"BLUE BIRD" TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Cora Mel Patten, one of the most gifted literary entertainers in the country will appear at the city hall tonight and will render Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird" a beautiful allegory which appeals alike to adults and children.

In speaking of her the Santa Cruz Sentinel has the following to say: "A slender, graceful figure, of extraordinary personality, came upon the stage, and in a peculiarly deep, melodious voice, addressed the ladies of the club. Her introduction to the play was short, but comprehensive. From the moment Miss Patten spoke of the appropriateness of bringing out 'Jeanne D'Arc' now as the Maid of Orleans was about to be placed in the ranks of the Saints, one felt that she would do justice to McYates' composition, and she did. From the opening scene, where La Purcelle has not yet abandoned her sheep, to the last dark scene in the prison cell, we see and hear this strangely gifted girl pass over the stage as she passed through those three years of her life, Miss Patten's voice is the voice of a singer, and whether La Purcelle really saw the heavenly hosts in shining armor or not, the tones of St. Michael were swaying with the ringing of the bell, and the soft notes of St. Catherine and St. Margaret, are echoed by this reader, as though they had fallen on her own ear. The audience was very appreciative and Miss Patten appeared on the stage again and again in response to continued applause.

NOT EXPLAINS MYRTLE McCULLOUGH'S SUICIDE

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Explaining her suicide recently, in a letter written to Dr. Edmund Suggs and made public today by him, Mrs. Myrtle Reed McCullough, the novelist, says she wanted "a home and a husband and a husband and instead drew a drunken loafer."

The letter in part says: "Teddy, dear, I have at last opened the little door for myself and have gone to the never, never land. I have broken the promise made to you a year ago and have set myself free. It may not be a brave way, but it is the way I must go."
She said she had done the best she could and had failed and then accused her husband as being a drunkard.

Dynamite Cases Continued.
Los Angeles, Feb. 6.—By consent of federal officials and counsel for the accused men, the cases of Tviemo, Johannsen, Clancey and Munsey, indicted in connection with the McNamara dynamitings, will go over until the July term of district court.

DYNAMITE PROBE PROMISES SOME NEW SENSATIONS

Los Angeles, Feb. 6.—What promises to be perhaps a sensational session of the county grand jury, that probed the so-called dynamiting cases, is scheduled to begin this afternoon. Rumors have been confirmed that Ortle McManigal, who has been brought back from Indianapolis, will testify.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

One Drunk in Court.
One drunk, who prefers to be known as John Doe, appeared in police court this morning and pleaded guilty to a drunk and disorderly charge, was fined ten dollars, paid his fine and is now at liberty.

Sues to Collect Notes.
A. A. Cole today commenced suit against Leonard Butt for the collection of four notes and interest alleged to be past due. The notes aggregate $470.50 without the interest. Attorney fees amounting to $100 are asked also. Carter & Smythe are the plaintiff's attorneys.

Brother Killed by Train.
George Ivens, well known drayman, today received a message from Lexington, Nebraska, stating that his brother had been accidentally killed by a train at that place. No details of the sad affair have been received but the fact that his brother was a railroad man leads Mr. Ivens to believe that death came while he was engaged in his regular duties.

"Hop Head" Brought Here.
Marshall Jeff Stevens of Umatilla arrived today and placed G. M. Cohn in the custody of the sheriff. Cohn was arrested in a hotel at Umatilla where he was stopping with a complete opium outfit in his possession and the officers believe him to be a confirmed "hop head." Charges will probably be brought against him in the federal court.

Sewing Day is Changed.
The Catholic sisters in charge of St. Anthony's hospital announce that the weekly sewing day for ladies has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m. All ladies of the city are invited to come to the hospital on those afternoons with their sewing.

Two Marriage Licenses.
The first marriage licenses of the month were issued yesterday afternoon and this morning, Guy De Bois and Bertha O. Graham being the first couple to apply and 'Claud C. Clark and Pearl M. Hendricks the second. The former couple are Pendletonians as is Miss Hendricks but Clark is a resident of Arlington, being a merchant at that place.

Basketball Game is Postponed.
Owing to the many attractions demanding attendance in the city this week, the basketball game between the high school and Commercial club teams has been postponed indefinitely. It was to have been pulled off Thursday night, but inasmuch as the Elks give a smaker that evening, it was decided to wait until a more favorable time.

Noordhoff Won't Run.
Prof. F. K. Noordhoff, formerly of the Pendleton academy in this city and who is now teaching school in Ferndale, in the east end of the county, has announced that he will not be a candidate for the nomination for county school superintendent. Some weeks ago Mr. Noordhoff was considering the idea of seeking the office but apparently has decided not to do so.

Aged Lady Passes Away.
Mrs. Mary Michael, the mother of Mrs. C. H. Beitel, passed away in this city at midnight last night, death being due to old age and coming peacefully. She was aged eighty years and four months at the time of her death. During the past eight years she had lived with her daughter at Pilot Rock and was brought here last November for treatment. Two other daughters and two sons in Chicago also survive her. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock at the Pilot Rock cemetery, Rev. E. W. Warrington officiating.

Elks Get Place in Parade.
The local Elks will occupy a place in the parade at the national convention at Portland will along toward the front, according to an announcement made in a letter to District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Phelps by the grand esquire. The lodges will be stationed according to their number and as the Pendleton lodge bears the number 288, while there are more than 1200 lodges over the country, his arrangement assures the local delegates a place in the first third of the parade.

Does Anyone Know Him?
A dispatch from Chewelah, Washington, tells of a mysterious stranger who gives his name as Joseph Woodward and his home as Pendleton, but although there is a family of Woodwards near Adams, no one around here seems to recall a member by the name of Joseph. The dispatch appears below:

What seemed to be a case of double personality has been baffling the people of Chewelah since last Monday by a man giving his name as Joseph Woodward, who says he came from Pendleton, Ore. He claims to have stopped at Deer Park to visit a sister, but investigation has proved both to be a myth.
Money seems to be no object with the stranger. He put up at the best hotel and spent money with a free hand.

When he ran out of cash he drew on a Pendleton bank which wired that he is unknown to its officials.
He is now at the home of Mark Mitchell in the country, claiming the hospitality on account of being from Missouri, the home state of Mr. Mitchell. He is dressed in a dark suit of clothes, and is about five feet eight inches tall, spare built, appears to be about 65 years of age, although he claims to be over 80.

Every effort is being made to locate his people, but with little hope of success, as his stories are so disconnected. That the man has good connections somewhere is believed here, as his habits and appearances show refinement.

Populist Leader Dies.
Des Moines, Feb. 6.—General James Weaver, soldier, orator and statesman, who, as populist candidate for president, once carried six states, died this afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Evans.

Waiter Inherits Fortune.
San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Last night Norman Carlisle was a waiter in a hotel here but today he is enroute to England to claim a $50,000 estate. A cablegram told him that he was heir of a wealthy aunt who died recently.

WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW.

YES; WE HAVE THEM HOWARD DUSTLESS DUSTERS

Just what you have been needing

The original and only chemically treated duster that DUSTS, CLEANS, and POLISHES, and retains its properties after being washed.
Picks up and retains every particle of dust which it touches. Dust cannot be shaken or beaten out, but can be washed out with soap and water, and washing DOES NOT injure the duster. It is of interest to you because it will do many things better than anything else you have ever seen.

SEE THAT IT BEARS TRADE MARK IN RED.
Try it on your silk skirt or waist and the goods will be left bright, fresh and new in appearance without the injury a brush would cause. For this alone it will save many times its price.
Don't be afraid to wash the DUSTER thoroughly. It holds a great deal of dust and when the limit of its power of absorption has been reached, a mere rinsing in cold water is not sufficient. Clean it well in hot water and soap and it will be as good as new. Accept no imitation.

For polished and Hard Wood Floors, the Dust Mop and Floor Polisher does not have its equal, taking up the dust and polishing the floor at the same time.

WE HAVE A COMPLETE LINE AT THE ADVERTISED PRICES. SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY.
