AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
 Vitagraph feature for Sunday and Monday.
 1. "Testing His Courage." Vitagraph. There's nerve tissue and red blood in this picture that gives it a stir and whirl of delightful and continuity of interest. Tales of a western terror do not phase an eastern chap. To test his courage a girl impersonates the terror, who meets her in disguise and she is saved from his embrace by the easterner, who gets the drop on him and puts him in the "cooler."
 2. "A Timely Lesson." A married man who had become infatuated with a handsome widow and believes that he no longer loves his wife and child, is brought to his senses through the

IOWA WOMAN WELL AGAIN

Freed From Shooting Pains, Spinal Weakness, Dizziness, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my health."—Mrs. HARRIET E. WAMPLER, 524 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider Well This Advice.
 No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.
 This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
 If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

instrumentality of his wife's brother, who causes him to suffer the same heartaches he had inflicted upon his wife.

3. "The Fire Brigade in Moscow." Pathe. A thrilling picture of the work done by these fire fighters.
 4. "The Fight." Pathe. The situation of this remarkably strong photograph is human and very intense. It is very truly a picture of a fight and is a picture well worth seeing.
 5. "The First Man." Essanay. There is an ingenious plot, excellent acting and splendid stage management in this comedy. It will cause ripples, torrents, floods of hearty laughter.

The Pastime.
 The home of good pictures. A classy program for Sunday's change "Evangeline." Selig. The beautiful story of Evangeline is probably as well known and as dearly loved as was its poetic creator. Henry W. Longfellow. With a pathetic charm that brings a sob to the throat of its auditor, we are told the story of two young Arcadian lovers—Evangeline, the beautiful, and Gabriel, son of Basil, the blacksmith.
 "His Exoneration." Lubin. A western story of love and strife, beginning in the east. Choek full of action. Plot skilfully woven and the love feature especially good.
 "The Vitagraph Monthly of Current Events." Showing things as they happened and how they are done. First we see the New York city mounted police in their annual parade. Next comes "Hello, Bill!" the B. P. O. E., who now pass before us in magnificent regalia. This picture of panoramic splendor will be hailed with delight. The Boy Scouts are shown giving us an exhibition drill and many other features too numerous to mention.

"Ho Who Laughs Last." Kalem. A rollicking Western comedy, presenting a bunch of American (Kalem) beauties.
Cosy.
 Friday and Saturday's program looks good on paper. It looks better on the screen.
 "The Cattlemen's War." Bison. A fierce war started over one little calf. See the genuine round-up and branding. Sensational riding, desperate battles, a drop or two of love and finally peace and happiness. A feature. Western.

"When First We Met." Powers. If ever you went swiping apples in childhood days you'll like this sweet little kid story.
 "The Musician's Daughter." American Eclair. A feature picture with real sentiment expressed in every scene. A story that grips the heart strings. Simply a "better picture."
 "Mutt and Jeff and the Black Hand." Nestor. They saw dreams of glittering wealth via the black-mail route, but alas! the end was a nightmare. Its a snappy, lively funmaker.
 "The Telltale Parson." Powers. Comedy of a village deacon, a runaway horse, an unexplained parol and a jealous wife.
 "Romance and Uppercuts." Nestor. Country comedy with a little love and lots of fighting.
 "Coming! Great two-reel submarine feature, "From the Bottom of the Sea." It's an Imp—nothing more need be said.

At The Grand.
 Friday and Saturday.

 The Foolishness of Jealousy, a Vitagraph film, the same old story, the wife thinks her husband is in love with his stenographer.
 In connection with our splendid motion picture program, Miss Francis Dainty and company, novelty slack wire and bicycle artists, Miss Francis Dainty and company has been one of the feature acts with Ringling Bros. circus for the past season. They will March 9th on the steamer Sierra to do an engagement in Honolulu and, going from there to China and Japan, continuing on to Australia and New Zealand.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health. As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

WRITES WITH HIS TEETH.

Man Without Arms Gives Legal Proof of Signature.
 Pottsville, Pa.—Frank J. Dotterweich of Pato Alto outwitted the officials of the Schuylkill county recorder's office when he swore that his signature had been affixed by himself to a legal document executed before Justice of the Peace John J. O'Connor, although he has neither hands nor forearms.
 In a railroad accident some years ago Dotterweich fell beneath the wheels of his train and had both his arms severed.
 To verify his statement the cripple gave a demonstration of his prowess with the pen, which he held between his teeth.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
