physicians and every available remedy but found no relief. Was induced to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a trial, which acted like magic, and am happy to say that I believe I am entirely cured and now as good a man as ever. I believe it my duty to make this public statement that I may help others who may be suffering from the same trouble. Swamp-Root is without question the greatest remedy in the world. Anyone in doubt of this statement or the authenticity can address me as below.

Yours very truly,

W. H. MCCOY.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Pendleton Daily East Oregonian. Regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Potok, her intended husband, in the St. Joseph County Clerk's office. "If you live me," she continued, "you would have money for that."
 "But $1.50 is all I have," rejoined Potok, turning crimson, and the clerk says the license will cost $2.
 The young man tried to persuade the girl to pay, but she refused. Instead, she became very indignant and berated him in no uncertain terms. Potok was finally convinced the girl was in earnest and they left the office to obtain more money. They have not been back.

KILLED IN TUNNEL CAVEIN.

Peter Olson is Chushed Near Miles—Dug Out in Two Hours.

Peach, Wash.—The first fatality in the construction of the Columbia-Bluestem branch of the Great Northern railway was the instant death of Peter Olson, 38, a native of Sweden, whose home had been in Spokane. He was crushed by the caving of a tunnel in which he had been working but 20 minutes.

If you want to be a juror, never read or form an opinion.
