AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

1. "A Terrible Discovery." Biograph. Taunted by the gang over the conviction of his brother by the district attorney, Dick swears to make the attorney suffer. His plan is a novel one, which might have succeeded but for the daring of the lawyer's ten year old son. This subject is not only a thrilling production, but is also most logical.

2. "Dad's Smash Up." Pathe. A grouchy old father refuses to let his daughter marry the man of her choice. He intercepts a note from her to her sweetheart, making an appointment in the park. Dressing himself in his daughter's clothes, he goes to keep the appointment. Be sure and see what happens to him.

3. "Love Decides." Lubin. A strong story, dealing with the marriage of May and December. The young wife is sorely tempted to desert her home, but is prevented at the crucial moment through the potent power of love.

4. "Teaching McFadden to Waltz." Vitagraph. This picture is full of motion. McFadden does many a funny turn and gives us all a jolly good time.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. A classy program for Tuesday's change.

No. 1. "A Romance of Wall Street." Vitagraph. Featuring "Ma-urice Costello." The villain "bears the market." Love comes to the assistance of the hero and induces "her" god-father to "bull" it. The hero lands his pile, defeats the villain and wins the girl. It is exciting.

No. 2—"The Other Fellow, Selig. A side-splitting comedy of mistaken identity. The actress not knowing of Jack's marriage, wants to renew their acquaintance, and writes him a note to that effect which causes a lot of trouble between Jack and his wife.

No. 3. "Between Father and Son." Kalem. A Spanish love story. A thrilling romantic drama told in old Spanish California.

No. 4. "Hutchinson, Kas. Semi-Centennial Celebration," Selig. Educational. Showing close-up, intimate views of interesting events.

No. 5. "Swat the Fly." Essany. An uproariously funny subject.

No. 6. "A Hungry Pair." Essany. Musical program; Spanish selections:

No. 1. Perjura—Spanish dance.

No. 2. Quand L'Annour Reffleurit.—(When love returns) Waltz.

No. 3. Zacetecas—March.

No. 4.—National Airs of Mexico—Medley.

Cosy.

For Monday and Tuesday.

"The Eastern Cowboy." American. A delightful western comedy as sweet as love's young dream, light as a cream puff, sparkling as a brook and with a strong current of fun that is irresistibly pleasing.

"The Actress." Majestic. A magnificent drama. The actress receives word that her child is seriously ill and though torn with grief she must go on and take a comedy part. This calls for acting of tremendous power. The method of administering oxygen to the sick is also shown in this gripping story.

"Bonnie of the Hills." Champion. Parted from her sweetheart Bonnie leaves her western home and later is restored to her heart's choice by an act of great bravery. Pretty little story froth as mountain dew.

"A Young Squaw's Bravery." Bison. A stirring western, staged in a beautiful scenic country, showing some clever feats of bare-back riding, and some lively battles between the Indian warriors.

UMATILLA BEES ARE DISEASED

The United States Department of Agriculture calls attention to the fact that American fowl brood has been found to exist in Umatilla county. The department has no means of knowing how long the disease has existed in the region, but desires to notify bee keepers of the trouble and to suggest that, if not already informed concerning the disease, they inform themselves at once. Very frequently colonies of bees are destroyed by diseases and the loss is attributed by the bee keepers to some other cause. Farmers' Bulletin No. 442. The Treatment of Bee Diseases, gives a description of the brood diseases and methods of treatment. It will be sent free on request to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Attention is also called to the fact that the brood diseases do not at all injure honey for human consumption, so that there need be no fear on the part of purchasers of honey.

MILTON TO HAVE A PRECOOLING STATION

Freewater, Ore.—At a meeting held in the offices of the Milton-Freewater Fruitgrowers' union a large number of the fruitgrowers discussed the advisability of erecting a pre-cooling station.

D. F. Pratt of the department of agriculture was present and announced that if a proper building could be secured the government would establish a pre-cooling station here for experimental purposes.

The great waste in shipping fruit is due to the fact that the fruit goes into the cars in a heated condition and the consumption of ice while the fruit is in transit is very heavy. The pre-cooled fruit would go to the cars at the proper temperature, thus insuring it reaching its destination in a much better condition.

The directors will take up the matter and come to a decision at a meeting to be held during the week.

ANGRY FORTY YEARS; DEATH FAILS TO HEAL TROUBLES

Kansas City, Mo.—Death's hand could not break the compact of enmity entered into nearly forty years ago by John and Joseph Medley, according to a verdict by a federal court jury here denying Joseph the right to participate in his brother's estate.

After a quarrel back in the '70s, the Medleys parted, announcing they would not speak to each other again.

Joseph went to Pennsylvania. When John died here five years ago, leaving his estate of $20,000 through a verbal will to his landlady, Mrs. Elizabeth Foley, Joseph filed a contest. The jury awarded the estate to Mrs. Foley.

GET EARLY LAMBS AT ECHO, OREGON

Echo, Ore.—Lambing on hay is going on briskly here. Joe Cunha is lambing a large band of sheep on his home ranch near here. Antonio Vey is also lambing on hay at his Butter Creek ranch. In speaking of this early lambing on hay, Messrs Cunha and Vey say that while it is expensive and the risk of saving the lambs is great, the extra size and early lambs for market pay them well.

TAFT'S MANAGER CLAIMS ROOSEVELT AIDS PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—"Theodore Roosevelt has done President Taft's campaign much good. He has concentrated the progressive support and is not a candidate." This statement was made today by Congressman McKinley, one of President Taft's campaign managers, in an interview on the attitude of Colonel Roosevelt toward the fight for the republican presidential nomination.

"When it becomes apparent that Roosevelt is not a candidate," said McKinley, "you will find the progressives voluntarily supporting President. I'm now trying to harmonize the party."

EACH HOG TAIL BITTEN OFF.

Fifty Animals Owned by a Farmer Strangely Afflicted.

Hagerstown, Ind.—Representative Lee J. Reynolds, living near this place, is having a new experience with a pen of fifty hogs. Dr. Clark, a veterinarian, and Dr. Scetelmyer, the health officer here, were called to see the hogs and both are puzzled.

The animals froth at the mouth, some seem to be paralyzed, and none will eat. The tail of each hog has been bitten off. The doctors say the hogs show symptoms of both hydrophobia and poison.

CROW FALLS ON HER HAT.

New York.—Next time Miss Ruby Allen, a Valhalla schoolgirl, buys a hat there will be no lace on it, or net, either. At least she said so herself upon dislodging a crow which fell in the meshes of her hat and caught there as she was leaving Bronxville depot. Miss Allen spun around hysterically until the crow weighed itself free and departed with most of the trimmings.

The spokesman of protection and privilege are greatly worried about Governor Wilson's progressive record.

DR. SARGENT OF HARVARD TELLS OF TRANSCONTINENTAL MIKE OF THE BUFFUM BROTHERS.

Cambridge, Mass.—Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, physical director of Harvard, has declared the cross-continent walk by John and Warren Buffum one on a meat diet and the other on a non-meat diet, a draw, with the vegetarian a shade ahead because he finished in better condition. Warren was found on his arrival at Los Angeles to have gained 12.7 pounds, while John added 11.2 pounds and traveled the last 300 miles on a railway train.

"The matter of the diet has proved nothing at all to me," said Dr. Sargent. "Why?" Well, it must be borne in mind that Warren Buffum, before the trip began, was stronger, organically than his brother, besides being a little heavier. It was because Warren was the stronger that I suggested the vegetable diet for him, as I thought that if either weakened it would be the man who was deprived of meat. My own experiments have convinced me of this.

"Also it must be remembered that Warren did not confine himself to vegetables wholly. He was allowed cheese, eggs and milk, all of which come under the head of meaty foods.

"On the face of it it appears that the vegetable diet was the more successful, but in reality they both gained greatly by the trip and Warren's slightly greater gain may be ascribed to his advantage over his brother in physical condition at the start.

"However, there was a great change in the condition of the men. While both were sound and healthy at the start the close of their walk found them in a vastly better condition. What the trip did prove beyond any question is that systematic exercise more than anything else gives vigor and strength to the body. Let any man or woman eat good, wholesome food, including meat, and take exercise regularly by walking a certain number of miles a day and there will be the same result of gaining in strength, weight and health."

MARQUIS OF QUEENSBERRY RUINED BY SHARKS

Has Already Paid More Than $1,000,000 to the Insurers and They Claim for More.

London.—The Marquis of Queensbury, against whom a petition in bankruptcy was entered has sent a written statement explaining why his former tremendous fortune and the estate of his ancient family have passed to other hands, indicating, also, why he has chosen to make America his permanent home. The document is also remarkable in its revelations concerning the death and estate duties of England, especially when the wealthy die. The Marquis says:

"I borrowed during my father's lifetime some $125,000 from two insurance companies, the North British and the Imperial, the latter now merged with a company controlled by the Rothschilds. Five years later my father died and I had to pay $600,000 estate duties; also $120,000 to my younger brother, Lord Alfred Douglas; $100,000 for my mother's annuity, and to my grandfather $15,000.

"My father left me $1,200,000 and Scotch lawyers took two years to realize on the estate, all stocks and shares, which could have been done in a fortnight.

"All this time I was paying 7 per cent to the insurance companies on the $125,000 and was simply so cut to pieces that again I had to resort to the money lenders.

"In the two years while the estate was being adjusted I got into their hands and for eleven years since my father's death they have tortured me with extracting usury at from a hundred to two hundred per cent accumulations on loans. I shall refuse to pay any more.

"I have in my lifetime paid money lenders over $1,000,000 at enormous rates and they still want to make me bankrupt, although my total liabilities are now only $10,000.

"The bankruptcy court in England is nothing but a debt collecting agency for money lenders. No one else will ever use it. I can and will pay if they let me alone, but I am not going to take the bread out of my children's mouths to do so."

COMFORTABLY SEATED, MAN WAITS DEATH BY TRAIN

Drain, Or.—Northbound train No. 18 the Roseburg local, killed a man at a point about two miles north of here. The man had been seen going southward along the track and evidently stopped to rest having placed his roll of bedding on one of the rails of the track and sat down upon it. Four eye witnesses of the occurrence say that the engineer of the train blew the whistle vigorously but that the man paid no attention except to

ROOSEVELT HUNTING TROPHY MAKES A BRIDE HYSTERICAL

Washington, Feb. 12.—Opening a package containing a wedding present from Colonel Roosevelt, Mrs. Walter Howe, a leader of the younger social set, dropped it and screamed as the Natron croup, which she had secured from Colonel Roosevelt was hunting in Africa. The news of the gift was suppressed.

Powder Magazine Explodes.

New York, Feb. 12.—With a report heard for ten miles, a powder magazine on the government proving grounds at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, exploded this morning. Flying sparks from embers of a small fire were the cause. Five hundred soldiers at the garrison escaped injury.

WHAT'S A TURKEY? QUICK.

Government Official Needs Immediate Information on Subject.

Bend, Ore.—Under what classification of livestock does a herd of turkeys come?

This is the question which is puzzling J. Roy Harvey, supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest, who thinks he is the recipient of the most extraordinary application for a grazing permit on record.

A turkey rancher who owns a tract of land near Lapine, Ore., has asked the supervisor to grant a permit for his herd of 1200 turkeys to graze on the grasshoppers said to thrive in the reserve.
