

Ever rummage around in an old trunk or a drawer of a neglected bureau and find one, two, three or a dozen unexpected treasures? The simile applies to our BIG RUMMAGE SALE. All sorts of treasures here—we, ourselves scarcely know what they are—but they are NOT OLD—chiefly this season's goods which quickly accumulate in a large store. Odds and broken assortments, small lots and remnants that were side tracked behind counters and on high shelves and thus escaped the pleasure of bringing higher prices during our recent clearance sales. All now on Big Rummage tables at a trifling fraction of their real worth. IT WILL PAY YOU TO COME and RUMMAGE AROUND. We can't say just what you will or wont discover, or precisely how much you will save, but every time you find something that "Looks Good" to you and buy it, the saving will be big. Come and see for yourself—that's the only way to find out—you'll be glad you did.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
February 6, 7 and 8.
Announcement extraordinary. We take great pleasure in announcing to the patrons of our theater that we have been able to arrange, at great expense, an exhibition of Selig's greatest moving picture masterpiece, "Cinderella." In three reels with picturedom's greatest star, Miss Mabel Taliaferro, the dainty, diminutive international idol. The production beautiful, pronounced by press and critics everywhere as the crowning triumph of moving picture history. Rich, costly and gorgeous, this production is one of indescribable pictorial magnificence. There are ninety-nine scenes, or over 2000 feet of elaborate settings, superb costumes, perfect photography, wonderful effects and the action is incomparable in its dramatic elegance.

The story is beyond doubt the sweetest ever told—that of Cinderella and her silver slipper—the story that is ever dear to the hearts of old and young alike. Don't fail to see this wonderful picture. Bring the children.
"A Gay Time in Atlantic City" Lubin. Hubbies try to fool wives with a "nervous-breakdown have-to-take-a-rest" yarn. Oh! how foolish are those men who think they can out-wit their wives.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Tuesday's change of program:
"Paid Back." Selig. Single reel feature. The intense dramatic recital of a modern newspaper scoop, founded upon real incidents in the life of one of our great political factors.
"Papa's Sweetheart." Edison. This film is beautifully played and adequately staged. It is sure to make a strong appeal and to win many friends.

"A Bird in the Hand." Essanay. Yes, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. Don't neglect to see this great big comedy scene.
"The Alpine Lease." Kalem. A story of the oil fields and the rescue of his sweetheart. This story is founded on an actual occurrence which happened in the Bakersfield oil region, a few years ago.
Musical program for Tuesday's change:
No. 1—On the New York. New Haven & Hartford. Schottische. A. Von Tzieler.
No. 2—Somewhere's She's Flirting With Someone. Waltz. H. Orlob.
No. 3—On a Junetime Honeymoon. Schottische. M. J. Gideon.
No. 4—Let's Go Out on a Jamboree. Waltz. B. Deely.
No. 5—Every Moment You're Lonesome I'm Lonesome Too. Schottische. J. D. Richmond.

Cosy.
Wednesday and Thursday feature. Ibsen drama, and lots of good comedies.
"Lady from the Sea." Thanhouser. From the powerful dramatic production of Henric Ibsen, a weird, mysterious story so far from the general run of pictures that it stands in a class by itself. All the weird fascination, the witchery, the strange atmosphere of mystery which appear in the original story are enhanced in the film story. A feature film.

"The Kid of Roaring Camp." Champion. A pretty told western child drama of the gold camps that grows sweeter every second till the happy end.
"The Way of the West." American. A rollicking comedy in which the two young folks with the aid of a hired "bad man" taught their respective dads a lesson.
"The Sixfold Duels of Foolhead." Itala. Mr. Foolhead had many challenges to fight duels and conceived the idea of covering himself with electric wires before fighting. The results on the day of the duel are marvelous to behold and very funny.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Today has been recognized by a world wide celebration, since it marks the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens, one of the greatest of the English novelists. His keen sympathy for the poor and suffering; his flaming anger against injustice and cruelty that resulted in so many public reforms; his descriptive power that makes the reader actually see everything he depicts—are traits which make Dickens an unquestioned leader of our modern story tellers.
In honor of the event the library is throwing wide its doors and most cordially inviting every one to join with us this evening in paying tribute to this great man of the literary world. Beginning at eight o'clock there will be a very short program given by the pupils of the high school, in the words of Dickens, "make a note of this."

NEW WIRELESS RECORD.

Fleet at Honolulu Talks to Washington via Mare Island.
Washington.—By way of Mare Island navy yard and Key West, Fla., Admiral Thomas commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet now at Honolulu, was in communication with Washington, the entire distance being covered by wireless messages.

The original message from the Hawaiian Islands was picked up by the wireless tower at Mare Island and relayed across the continent to the wireless station at Key West, which promptly telegrapher it to the Navy Department here. The significant point was that the transmission was effected in daylight over this distance, 2,089 miles from Honolulu to Mare Island and 2,295 miles from Mare Island to Key West.
Heretofore day wireless messages have had a comparatively short range.

MAN BLOWN UP WHILE BLASTING STUMP LIVES

Gervais, Or.—John Adelman while at work on the farm of Peter Pranti, 2 1-2 miles south of Gervais, was seriously injured by a blast of giant powder while blasting out stumps. The fuse had been set and he was waiting for the explosion, when, declining that it had been extinguished, he went to examine it, when the charge exploded, blowing him several feet in the air. He was brought to his home here in a serious condition. The physician says there are no bones broken, and he may recover.

Buys Freewater Fruit Ranch.
Freewater, Ore.—J. H. Helkes of Sunnyside, who recently sold his ranch for $10,500, purchased a fruit ranch at Locust Crossing from A. Avery for $10,000.
