READY FOR TONIGHT'S BASKETBALL GAME

Unquestionably two of the best academic basketball games in the Inland Empire will clash tonight in the Commercial gymnasium when the local high school quintet meets the crack aggregation of Pearson's academy, Walla Walla. The Garden City boys have a great deal of speed and a whole lot of science which combination enabled them to win from the local team last week by a narrow margin, but since that game, the high school players have been strengthening their weak points and now believe they can master the Walla Wallans.

The following will be the first lineup this evening.

400 Birds at Milton Show. Alex Oliver has just returned from Milton where he had four coops of game birds entered in the three days' poultry show at that place. He reports a splendid exhibition at which there were approximately 400 birds.

"Merchant of Venice." A matinee performance of "The Merchant of Venice" is to be given at the Oregon theatre tomorrow afternoon by the Sanford Dodge troupe which is to present "The Right of Way" tonight.

Literary Interpreter Coming. Prominent club women of the city have succeeded in persuading Cora Mel Foster, famous literary interpreter from Chicago, to stop off in Pendleton next Tuesday night for the entertainment of a local audience. She will render Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird" here, one of her best selections, and the club women are delighted with the arrangement.

Sues to Enforce Payment. J. L. Peterson has commenced suit against Fred Kyle, alleging in his complaint that he signed his name as surety on a note executed to J. N. Stone by the defendant for the sum of $169.90 and that he was forced to pay that sum upon the failure of the defendant to do so. He asks for judgment for the amount and $40 attorney fees. Peterson and Wilson are representing the plaintiff.

To Attend Koontz Funeral. A number of well known Pendleton citizens went to Echo this morning to attend the funeral of J. H. Koontz, well known pioneer who died at his home Wednesday. Among those going down were T. C. Taylor, R. Alexander, Lot Livermore, G. W. Bradley and Mat Carney.

Something Doing. Evangelist J. Bruce Evans began his campaign at the Baptist church last night in downright earnest. His first service was well attended and the interest genuine and deep. He has a strong personality and his sanity and devotion are unquestioned. Pendleton people will want to hear him again and again.

Fighters Are Fined. Ben Hickman and Charles Dial, the two colored men who were yesterday charged with disorderly conduct in police court because of an altercation they had had, were adjudged guilty by Judge Fitz Gerald yesterday and the former was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and the latter one of $10. Hickman liquidated his fine but Dial is serving time in the city bastille.

Art Exhibit for Pendleton. C. H. Snyder announces that he has made arrangements whereby Pendleton people are to see an exhibition of art pictures from such celebrated artists as A. D. Cooper, Benjamin Roburg, William Hart, D. Middleton, Englehart and Colton. The pictures come from the California Art association and will be exhibited at the Snyder Music House for one week, commencing tomorrow.

Express Horse to Portland. People at the depot this morning were interested in the maneuvers necessary to get a horse in the express car. The animal belongs to the American Express company and is being sent to Portland following an injury it received here. Considerable time and various expedients were required before the horse would consent to enter the car.

Three Are For Roosevelt. Col. Hofer's petition for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as candidate for president which was tacked up in the county clerk's office some time ago is not being filled very rapidly. To date only three registered republicans have gone on record as favoring the "strenuous one" for a third term, W. A. Leather of Hermiston, and F. M. Oliver and C. D. Rayburn of this city.

Moorhouse Goes A.S.O. Mark Moorhouse, well known young local businessman and a director of the Round-up here, has accepted a position with the Raley-Gwinn frontier show that is to be pulled off in Los Angeles. He expects to leave shortly for the southwestern city and to remain there until after the show has been given. He is going largely because of ill health which calls for a change of climate.

J. T. Hinkle Wants an Office. Joseph T. Hinkle, former local attorney and now located at Hermiston, today filed his petition for nomination as a republican candidate for representative in the legislature from this district with Registration Clerk Sutherland. He endorses the direct primary, attachment No. 1, the initiative and referendum, the recall, simpler and better laws, rigid economy in state and county affairs, and lower taxes. He asks that his name on the ballot be followed by the words, "Oregon system, lower taxes, fewer laws, less talk, more irrigation." Hinkle was a candidate two years ago and made "alfalfa" his principal issue.

Taft Accused of Aiding GUGGENHEIM TRUST San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 2.—Charges made by Harold French, a chemist in the San Francisco mint, that the Taft administration plans to turn over the refining of all silver and gold for coinage to the Guggenheimer smelter trust are denied in dispatch received from Secretary MacVeagh in Washington. He said: "We have taken pains to prevent the so-called trust from monopolizing the smelting and refining business. The government refining branches have been closed as a part of economy plans and the charges are untrue."

RESCUED FROM CORN BIN. Man is Submerged in the Cereal for an Hour.

Fargo, N. D.—Christ Kroll, an elevator man at Gackle, N. D., was buried for an hour beneath ten feet of corn and when rescued he was exhausted. Kroll says that as soon as he fell into the bin of corn and felt himself beginning to smother he used his arms to force an air space and managed to live by pulling his coat over his arms, so the dust from the corn could not get into his throat. Kroll stepped near the bin and fell in, and it took friends an hour to get him out.
