BOSTON BULL ROBS BANK OF $1000, LONG CHASE RESULTS

Atlantic City, N. J.—Muggins, a prize Boston bulldog, owned by R. P. Taylor, a contractor, successfully engineered a bold bank robbery here, getting away with $1000 for awhile.

He trotted into the Atlantic City National bank at the heels of Taylor. While his master was transacting business with the cashier Muggins nosed open the door and entered the cage.

The cashier chanced to knock a packet containing ten $100 bills from the counter. The dog evidently thought it was tossed to him, for he pounced upon the roll, gripped it in his teeth and trotted blithely out into the street before the cashier recovered himself.

Bank clerks and pedestrians gave chase and Muggins playfully eluded capture for an hour, when the money was recovered.

GIRL AMAZES JUDGE WHEN SHE TELLS HER REAL NAME

Chicago, Ill.—The identity of the possessor of probably the longest name in Chicago came to light in Judge William E. Dever's court. A girl, 15 years old, is the possessor, and her name is Harbertunninnibertunna Pillow.

The girl was the complaining witness against Frank Alexander, 25 years old, who was charged with having attempted to attack her. His case was continued indefinitely.

"What is your name?" asked Judge Dever, when the girl stepped before the bench.

"Harbertunninnibertunna Pillow, sir," she said.

"What's that?" queried the court. "Spell that."

The girl did, with ease. "That's a pretty long name," responded the court.

"When your parents or friends address you, do they call you by your first name?" asked the court, with a puzzled frown.

"Sometimes they do," she answered "but for short they call me Harbertunni."

The court continued the hearing of the charges.

P. O. HAWK MEETS HIS FATE.

No Longer Feeds on Pigeons, But Adorns Hitchcock's Office.

Washington.—All that remains of the post office department hawk, which for a long time depended for its existence on the dainty meat of the hundreds of pigeons gathered on the clock tower of the building is a gentle reminder that even the most strenuous sometimes come to grief.

Mr. Hawk now occupies a place in Postmaster-General Hitchcock's private office. He met his death two weeks ago. He had been sentenced a year ago to be shot and finally the janitor hit him.

GROOM AND BRIDE MEET FIRST TIME IN 40 YEARS

Newark, Ohio.—Mark Ames of Newton Falls, Trumbull county, Ohio and Mrs. Jeanette Hays of this village were married here at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Helen Lewis. The bridegroom is 83 years of age and the bride is 77.

Ames was formerly a business man at Warren, Ohio, and served in the Ohio state legislature for four terms.

He and the bride had not seen each other for forty years. Their families were formerly very friendly, however. The death of Mrs. Ames a year ago left him alone. Hays died eight years ago.

Last November Mrs. Hays wrote to Ames. He replied promptly and one of his sentences substantially was: "If you were here I believe I would marry you this minute." This paved the way for the ceremony. The couple left for Cleveland and will go to their home at Newton Falls.

24 BOYS TO ATTEND RELIGIOUS MEETING

PENDLETON TO SEND A DELEGATION TO WALLA WALLA

Contributions to Fund to Cover Expenses, Are Liberal and Many Fathers Will Send Their Sons—Call Has Been Issued.

Fully twenty-five boys of this city will be sent to Walla Walla to attend the convention of the Men and Religious Forward Movement worker next week, so generous has been the response of individual citizens to the request for financial aid. According to Supt. J. S. Landers, one of the members of the committee appointed from the Commercial association for the purpose of soliciting funds, contributions have been made quite freely while a number of men have signified their intention of sending their own boys to the convention.

The convention will be divided into two parts, the meetings on Wednesday and Thursday of next week being devoted to men and those on Friday and Saturday to boys.

Pastors of local churches have received copies of a call just issued by John Gibson, chairman of the Walla Walla committee which is taking charge of the convention. It reads as follows:

"As Chairman of the Committee of One Hundred of the Men and Religious Forward Movement, and on behalf of the committee, it is my privilege to extend a 'call' to the Christian men of southeastern Washington and eastern Oregon, both ministers and laymen, to meet in Walla Walla for two days, Wednesday and Thursday, February 21 and 22, to launch the movement in the district allotted to us. This gathering already promises to be one of the most notable in the religious history of the Northwest.

"The movement has taken tremendous hold in other parts of our country. Cities and rural communities all over the country are organized and at work. The Northwest both needs and deserves for her men and boys the best the movement can afford. Let us get together during the days of this convention and organize and equip ourselves to personally present the claims of Jesus Christ and His church to every man and boy in our territory during the coming months.

"It is our hope and prayer that every church to which this 'call' is sent will be represented in this convention by from five to twenty-five of its strongest men."

This convention will be a part of the nation-wide Men and Religious Forward Movement. Walla Walla is one of the seventy-six centers in the United States in which conventions will be held, and from which the influence of the movement will radiate.

In these centers eight-day campaigns will be conducted by leaders of national reputation in church work. The two convention days are a part of the eight-day campaign, and a special program, complete in itself, is arranged for these days.

Among those who will address the convention are the following:

Yutaka Minakuchi, a distinguished Japanese orator of remarkable ability, on Missions.

James A. Whitmore, active, alert A man who has been remarkably successful in boy's work.

Chas. R. Drum, the business-man type of evangelist. Stands next to Fred B. Smith as a speaker to men.

Isaac J. Lansing, active in reform work; a municipal and civic expert. Dr. Lansing represents the social service phase of the work.

W. C. Pearce, of the International Sunday School association. A successful lawyer, but who recently has devoted himself to Bible study.

David Lathaw, a man who has been remarkably successful in Community Extension work.

EDITOR MAY SPRING TRAP.

Oklahoma Sheriff Will Deputize Newspaper Man if Negro Hanged.

Edgar, editor of the Oklahoma City Times and recently of St. Joseph, Mo., will be commissioned by Sheriff Bart Murphy of this county to spring the trap in case Governor Lee Cruise's final word is that Governor Brown, the Crescent township negro shall hang here for the murder of Robert L. Burks near Crescent last July. Cruise has postponed the hanging until March 15.

According to Sheriff Murphy, Mr. Edgar has been very insistent in his paper that the negro should hang.

HEALTHY MOTHERS

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

On the contrary, Sheriff Murphy firmly believes that Brown is of unsound mind and should be given life imprisonment. Murphy said: "The newspapers may announce that I will deputize Mr. Edgar to hang Brown if the time comes when that act is necessary."

There are only two ways to check the extravagance of the girl you are engaged to. Either break off the engagement or marry her.
