IN HOG MARKET

SHOW ADVANCE OF FROM FIVE TO TEN CENTS

Last Week-Cattle Market is Holding Good and Run Liberal-Wheat is Bearish.

(From Monday's Journal.)

There was a more favorable tone in the hog market at North Portland for the day. Tops sold at $6.75, or an advance of 5c to 10c over last week's prices, but there was a better feeling elsewhere.

With best local hogs not bringing above $6.75 and packers continuing to purchase swine at Missoruri river points, the prices here are far out of line with what they should be. On the basis of today's Missouri river market it would cost $7.40 to land hogs at any Pacific northwest packing plant. While the local market is ing plant. While the local market is first. I took three 45c higher than the top at South Omabottles and it made me well and strong ha, it is still 65c under what packers and I avoided a dreadful operation. I paying for the imported goods landed here, and the local quality is considered the best.

There was a run of 586 hogs in the North Portland market today compared with 285 last Monday. The run was entirely confined to the iome territory.

Sheep Market is Strong. There was a strong tone in the sheep trade today. Although buyers continue to look at any offerings of ambs, they are nevertheless taking hold of muttons with much relish. Some stock was sold this morning at North Portland at $4.85 for yearlings but as the stock was sold weighed off cars on the shrink, the filled price NO MORE GAS would not be above $4.75.
