EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Coming as a complete surprise to his many friends in this city is the announcement of the marriage of Edgar Ellis, son of Judge and Mrs. W. R. Ellis, to Miss Jessie Foster of Island City. The wedding occurred in Portland Monday evening and was announced in the Oregon Journal yesterday under the headlines, "Romance of College Ends in a Marriage." Following is the Journal story:

A romance which had its beginning at the Oregon Agricultural college, terminated at the Hotel Portland Monday evening when Edgar Ellis, son of ex-Congressman Ellis, and Miss Jessie Foster of Island City, were quietly married by Rev. S. W. Seemann, pastor of the Presbyterian church of La Grande. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Lillian Foster, who represents one of the pioneer families of Union county. Edgar Ellis has spent most of his life at Pendleton and is now managing a dairy ranch at Cathlamet.

While the young people were students at Corvallis a few years ago they discovered that the dean of women, Mrs. Crayne, was a fast friend of the mother of each. In this way a friendship quickly sprang up which strengthened as the months passed.

Following the wedding, which was witnessed only by near relatives, E. E. Kiddle of Island City, a well known business man of eastern Oregon and uncle of the bride, gave the wedding party a dinner at the Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will make their home at Cathlamet, Wash.

Mrs. Gilbert W. Phelps was the most prominent of the week's hostesses. Besides entertaining the Thursday Afternoon Club on the day from which it takes its name, she was responsible for a most enjoyable bridge session yesterday afternoon in honor of her out-of-town guests, Mrs. S. D. Irwin and her sister, Mrs. Frank Rechlin, both of La Grande. In the play Mrs. Lawrence G. Frazier and Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs captured the trophies. The following were the ladies on the guest list: Mesdames Robert N. Stanfield, Willard Bond, Roy Kirkley, William Lytle, Henry Collins, George A. Hartman, Jr., Ben L. Burroughs, George Strand, Roy Alexander, Mark Moorhouse, Lawrence G. Frazier, Fred Earle, Clark Nelson, Richard Mayberry, Frank Hays, John Adams NeSmith Ankeny, Ernest Ruppe, A. C. Hampton, Lewis Campbell, Wilson E. Brock, W. C. E. Pruitt, Will Thompson, Will McKinney, Charles Bonney and Miss Adna Raley.

Tuesday evening the Knights and Ladies of the Macabees held "open house" in the Moose Hall for members and invited friends, the occasion being the joint installation of their officers. Under the very capable directorship of Mrs. Krebs, the ceremonies were impressively conducted. A program of exceptional merit was rendered among the notable features of which were the review of the ancient history of the Macabees by Judge Stephen A. Lowell, the exceptionally fine monologue of Rev. Frank J. Milnes, the address by State Commander Sherwood and the musical selections by well known soloists. A drill was put on by a team of ladies and received much praise. The following were inducted into office:

Commander, Grace McConnell; past commander, Janet McRae; lieutenant commander, May Krebs; chaplain, Mary Stevens; H. K. Ella Reagon; F. A. Nora Rogers; mistress at arms, Frances Drake; sergeant, Ellen Miller; sentinel, Effie Lynde; picket, Addie Pierce.

Mrs. Clarence Penland was hostess Thursday afternoon at a baby party, given in honor of her one year old son, John Levi Penland. Following a program, suitable to the occasion, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. C. McNabb and Miss Adna Raley. Those in attendance were: Mrs. Fred Lieualten and daughter, Barbara; Mrs. Carl Morris and son, Charles; Mrs. Roland Oliver and son, Louis; Mrs. William Penland, and son Ralph; Mrs. O. E. Harper and daughter, Lillah, the hostess and her son.

One of the principal society events of the week and incidentally one of the best dancing parties given in Pendleton for some time was the initial number of the Terpsichorean Club's series in the Eagle-Woodman hall Wednesday evening. The affair was attended by sixty couples and the fact that all stayed until the strains of the last waltz had died away testified to the enjoyment of the occasion. The music was excellent, the floor was good and the crowd in jolly spirits throughout. So successful was the affair that the remaining numbers of the series promise to be anticipated for weeks in advance.

William Coffman was made the happy recipient of a birthday party at his home on Hazel street Thursday night, a number of his neighbors coming in to extend the felicitations of the day. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Oliver and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Endicott, Mrs. Mary Baker, Mrs. Frank Konasek, Mrs. Gerton, James Beard and Ed Baker.

Mrs. Harry Beckers was hostess to the Jolly Neighbors Tuesday afternoon and the time was very pleasantly spent at cards. In the play, Mrs. Lee Tutsch won the club prize and Mrs. Henry Laatz carried off the guest trophy.

On Monday evening, the degree team of the Woodmen of the World gave another one of its enjoyable dancing parties in the Eagle-Woodman hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George La Fontaine returned during the week from a honeymoon trip of two months spent in California and the Hawaiian Islands.

Miss Hazel Bishop and Miss Helen Pierce, who have been guests of Mrs. C. P. Bishop for several weeks, left this morning for their home at Salem.

Miss Anna Waugh, a teacher in the public school at Echo, is spending the week end in Pendleton.

Miss Jennie Perry is entertaining this evening at bridge in honor of Miss Josephine Cameron of Heppner, the two being sorority sisters. Miss Perry's guest list includes the Mesdames George La Fontaine, Ben Burroughs, George Strand, Merle R. Chessman, Ernest Ruppe and the Misses Edith Johnson, Edna Zimmerman, Mary Zurcher, Gertrude Jordan, Edna Thompson, Edna Miesler, Laura McKee, Edna Storie, Norma Alloway, Irene Shea, Pauline La Fontaine, Mary Shea, Sybil Clopton, Una Smith and Elizabeth Sawtelle.

A most delightful musicale was given this week by the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club, with Mrs. G. W. Phelps and Mrs. B. S. Burroughs as hostesses. The following program was given:

Quotations on music.
Songs—(a) I Will Not Grieve, Schumann; (b) Cradle Song, Weber, Miss La Dow.
Songs—(a) Sunshine Song, Grieg; (b) Perfect Day, Carrie Jacobs Bond; Mrs. Roy Alexander.
Songs—(a) Du Bist Die Ruh; (b) Wogenlied, Schubert.
Paper—Lyric Poetry, Mrs. James Kennedy.
Songs from the Cycle—Poet's Love, Music by Schumann, words by Heine.
(a) Im Wunderschönen Monat Mai; (b) Kenn Ich In Deine Augen; (c) Die Lotus Blume; (d) Du Bist Wie Eine Blume. Mrs. J. S. Landers.
Violin Solo, Miss Margaret Phelps.
After the program refreshments were served, Mrs. Mary J. Lane and

The Rayo Lamp

The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book.

It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light.

The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price. It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers.

Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the

"THE RIGHT OF WAY" WAY" A GOOD PLAY

Mrs. T. C. Taylor pouring tea. It was announced that on Thursday afternoon, February 3, the annual social meeting of the club would be held at the home of Mrs. Burroughs. The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. G. I. La Dow February 15.

Mrs. Wesley Matlock is hostess this afternoon at a tea for Mrs. W. F. Matlock, her guests being the Mesdames Aura Raley, J. H. Raley, Frank Saling, Lee Moorhouse, Leona Thompson, E. J. Somerville, James Jones, Bond, L. Dow, Starkweather, T. C. Taylor, Lane, Livermore, R. Alexander and Swaggart.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop invited in a number of ladies Wednesday afternoon to meet her guests, Misses Hazel Bishop and Helen Pierce of Salem.

George Strahorn of Ackley, Iowa, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ruth Strahorn.

Revival of Gold Beads.
There has been a revival of gold beads. Old strings of these that have lain idle for years can now be taken from their hiding places and worn around the neck. In case they are tarnished they can be cleaned with hot water and soap and a little soda; rinse them thoroughly and dry in jeweler's sawdust. The style of the new beads is practically the same as the old fashioned ones, although the dull finish is more popular, as they can be worn next to the skin, on a white waist and they will brighten a dark gown to a very marked degree.

And according to Royal Sawtelle, the jeweler, they have been making these longer by adding new beads or shortening the strands and reconstructing the catches and practically making new strands out of beads that were worn thirty years ago.

At The Grand.
"Two Married Men," presented by the Austin Co. is drawing large houses and is certainly pleasing the people. The company has been strengthened by two new members. Miller Evans, a silver voiced tenor, made his first appearance with the Austins last night and rendered some vocal solos that were well received. He has one of the most pleasing voices ever heard in Pendleton. Last night was amateur night and some good stunts were pulled off. Olin Matson, a Swede, had from Minnesota in songs and Swede songs and monologue winning first prize and Jack Dalton in expert roping winning second. Don't fail to see the Austins in "Two Married Men." Special matinee Sunday 2:30.

FARMERS NEAR WESTON WILL RAISE BEANS

Weston, Or.—Beans are coming in favor with Weston farmers, as a summer fallow crop. Heretofore beans have been planted on a limited scale, but a much larger acreage will be devoted to beans this spring if present plans are carried out. William MacKenzie contemplates planting 100 acres and J. M. O'Harra, C. F. Bulfinch and others will follow bean culture to increase the annual output of their land. The idea is growing locally that it is wasteful to allow the rich Weston land to lie idle every alternate year and beans are favored because they leave the fields in fine condition for the wheat crop.

HER "MASH" BRINGS FORTUNE

Philadelphia, Pa.—According to a letter which Miss Ella Douglass received from Miles City, Mont., she has fallen heir to $25,000 in cash and a ranch in that state which is worth $150,000, all because she captured the heart of a gentleman whom she met in this city a year ago last summer.

While at a restaurant with some friends she became acquainted with a man who said he was Earl Hall of Miles City, who claimed to be a wealthy ranch owner. Though their conversation was brief, Hall proposed marriage, but Miss Douglas told him she had promised to become another's bride.

Little more was thought of the matter until the letter came.

The letter said that Hall had died, leaving his all to the Philadelphia girl, who caught his fancy.

WOMAN GRANTED DIVORCE AND LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

Mrs. Mae Luyties of St. Louis Also Got Property Valued at $25,000 and $5000 a Year Alimony.

St. Louis, Mo.—A decree granting Mrs. Mae C. Luyties a divorce from Herman C. G. Luyties was handed down in the circuit court after attorneys had agreed on the alimony settlement which was included in the decree. The alimony agreed on consists of personal property valued at $25,000, a paid-up $50,000 insurance policy and annual payments of $5,000 to Mrs. Luyties, who alleged general indignities in her petition.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"THE RIGHT OF WAY" WAY" A GOOD PLAY

Quite ably presented, "The Right of Way" probably one of the strongest dramas of its particular kind on the stage, last night was appreciated for its full value by a fair sized audience at the Oregon theatre, Sanford Dodge appearing in the leading role.

The story, full of surprises and sprinkled here and there with thrills, is of one Charley Steel, a Montreal lawyer whose personality is unique, to say the least, and apparently demoralizes all with whom he comes into contact until he becomes a different individual, with memory gone, through an injury sustained in a drunken brawl. While living thus, unable to recall his former self, his wife, and other features of his former life, he is guided into the north woods and cared for by a murderer whom he had saved from the gallows. Meeting a backwoods girl, he falls in love, not knowing he has a wife in Montreal, arranges to wed her, and is brought back to his normal state of mind, almost on the eve of his wedding.

Realizing his position, when the priest forbids his marriage, even though his former wife has remarried, he prepares to again take up his wandering, learns that his wife has been removed, by death, from his path, and the curtain drops with the real lovers locked in embrace.

The support given Mr. Dodge, can be improved upon, the one character that was done justice probably being that of the murderer, Joe Portuguese, presented by Harry Bernard.

The company is this afternoon presenting the "Merchant of Venice" and tonight will offer "Faust," with Mr. Dodge as Mephisto, a character which he is probably better fitted for, than the leading role in "The Right of Way."

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Extra good program for Sunday and Monday.

1. "The Missing Will." Vitagraph. Nothing missing in this picture. The will is accounted for, the dishonorable widow foiled, and everybody's cup of happiness is filled. Be sure and see this splendid production, it will do you good and make you feel better pleased with life and everything will look brighter.

2. "The Bully of Bingo Gulch." Selig. A strong Western comedy drama, pictured in beautiful "Colorado."

3. "The Old Doll." Vitagraph. "No friends like the old ones." An old doll proves a friend in need and leads to the happy reunion in later years of two childhood companions.

4. "The Millionaire Barber." Essanay. There is novelty in the plot of this excellent comedy and the comedy situations are immense. A barber passes himself off for a millionaire and has a gay time until "back to the clippers" for him.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Program for Sunday includes a Vitagraph featuring Maurice Costello.

"Some Good in All." Vitagraph. There's a heap of good in this striking picture of the exhibition of good displayed by a man with the world against him. The sight of a sleeping child in the beauty of innocence leads him to forsake his life of crime.

"Their Last Chance." Selig. One of the funniest pictures of the year, showing the ruses adopted by Misses Mary and Priscilla West in their effort to get married.

"Master Cupid, Detective." Essanay. An ingenious photoplay, splendidly acted, showing how Gladys plays detective and catches the thief.

"Actors' Hearts." American Pathé. A delightful Christmas story of an old actor and his little daughter.

Musical program for Sunday:
No. 1—Alexander's Ragtime Band, Rag, Irving Berlin.
No. 2—Melody. Rag, R. Birch.
No. 3—Fare Thee, Lizzie Lee Rag C. N. Daniels.
No. 4—Hallowe'en, Jack O'Lantern Rag, A. Manlowe.

"Zoological Gardens of Rome." Two reels of film that are educational, instructive, interesting, amusing and intensely interesting. These are actual, every day scenes in the world's largest and most complete zoo. Reel No. 1 shows unloading of the animals from the train, and also some very strange and curious birds, both land and water species. Then come the elephants and rhinoceros, gazelles, llamas and gnu. No. 2 shows general view of zoo. All kinds of beasts, lions, tigers, seals, kangaroos, giraffes, crocodiles, big snakes and many strange animals with strange names. The bear pits, the lions dens and lakes for water fowl and animals. The pictures contain a vast amount of educational qualities for everyone, every school child should see them.

And then we have three dandy Western reels also.

"Over the Hills." Imp. Delightful comedy drama staged in the Rocky mountains.

"The Bad Man." Bison. Western comedy showing the downfall of a "toro."

"White Fawn's Escape." Bison. Sensational Indian drama taken amid beautiful California scenery.

"Master of the Vineyard." American. Stirring Western story of great dramatic qualities.

Croup Ends Life

Many Children Die of Croup Every Year Before a Doctor Can Be Summoned.

Parents of children should be prepared at all times for a spasm of croup.

Keep in the house a remedy that will give instant relief and keep the child from choking until the arrival of a physician.

Get a 50 cent bottle of HYOMEI today and in case of an attack of croup pour 20 drops into a kitchen bowl of boiling water. Hold the child's head over the bowl so that it can breathe the soothing, penetrating vapor that arises. In the meantime send for a physician.

This treatment has saved the lives of many children and is a precaution that all parents should promptly take. HYOMEI is sold by Tallman & Co. and druggists everywhere and is guaranteed for croup, catarrh, asthma and bronchitis.

The Best Breeds of Jacks!

Before buying it may interest you to know that the best producers are bred and raised right here in Eastern Oregon--it will pay you to investigate.

I have at the Commercial Barn in Pendleton a fine lot of Jacks, acclimated, bred and raised in Eastern Oregon, on the "Eastern Oregon Jack Farm" in Morrow county. These Jacks are of the best breeds and best producers in the United States. Jacks that stand undefeated in the show ring in both Oregon and Washington. They have produced mules that have taken all first and second premiums, with one exception, for the past 13 years. I have been breeding and selling for many years, and can say what no other seller or breeder can truthfully say, that I have never yet sold a Jack that has failed to give satisfaction.

I have with these Jacks the largest yearling mule in the United States. I will pay $500.00 for his equal regardless of color, that will make a mate. This mule was sired by Black Night, Jr., that heads my herd of Jennets, and is also the sire of all my young Jacks under 5 years of age. All prices are right, and all Jacks guaranteed and registered in the Standard Jack Register of America.
