

Only Two Days More Left of Our Great White Sale

As this most successful sale draws to a close more bargains of all kinds are added, short lines must be closed out and are cut more and more deeply.

The sale closes Saturday evening, and if you have overlooked buying any white goods of any kind you'll do well to come now and get what you need because these prices will not be duplicated for many months of ever.

Notwithstanding the fact that this sale has been a success beyond our fondest expectations we still have a wonderful display of white goods of all kinds and your particular wants can be almost as well filled as at the beginning of the sale. Many new arrivals have filled up the gaps made by the whirlwind selling during the past two weeks.

Don't lose sight of the fact that OUR GOODS are NEW GOODS, they're not junk, nor left overs. And we wish to remind you that we give trading stamps with every cash purchase, and these stamps mean an actual saving of FIVE PER CENT of your purchase.

Orpheum.

Vitagraph feature film for Friday and Saturday.

1. "One Touch of Nature." Vitagraph. A true portrayal of an inter-marriage arousing prejudice that were overcome by the common tie.

2. "Taking His Medicine." Biograph. A farce, the characters of which are a lazy country boy, his father, mother and little sister, and the country doctor.

3. "Her Pet." Biograph. Mrs. Perkins is all devotion for her little poodle-dog pet, much to the perturbation of Mr. Perkins, who enraged at what he considers his silly affection, bribes a newsboy to steal and do away with the innoxious canine. The boy carries out his part of the program, but Mrs. Perkins advertises for her lost pet and the same boy, seeing the ad, returns it and receives the reward offered.

4. "Norma from Norway." Kalem. A Norwegian story. Beautiful sea coast scenery and strong dramatic situations.

5. "Starlight's Necklace." Pathé. An Indian leaves his squaw to hunt and meets a beautiful Indian maid, who fascinates him. When they part she gives him a necklace which is discovered by the brave's squaw and this leads to unpleasantness and trouble. The squaw follows her brave the next day and sees him leave his new love. She follows the girl and is almost killed. She is rescued by her husband.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. A class program Friday and Saturday.

No. 1. "Saved from Himself." Biograph. A well acted story of how a young man is saved from dishonor by his sweetheart's influence.

No. 2. "The Black Chasm." Vitagraph. This is a story that appeals to our ideals and satisfies the romance of our natures. It is the poetry of art in every respect. Judge for yourself when you see it.

No. 3. "How Betty Captured the Outlaw." Kalem. A lively western comedy. Betty thinks the stranger the hunted outlaw.

No. 4. "The Idle Boast." Lubin. This powerful dramatic story taught a man that there are better things in the world than mere money.

No. 5. "A Glimpse Into Yellowstone National Park." Kalem. Showing some of the novel features of this wonderful government park.

Musical program for Friday and Saturday:
1.—Indian Girl. Patrol. F. Lowenstein.
2.—Oh, that Navajo Rag. E. Van Alstyne.
3.—My Hula-Hula Love. Indian two-step. Percy Wencher.
4.—Big Pow Wow. Intermezzo. F. M. Pearce.
5.—Valley Flower Two Step. K. Mills.

Cosy.

Wednesday and Thursday program. Lots of comedy again this change: "A Western One-Night Stand." Bison. A real riot of merriment in which the cowboys having been fooled by the advance man, loaded up with ancient eggs and has been vegetables and bombarded the stage. A western whirlwind of joy.

"A Father's Heart." Eclair. Beautiful child drama that touches one of the deepest phases of human life. The mother and child though strangers, were drawn together by the silken strands of love through scenes that touch the heart and dim the eye.

"King the Detective." Imp. A clever detective story with a strong plot in which the interest is held until the final scene and with a pleasing and consistent end.

"Mutt and Jeff and the Lady Steenographer." Nestor. The two fun-makers are here again in a new gloom chaser and smile inducer. See them try to make love.

"The Suit Case Mystery." Nestor. A charming chuckle producer guaranteed to chase the blues.

Friday and Saturday, special in 2 reels, "Zoological Gardens of Rome." A great animal picture. Let the children see it.

At the Grand.

Last night was the last night for the Pendleton Round-Up pictures and two good houses was the issue. The Austin company extended itself and did more than its share in helping to entertain the patrons the last three nights. A neat sum was netted for the newly organized relief society and the management wishes to thank the people of Pendleton for their liberal patronage as ten per cent of the gross receipts went to the relief society. Tonight there will be an entire change of program. The Austin company presents the laughing Broadway hit, "Two Married Men."

This is a Roger Bros. musical comedy and had a long New York run. We guarantee this to please all. The company has been strengthened by Mr. Miller Evans, the silver voiced baritone singer, he will make his first appearance tonight. Everything is being done to make this the best bill produced by the Austin company. Tomorrow, Friday night, is amateur and a number of contestants have already given in their names. There will also be a boys bread and milk contest Friday night, Saturday afternoon there will be a special "Potato Matinee" for children. All children under ten years will be admitted free but each one will have to bring a potato and the ones having the three largest potatoes will receive cash prizes besides being admitted free.

Tonight.

Evangelist J. Bruce Evans of Pasadena, California, arrived in Pendleton today and will preach at 7:30 in the Baptist church. Everyone should hear him. He has just closed a great meeting at Oregon City.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by all dealers.

MR. SANFORD DODGE IN "THE RIGHT OF WAY"

As Charley Steele, the criminal lawyer in "The Right of Way," Mr. Sanford Dodge has a very congenial role, one that embraces the whole gamut of the serious drama. From his first entrance as the sophisticated, critical, questioning lawyer, to the last act where he gives his life, not to save his friend but his enemy, he is artistic, consistent and convincing. During this time he is obliged to pass through and deplete the experiences and heart beats of a life time composed of the vicissitudes brought about by an inquiring mind and a checkered career.

In the first act Charley Steele is the brilliant, aristocratic lawyer with a tendency toward infidelity and although he has been kind and thoughtful to a degree towards others and has always been generous and considerate towards his friends, one by one they repudiate him, even his own wife is anxious to leave him and as he says himself, he is a moral poison.

The second act shows Charley three years later at Portugais' cabin in the mountains. He is perfectly well physically and his mind is extremely active, but his memory of the past is obliterated.

In the third act he recovers his memory after the surgeon's operation only to realize that, although he loves Rosalie, he has a wife living. The people of the parish hear about him and his past and denounce him as a seducer and infidel and the most bitter one of all, the fanatical tailor, attempts his life. In the face of all this he takes Rosalie in his arms, saying, "For their happiness they have 'The Right of Way' and that he will keep her in spite of all the world."

In the last act the church is set on fire and in order to rescue the man who has tried to injure him, Charley inhales the flames which cause his death. "Greater love hath no man than he who gives up his own life for his friend." "How much nobler was Charley Steele when he gave his life for his enemy."

Through every situation, every exaction, every demand of this interesting complex, trying role, Mr. Dodge proves himself equal to the occasion and his portrayal is one, once seen can never be forgotten. Don't miss "Right of Way" at the Oregon Theatre this splendid production of "The Friday night, February 2.

The Mantle of Mephisto!

"Faust" and Mr. Louis Morrison as Mephisto have been for years the synonyms of excellence. Mr. Morrison, however, has been called to that other and better world, and it is generally conceded that the Mantle of Mephisto, which he can wear no longer, has fallen on the shoulders of Mr. Sanford Dodge. This young actor has an entirely new conception of the great role, making the character more humorous and likeable than any other actor has ever succeeded in doing. Don't miss seeing this splendid production of Faust at the Oregon theatre Saturday night, February 3.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

NO CASCARET USER EVER HAS HEADACHE

A 10-Cent Box Will Keep Your Liver Stomach and Bowels Clean, Pure and Fresh for Months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passage way for day or two—yes—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means inside cleanliness and a clear head for months. Ask any of the millions of Cascaret users if they ever had headache.

GOLDEN-RULE PLAN IS PLEA OF COURT

Cleveland Justice Leaves It to Offender's Honor to Make Appearance.

Cleveland.—Chief Kohler is not the only official in Cleveland who can lay claim to fame by reason of the adoption of a golden rule policy. Justice Sam Kabatchnick has originated a little plan of his own for bringing minor culprits into his court without causing them any great amount of embarrassment.

The plan adopted by the squire is to send a notice to men who are wanted for misdemeanors. Instead of dispatching a constable with a warrant to the home or place of business of the man wanted, the notice is sent by mail. The man is asked to come into the squire's court on the following day. Thus far the scheme has worked with great success, says Squire Kabatchnick.

"I believe in asking the men to come to my office," said the Squire, "and thus saving them the humiliation of being placed under arrest and having to walk through the streets of the city with a constable holding onto their sleeves. I find that the plan works well, for the men are usually pleased to think that they don't have to spend the night in the jail. They come in on the day set for their appearance with smiles on their faces and immediately make arrangements for their bond," he continued.

"Of course, when the crime is a serious one, the men should be placed in jail at the earliest possible moment," said the justice, "but a man accused of some little offense should not be dealt with like a criminal."

BOASTING BARONESS LOSES TO AMERICAN

New York—A brief four minutes

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

of flashing folls, dextrous thrusting and brilliant parrying at the Colony Club and the Baroness de Meyer, one of Europe's best woman fencers, who lately lamented the fact that America had no one worthy of her steel, had met her Waterloo. In those four minutes of lightning action, stary Mrs. William H. Dewar of Philadelphia had twice set the point of her foil home to the baroness' heart, and when the time ended was resting on the defensive, smiling happily and confidently, with only one score against her.

A heavy cold in the lungs that was expected to cure itself has been the starting point in many cases of disease that ended fatally. The sensible course is to take frequent doses of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It checks the progress of the disorder and assists nature to restore normal conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

BRIDE MUST SWEAR TO OBEY, IS DECREED

Omission of Word in Ceremony in Church in England is Held Illegal.

London.—The omission of the word "obey" from a marriage service celebrated in church is illegal and invalidates the ceremony, according to an announcement made by Rev. Hugh Chapman, chaplain of the Chapel Royal Savoy.

Before the altar stood Miss Una Dugdale, daughter of Commander Dugdale and niece of Viscount Peel, with Victor D. Duval, waiting to be married.

Both are prominent supporters of the militant suffragists and they had decided that the word "obey" should be omitted from the marriage service and had communicated their decision to the chaplain.

Miss Dugdale and Mr. Duval after the announcement by the chaplain decided to waive their objections and the marriage ceremony proceeded.

The chaplain himself disapproves of the compulsory use of the word, and prior to this evidence expressed the hope that there would soon be an amended form of marriage service, "rendering it possible for Christian people to receive the blessings of the church without hurt to their susceptibilities."

MOUSE BITES A WOMAN.

Blood Poisoning Results and Amputation May Be Necessary. Lawrenceburg, Ind.—Miss Nora M. Frenzelmeier, aged 31, a trained nurse, is in a serious condition, suffering with blood poisoning.

Miss Frenzelmeier attempted to kill a mouse with a stick of stove wood. She crippled the little animal and when she picked it up the mouse bit her on the right hand.

Her hand will probably have to be amputated to check the spread of the infection.
