EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Society was interested during the week in the announcement of the engagement of a well known young couple of the city, Mr. and Mrs. John Halley, Jr., having announced the betrothal of their daughter, Paralee, to Mr. Charles W. Meighan. In honor of the bride-elect and by way of making her engagement known to her immediate circle of friends, Miss Genevieve Clark on Wednesday noon gave a delightful luncheon at which the place cards linked the names of the two young people who are to wed in the near future. A pink color scheme in which carnations of that hue were a principal aid, made a beautiful effect as the young ladies sat at the tables. Those at the luncheon besides the hostess and her guest of honor were Mrs. George Strand, Mrs. George La Fontaine, the Misses Bertha Anger, Una Smith, Pauline La Fontaine, Iva Hill, Edna Thompson, Irene Shea, Edna Zimmerman, Mary Shea, Elizabeth Sawtelle, Norma Alloway and Edith Johnson.

Foremost among the society events of the coming week will be the Elks' minstrel show on Thursday and Friday nights, for which a large cast of local talent has been rehearsing for several weeks under the direction of J. E. Keefe, Jr. A large number of the latest song hits have been secured and a number of short sketches have been written especially for the show and it is said that the performances are fated to outline anything of their kind ever undertaken in the city. The purpose of the show is to raise funds to assist in sending a large delegation of local Elks to the B. P. O. E. convention in Portland next summer so that the world may know that Pendleton is fraternally alive as well as commercially.

Announcements were received in the city this week of the marriage of two former popular Pendleton high school students, Harvey McDill and Miss Hazel Means, the nuptials taking place in Portland on Wednesday. The wedding was the culmination of a romance begun early in their high school career. They were both graduated with the class of 1910, the bridegroom being at that time president of the student body and the bride secretary. Since finishing their school work, both have lived away from the city, Mr. McDill having taken charge of the Alberta farm of his father, Joe McDill, and Miss Means having taken up her home in Umatilla with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Means. The happy couple are now taking a short honeymoon trip, after which they will leave for Alberta to live and they will be followed into their new home with the best wishes of their host of friends in Pendleton.

Charles Freeman was made the recipient of a most happy surprise party last night for not only a number of his young friends assembled at the 81 Reetz home where he lives but his mother, Mrs. Sarah Savage, had been induced to come from Spokane and was among the crowd waiting for her unexpecting son when he returned from work about 8:30. The surprise was complete and was the commencement of an evening of thorough enjoyment for which all were indebted to Mrs. Reetz who had carefully planned the affair. Those in the surprise party besides Mrs. Savage were as follows:

Mary Hargrove, Lena Beale, Ethel Odell, Alma and Freda Eggerth, Edna Hogue, Gladys Hayes, Ethel Haw, Gladys and Verna Satterlee, Mrs. Mary Byrd, Daisy McPherson, Fern Harrison, Verna Anibal, Beatrice Byrd, Vesta Boylen, Ethel Freeman, and the Messrs. George Freeman, Walter Freeman, Will Breithaupt, Harvey McPherson, Wade Blue, Irvin Mann, Cleo Straughn, Frank Humphrey and Owen Byrd.

Mrs. E. J. Sommerville was hostess for the Current Literature club at the last regular meeting. Sweden was the subject that furnished a delightful program for the afternoon's diversion. Two little maids in Swedish costume met the guests at the door and assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. The following program was rendered:

A Summer in Sweden: Stockholm, the Lakes, the Gotha Canal, the dance of Mid-Summer Eve. Miss Una Smith.

The Reigning House: The Norfolk, the Royal Palaces, Miss Raley, Court Life and Customs since Bernadotte. Mrs. H. Bickers.

Rise and Fall of Charles XII, "the Madman of the North." Collapse of the Swedish Empire. Mrs. E. T. Wade.

Swedish Folk Songs. (a) When at Seventeen Svenska; (b) Mandom Mod Och Morska Man. Hanson, Mrs. Thomas Vaughan.

At high noon Wednesday occurred a very quiet wedding at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. L. Woodward of Adams, Oregon, when Miss Maxine Elliott of Walla Walla, Wash., and Mr. Claude Wallan of Adams, were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. A. M. Meldrum of Athol, Oregon, officiated. Only members of the family were present owing to the illness of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. C. Wood, who is at present in the Walla Walla Hospital. Miss Elliott who with her mother has been a resident of Walla Walla for the past five years and who is quite popular in society circles, will be missed by her many friends of that city. Mr. Wallan is a prosperous young ranchman, who for the past several years has lived on the Wallan ranch near Adams, Oregon, where the happy young couple will make their future home.

The Young Ladies' Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Strand with Mrs. George La Fontaine and Miss Pauline La Fontaine as hostesses. In the play, Miss Norma Alloway captured the prize for high score. Guests besides the club members were Viola Shea, Mary Shea, Norma Alloway, Mrs. Richard Mayberry and Mrs. Frank Hays.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moorhouse left during the week for Los Angeles where they will remain for several weeks in the hopes of benefitting Mr. Moorhouse's health. Mrs. Roy Alexander and Mrs. Clarke Nelson left for the same city today and will occupy apartments with the Moorhouses for a month.

On Tuesday night Miss Lecl Evans entertained her Sunday school class, "The Upstreamers," composed of about twenty boys. The day being the birthday of Delone Walters, a member of the class, Miss Evans took her guests to his home and gave him a delightful surprise. The evening was very pleasantly spent and was concluded by light refreshments.

Carl Peringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Peringer of this city, who has been tutoring in New York under Prof. Riley, matriculated at Yale on February 5 and is now pursuing his studies at that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Thompson and daughter Thelma, who have been spending the past month in Los Angeles, are en route home and are expected to arrive here within a few days.

Miss Lora Perry's piano pupils were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. E. B. Aldrich at her home on Madison street. A musical program was rendered, among the numbers being a Beethoven symphony by Miss Perry and Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt.

Miss Flossie Penland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Penland, is entertaining a number of her young friends at her home this afternoon in celebration of her birthday.

Mrs. James A. Cooper was hostess to two tables of bridge on Thursday evening at her home on the south hill and an enjoyable evening was spent at play.

That society will turn out en masse in its best humor and proudest toilettes on Tuesday evening next, to attend the annual library ball is a foregone conclusion. Everything is being done by the committees in charge to make it the most attractive function of the kind ever given in Pendleton, the tickets are selling rapidly, every one being more than willing to help along the good cause for which the ball is to be given. Below are the names of the ladies who are acting as patronesses. Mrs. William F. Matlock, Mrs. James A. Fee, Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy, Mrs. T. C. Taylor, Mrs. James Kennedy, Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Edwin P. Marshall, Mrs. Norbourne Berkeley, Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. Frank Frazer, Mrs. Fleck, Mrs. Robert Forster.

On the afternoon of February 8, the members of the Thursday afternoon club celebrated their twenty-second anniversary of their organization as a club. The function was of the nature of a Kaffeeklatsch, supplemented by an impromptu program by the members. The principal feature of the afternoon was the interesting address made by the president, Mrs. Thomas C. Taylor which was listened to with much pleasure. After a Round Table talk on the past year's work and the making of plans for the future, the affair terminated by the members wishing each other "many happy returns of the day."

Miss Fay Warren, of Weston, is spending the week-end with her sister, Miss Viva Warren, 300 South Main street.

A $350 Watch.
A notable event in the history of watch manufacture in America is the announcement of the E. Howard Watch Works of a new watch that will sell for $350. The watch is named "Edward Howard" in honor of the founder of the American watch industry, whose most sanguine hopes and labors will doubtless find full fruition in this exclusive timepiece. In referring to this watch Royal Sawtelle, the jeweler, says that the watch buying public is demanding more and more a higher standard of watches. The Howard is used so very much for presentation purposes, as a present to a young man graduating from school or as a parental gift to the son on his twenty-first birthday.

THROWS PLATES AT THREE.
Woman Drives Burglar From Church and Saves Communion Silver.
New York.—An armful of plates hurled at a masked burglar by Mrs. Mildred Wolf, while not preventing the man from knocking her unconscious, sounded an alarm that brought help, frightened the burglar away, and saved the German Apostolic church in Harlem, from being robbed of $1,000 worth of communion silver.

On discovering the burglar in the Sunday school room of the church, of which she is janitress, Mrs. Wolf loaded up her arms with crockery as ammunition, opened the door, and let fly. Two men, working in another part of the building, heard the crash of falling plates, but arrived on the scene only to find the burglar gone and the pantries stretched on the floor unconscious.
"I hit him," Mrs. Wolf said when she was revived, "but couldn't stop him. He hit me with a crowbar."

BARRE MEETS WITH MISHAP.
Critical Condition Result of Accident With Buttonhook.
Santa Clara, Calif.—The 10-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson of Cupertino is in a critical condition at its home at that place. The child, while playing, got hold of a buttonhook which she placed in her mouth. The end got caught under its tongue and the tongue was almost torn from the mouth. Owing to the excessive loss of blood the child's condition is very serious.

28—Mules—28.
By public auction at McBride's barn, Athens, Ore., Wednesday, February 14, at 1:30 p. m., 28 head of mules, 4 and 5 years, Oregon bred, choice stock. No culls, 1000 to 1200 pounds, halter broke, in good condition. Terms, 8 months on approved notes at 8 per cent, or 3 per cent off for cash. Fred Eifert, auctioneer; D. C. Sanderson, clerk; Sam Wade, owner.

In Society.
"Hello! Hello! Central! Give me my husband."
"What number?"
"Oh, the fourth, if you must know, you impertinent thing!"—Judge.
Do not teach your child what you want; teach it what it needs.

Pet Wolf Roams Streets.
New York.—A young wolf, born in Wyoming and reared in Williamsburg now runs wild through the city streets every day.

He may be shot some day because of some Western idiosyncrasy or may live to die a natural death, but just now he is allowed to roam as he will with his friends—all the children he meets.

Any day he may be seen playing with the children in the streets and he looks so much like a dog that the children do not know the difference.

John Schveck of 31 South Third street, Williamsburg, received the wolf by express from a friend in Wyoming seven months ago. From a cub the animal grew rapidly and as he seemed tamer than some of the dogs of the neighborhood Schveck allowed him his freedom.

The wolf gets along splendidly with the children, but he doesn't like dogs.

Woman's Happiness

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an oily emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

NOT SALTS, OIL OR PILLS BUT CASCARETS

No Odd, How Sick Your Stomach; How Hard Your Head Aches or How Billious—Cascarets Make You Feel Great.

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—no good—never gripe or sicken.

Diseases caused by a sedentary life can be avoided by walking away from it.
