organization of their opponents and as a result, many of the Smith supporters were absent. They, too, had printed ballots, but for some reason or other were not circulated. The anti-Smith slate was nominated by W.
L. Thompson, president of the American National Bank, while Leon Cohen, the well known merchant, led the other contingent and read the list which included the name of Dr.
Smith. In explanation, it must be stated that a number of the candidates were nominated by both factions. In all, thirteen men were placed in the field, as follows: G. M.
Rice, W. L. Thompson, Henry Collins, C. J. Smith, R. Alexander, W.
J. Clark, J. A. Borie, C. M. Bishop, A.
J. McAllister, Leon Cohen, L. G. Frazier, Harry Gray and R. H. Wilcox.

After the vote had been counted it was seen that the anti-Smith men had been unsuccessful, the physician having been elected as the ninth member, though by the narrow margin of four votes, having received a total of 48. Mr. Cohen, before the ballots were cast, had declined to accept a nomination, but 44 con-templary votes were cast for him. G.

M. Rice, president of the First National Bank, received the highest vote of any one member elected, his total being 79.

Brock Declines to Run.

When the nominations for officers were opened, W. E. Brock, who has served as vice president of the organization for the past year, was nominated by A. J. McAllister, but positively declined the honor which would undoubtedly have been accorded him, giving as his very good reason that his connection with the school board and the city council demanded all of the time he could conscientiously spend in public work. He is chairman of the city council.

J. F. Robinson was then placed in nomination by R. Alexander and was unanimously elected. W. J. Clarke placed E. J. Murphy before the association for consideration as vice-president and he was chosen without opposition; F. E. Judd nominated Jack Keefe for re-election to the secretaryship and the club went on record unanimously in favor of him for the office. Royal Sawtelle nominated Roy Ritner to succeed himself as treasurer but the nomination was declined, whereupon Mr. Ritner placed the name of John Dickson before the club and he was chosen without opposition.

Other Business Taken Up.

Following the election of officers, a number of other matters were brought to the attention of the association, notice of which appears in another place in these columns.

birds won two silver cups for Mr.
Williams at Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Wilson and Harvey having made up, Watterson must be madder than ever.

Our Big Sale of Men's Clothes to Continue

FRIDAY and SATURDAY of last week were days of unprecedented selling in this tremendous clothing event. We announced that we were going to reduce stock and would sell our famous A. B. Kirschbaum "Cherry Tree Brand" men's suits below cost in order to accomplish this.

The established reputation of this store's doing just as it advertises brought the people—they found the greatest bargains they were ever offered and as a result, many suits changed ownership.

The Sale is still on. We have Suits for present and spring wear that sold from $12.50 to $20.00—all to go at one price.
