KANSAS GOLDEN-ROD IS 24 MILES HIGH

Made Up of $20 Gold Pieces and Represents Wealth of State in 1911.

Topeka, Kas.—Ever hear of the Kansas golden rod? It is twenty-one miles high and one and one-half inches in diameter and is made of $20 gold pieces, representing the new wealth created in Kansas in 1911. It is the money Kansas farmers made during the worst year the state has ever had.

It was the hottest year ever recorded and there are but few when the dry weather was so extensive as in the last year, and still Kansas produced enough wealth to build a gold-rod shaft twenty-one miles high of $20 gold pieces, twenty-one miles high of $20 gold pieces, twenty-seven to the foot. During the year the Kansas farmers sat down to supper $777,000 richer than the night before.

Kansas produced $283,927,188 in new wealth during 1911, and its total farm products, including the livestock and crops now on the farms and needed there, amounts to half a billion dollars.

The state produced during 1911 sufficient new money to give each person in the state $170 as a Christmas present, if it were all divided.

Kansas raised only 51,000,000 bushels of wheat last year, and the average price was 86 cents a bushel. It had only 105,000,000 bushels of corn, a loss of 47,000,000 bushels, and it received only $59,000,000 for the corn crop.

Under the hottest sun Kansas ever knew since records of the weather have been kept, Kansas produced $283,000,000 in new wealth, real new money, from the soil, and its total farm products and property is half a billion dollars.

Take the Kansas wheat and corn crops together and it would require something like 127,000 cars to transport it. It would take 42,000 cars to haul the wheat alone, figuring 1200 bushels to the car.

Although hundreds met him at the depot he did not speak on account of his sore throat. He said, regarding his native state: "I was much gratified by the cordiality of the reception tendered me by my fellow citizens of Ohio. It was plain to me that my trip aroused strong republican sentiment and dispelled many erroneous impressions that had gone abroad."

TAFT SATISFIED WITH RESULT OF SECRET CONFERENCE

Pittsburg, Feb. 1.—Convinced that the Ohio delegation will vote for him solid, at the convention, President Taft, tired and worn out from his three days speechmaking stopped here a few minutes today, enroute to Washington.

Although hundreds met him at the depot he did not speak on account of his sore throat. He said, regarding his native state: "I was much gratified by the cordiality of the reception tendered me by my fellow citizens of Ohio. It was plain to me that my trip aroused strong republican sentiment and dispelled many erroneous impressions that had gone abroad."

FIVE HUNDRED MILKERS WANTED TO FILL POSITIONS

Spokane, Wash.—Five hundred experienced "dry" milkers can obtain immediate employment in local dairies at wages averaging $40 a month throughout the year, with board, lodging and laundry. The requirements are milking 30 cows twice a day and keeping the animals and the barns clean. Feeding, herding and general farm work is done by helpers. Thomas S. Griffith, chairman of the agricultural and dairy committee of the Spokane chamber of commerce and president of the Glen Tana dairy farm, said today in making the foregoing announcement that he could also place at once several hundred milkers at similar wages in eastern Washington and northern Idaho, as well as find ready cash markets for 20,000 Jersey and Holstein cows, not more than four years of age, at prices ranging from $50 to $125, thus furnishing employment for from 500 to 650 men additional. Mr. Griffith says there is a shortage of milkers and milch cows throughout the district tributary to Spokane and fully 1000 men are required; also that from 250,000 to 300,000 additional cows are needed to supply the present demand for dairy products.

HYMN SANG BY SALVATION ARMY SAVES A BURGLAR

Spokane, Wash.—"Jack Mansfield," 35 years of age, who says he assumed that name to spare his family in Utah and confessed he was prepared, armed with two revolvers and a kit of burglar's tools, to rob a number of stores in the river district, when attracted by an old-fashioned hymn played by the Salvation Army band at its local armory, decided to devote the rest of his life to reclaiming fallen men and unfortunate women. Mansfield was converted the night of January 28, when he arose from his knees at the foot of the altar and confessed to more than 300 worshippers that he had determined upon robbery and was prepared to kill if necessary. In the event he was hindered in his purpose. Shortly before "testifying" he passed to E. W. Baldwin, adjutant at the post, a brace of loaded revolvers, an electric flash-light, a jimmy and a fully equipped drill, also a quantity of high explosives. Adjutant Baldwin says the new convert is well connected in Utah, Nevada and California and that his parents are well-to-do and highly respected in the community in which they reside in the state of Utah.

In the butcher business, and the day that this bologna was made Bauman took sick, and, upon stepping outside of the door, fell dead.
Mayer took a piece of the last bologna that was made and wrapped it up in a piece of paper and took it home and placed it in his trunk, where it has remained ever since.

In looking through the trunk the other day he came across the bologna and found that it was petrified, but had the appearance of just being made.

(FROM THE CAPITAL JOURNAL)

WHAT CAN BE DONE TO HELP HOME INDUSTRIES?

Hang out the banner "Made in Oregon"

What can be done to encourage the manufacturing establishments we now have in the state

Do they not need our best encouragement?

The Oregon manufacturer and the Oregon jobber and the Oregon insurance companies?

Why send millions out of the state for foreign products?

This is a practical question that is far more important than who shall be president of the United States.

One home industry means more than bushels of politics. Think of the energies that will be applied to electing a president and solving woman suffrage and capital punishment.

Full dinner pails and good payrolls mean far more.

Half the time and money and brains put into the simple proposition of building up Oregon industrially would make this the most prosperous state in the nation.

Concrete pavements enrich California by millions.

If the factories we now have, the jobbers and organizations of capital now in legitimate business are successful, others will be established.

Protection to home industries is a sound doctrine.

The way to get more industries is to see to it that the manufacturer we now have is patronized and appreciated.

Oregon needs more payrolls and less politics.

The way to make Oregon count and to show what L. Samuel calls real gumption is to stand up for all Oregon products.

Anything made in Oregon is better than the imported.

If every family would call for Oregon brands of flour, baking powder, canned goods, coffee and spices this state would be humming with prosperity.

More home industries more home advertising.

If every Oregonian would smoke Oregon-made cigars, drink Oregon-made beer, eat meals of Oregon products, we would be financing the rest of the commonwealth within five years.

You don't have to smoke or drink, if you do use home products.

There is a great deal of talk about the Oregon system, but is there any system equal to protection of home industries?

Wear clothes made of Oregon wool and woven in Oregon mills. Politics and the Oregon system have cost a great deal of money, and bad politics in state and nation affect our prosperity.

You will sleep sounder under an Oregon-made blanket.

Is there any substitute for getting right down and upholding your neighbor in his business, and your neighbor is every man who is engaged in business or employing labor in Oregon.

Is there a better foundation than to stand in Oregon shoes?

Will you not assist in putting on a home campaign and enroll yourself under the banner of "Made in Oregon?"

We have talked about this matter a great deal, but now the time has come for action, and all the people must be educated to act together, to act effectively and continuously.

The Capital Journal believes this is the most important matter before the people of Oregon to make our state prosperous.
