YOUTHFUL ELOPERS SPANKED THEN ALLOWED TO WED

Trenton School Children Decide to Marry, Run Away to New Brunswick, Are Arrested and Sent Back to Cruel Fates.

Trenton, N. J.—Having first suffered the burning indignity of being spanked by their parents, Margaret Esther Reynolds, 15 years old, and Charles Guy Miller, 16, were permitted to wed and are now enjoying their honeymoon under the supervision of the same stern parents who spanked them.

Margaret and Charles were spanked for eloping. There was also the additional motive of discouraging the idea of marriage. But this idea stubbornly refused to be spanked out. The child lovers wailed and wept and wailed to such purpose that their parents were worn down and at last consented to the union. The Rev. J. M. Seerist, pastor of the Broad street Park M. E. church, tied the knot.

The children eloped last week. They were schoolmates at the Centennial public school. The elopement was planned in the school room. Instead of going to school last Thursday morning, they went to New Brunswick.

They had saved enough from their allowance to pay a week's board in advance at a New Brunswick boarding house. They wanted to get married, but feared that an application for a license would reveal their hiding place. The boy was unable to get a job.

A boarder in the house where they lived read about the disappearance of the children and identified the youthful pair. They were arrested and taken home.

CHAMP MIDDLEWEIGHT WRESTLER LOSES OUT

E. J. O'CONNELL LOSES TO KENNEDY OF HERMISTON

Grappler of Sage Brush Keeps 150 Pound Champ Busy Preventing Loss of Title in Fast and Furious Bout.

(Special Correspondence.)

Hermiston, Feb. 5.—The wrestling fans of Hermiston and vicinity have just cause to be proud of their "sage brush" representative of the mat in Jack Kennedy, who Saturday night demonstrated his ability by staying with E. J. O'Connell of Portland for one-hour, after O'Connell had agreed to throw him twice in that time, because of being over weight.

When O'Connell left Portland he told his friends that he was going up to Hermiston to wrestle a "rube" and get some easy money. "He got the loser's end."

The match was supposed to have been at 150 pounds, O'Connell having had considerable experience in matches in small towns, took it for granted that he was going up against a larger man than represented so made no pretension s of making the required weight. Therefore when he found his man had more weight and would not wrestle unless he would give him a handicap there was nothing else for him to do but give it.

The match was beyond question the fastest and classiest bout pulled off in this section of the state. Instead of Kennedy taking the defensive as O'Connell expected, he was the aggressor throughout the bout and had his man in many tight holes. O'Connell made a lot of sport for the audience for about twenty minutes, then he decided to pin his man for the first fall, but, to his surprise when he did open up and show his hand Kennedy was equal to the occasion. From this time on the match was a fine exhibition of skill. Every hold in the category was used by the man but to no avail. Several times it looked bad for Kennedy when O'Connell secured a sissor lock on his head, wrist lever on one of his arms, toe and body holds, grapevine and Nelsons. Had it not been for his superb condition and strength, Kennedy would have succumbed.

Nor was the main bout the only item on the program that was of interest. In the preliminaries Gniwitz and Baty gave a good account of themselves. Gniwitz however, won this match in two short falls. Baty's heavier opponent was a little too much for him.

W. E. Kennedy and O. Seahorn were matched for the second bout and wrestled thirty minutes to a draw the first match with Kennedy seemingly having the better of it. In the second match between these two Seahorn took the aggressive and secured a scissor on the head and hammerlock from which Kennedy was unable to escape and secured the fall in six minutes and thirty seconds.

The 350 fans were well pleased with the evening's entertainment and went their way feeling that they got their money's worth. E. J. O'Connell however went back to Portland feeling somewhat disappointed and nursing his hurt pride. He will no doubt want a return match.

Climbed from Feet to Knees at Wedding When She Sat Down.

New York.—A graphic story of her embarrassing appearance when she attended a wedding in a new dress which climbed up to her knees and then split across the back when she tried to sit down, won a favorable decision for Miss Marie I. Hess, a wealthy St. Louis woman in the third district municipal court in a suit brought by Leonard Cohen, a ladies' tailor of this city to recover an unpaid balance of $31, claimed to be due on the gown.

Miss Hess, who is slender, has a mass of golden hair and large blue eyes, was the principal witness.

"I was waiting for it when delivered," she testified, "and slipped right into it and hurried to a wedding. When it came time for me to sit down it was awful," she declared with a flush.

Pressed to explain, she added:

"It climbed right up from my feet. It seemed as though it would come right up to my waist. I rose and tried to sit again, holding it down at my knees—and, well, judge, it was split, that was all. I had to leave the wedding. So I sent it back with a yard and a half of material to be made more full," she continued, "and—"

"A yard and a half?" gasped the judge.

"It was not all for the hips," explained Mr. Cohen's wife from the audience. "It was to make the whole dress more full."

Miss Hess testified further that she sent the dress back for alteration six times and that when it was finally fixed to fit properly it was out of style.

"She ordered a tight dress and she got it," was Mr. Cohen's complaint.

Miss Hess' mother and friend, Mrs. Margaret Hay, both testified that the skimpiness of the gown had not been exaggerated.

Judge Murray said that Miss Hess need not pay the $31.

WOMEN VOTERS TELL AGE; BALK AT BEING MEASURED

San Francisco, Cal.—Registrar Semansky stated that the problem of securing the ages of women voters is nothing as compared with ascertaining their height. In the first place, his assistants report, many women object to removing their hats, as the office is unprovided with mirrors.

But when hats are removed, the clerks are confronted with the delicate task of making allowances for rats, puffs, switches, not to mention French heels.

Until some new and accurate system is devised the registrar fears a sudden change in styles may invalidate the women's polling lists. Meantime he puts no faith in his measuring machines.

POSTAL BANKS HALT OUTFLOW

Decrease of $6,524,479 in New York International Money Order Business.

Washington, D. C.—International money order business in New York city since the establishment there of postal savings banks showed a decrease of $6,524,479, as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

Postmaster General Hitchcock takes these figures to indicate that foreign born residents are now depositing their surplus money in postal banks instead of sending it abroad.

New York does 90 per cent of the international money order business of the country, and during the month of December last the business decreased nearly $3,000,000.

FIRE WASTE IMPOVERISHES NATION, RISK EXPERT SAYS

Duluth, Minn.—Franklin H. Wentworth of Boston, secretary of the National Fire Protective association, at a dinner given by the Duluth branch of the National Association of Credit Men, spoke on "The Significance of the Fire Rate."

"The fire waste touches the pocket of every individual in the nation," he said. "The prefligate burning every year of $250,000,000 in the value of the work of men's hands means the inevitable impoverishment of the nation."

"I would not like to trust my progeny on a vegetable diet."

"Meat raised and killed under proper conditions, with vegetables and fruit strictly fresh and properly cooked and served, make a combination that should satisfy anyone."

"Yes, it would be my sincere advice to my countrymen: eat meat, let us in future generations become degenerated instead of the highly superior beings we are striving to become."

"I will take orders for a few settings of eggs from my Golden Buff Plymouth Rock chickens that are good winter layers as well as show fowls. Early hatched ones are the most profitable and now is the time to order. W. I. Gadow, Phone Black 2972, or at yards, 213 Bush street."

INDIAN AGENT SLAPS AT CATHOLIC NUNS

Washington.—In a sweeping order aimed directly at the nuns of the Roman Catholic church, Commissioner of Indian Affairs Robert G. Valentine has issued an edict prohibiting teachers in Indian schools from wearing religious or any other kind of insignia or garb while in performance of their official duties as instructors of Indian children.

Many representatives of the Catholic church are thoroughly aroused over the order and propose to carry the matter to President Taft immediately on his return to Washington.

The order was issued privately from Commissioner Valentine's office on the evening of January 27, instead of from the office of Indian affairs, and is prefaced with the statement that there must be no connection between any church and the state.

Valentine's order refers to the guaranteed religious freedom under the constitution, and concludes by notifying all persons engaged in teaching Indians at government schools that if they feel such garb and insignia cannot be given up they must seek employment elsewhere.

It is charged by the representatives of the church that the order was issued by the commissioner of Indian affairs in retaliation for the religious teaching regulations for Indian children issued March 10, 1910, in response to a complaint by the Catholics that protestant were proselytizing among the Indian children of the Catholic faith.

As a result of the regulations then issued the alleged proselytizing among Catholic Indian children has been practically stopped.

VEGETARIANISM IS GIVEN WHACK BY DR. WILEY

"Race Would Deteriorate Without Meat," Says Federal Expert on What to Eat.

Washington.—"I would not like to say what will become of the children of the vegetarian if a purely vegetable diet is persisted in for a number of generations," said Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure-food expert for the government.

"These children might be so changed that the human form would be entirely different than now. I fear it would have a weakening effect upon them mentality and physically.

"A vegetable diet alone is a bad thing for the human race," continued Dr. Wiley. "A certain amount of meat, I believe, is necessary, both as body and brain food, and to answer all the requirements of a human being."

Dr. Wiley, with a twinkle in his eye added:

"I would not like to trust my progeny on a vegetable diet."

"Meat raised and killed under proper conditions, with vegetables and fruit strictly fresh and properly cooked and served, make a combination that should satisfy anyone."

"Yes, it would be my sincere advice to my countrymen: eat meat, let us in future generations become degenerated instead of the highly superior beings we are striving to become."
