

SOCIETY

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Society is just now concluding its pre-Lenten season and the few days which yet lapse before the commencement of the period of abstinence will be crowded with social events. The past week too, has told of the approach of the time of quietness and meditation for hardly a day or a night has passed that has not been marked with some social function. The Library Ball, the two performances of the Elks' minstrel, a masquerade and many affairs of lesser note have kept society folk busily occupied and with the second of the series of the Terpsichorean club announced for Monday night and several parties planned for Monday and Tuesday, there will be little rest before Wednesday, when Lent begins.

An event of interest for the coming week will be the appearance of the O. A. C. Glee and Mandolin Club at the Oregon theatre Thursday evening, February 22. Following the glee club program which is to end at 10 o'clock an informal reception will be tendered the members of the club by the members of the Umatilla County O. A. C. Alumni association. It will be held at the Eagles-Woodmen hall and two hours will be given to dancing. A general invitation is extended to music lovers and dancers of the city to attend the reception in honor of the visiting students. The Glee club program promises to be a very pleasing event for those who love good music. The club comes highly recommended and those who have attended performances already given declare it is entitled to the high praises being bestowed.

- The club carries no vaudeville performers and the following program which was recently rendered at Corvallis shows the nature of the entertainment.

Miss Lecl Evans entertained a number of her friends at her parsonage home last Wednesday evening at a Valentine party. The color scheme was red and white and the parlors were prettily decorated with hearts and Japanese lanterns. Games were played appropriate to the evening, one of the amusing features being the use of the old fashioned bow and arrow to pierce a gentleman's heart. Refreshments in the prevailing colors were served at a late hour. The invited guests were Misses Maud Maxwell, Lillian Holman, Lotta Fleck, Lula George, Goldie McElroy, Margaret Lowell, Grace Oliver, Audrey Hunter, Lavelle Rugg and Mrs. I. U. Temple Messrs Albert Lee, Archie Rugg, Alfred Christensen, Walter Owen, Reuben Beckwith, Leo Haw, Louis King, C. C. Ruth, A. A. Ashbar and Dr. I. U. Temple. Miss Grace Rugg assisted the hostess.

In honor of Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen (Miss Adele Goff) of Athens, who has been her guest during the week, Miss Una Smith entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home, 313 Chestnut street. Bridge was played, Miss Jennie Perry capturing the trophy for high score. At the conclusion of a most enjoyable afternoon, the hostess served light refreshments. The following were included in Miss Smith's guest list: Mrs. McEwen, Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs, Mrs. Merle R. Chessman and the Misses Katherine Campbell, Edna Zimmerman, Elizabeth Sawtelle, Edna Thompson, Edna Stella Jennie Perry, Pauline La Fontaine, Mary Shea, Paralee Halby, Iva Hill, Rybil Clifton and Genevieve Clark.

On Tuesday evening Miss Poston and her Clara class of the high school will present a Latin play, "Matrium Romanum" (A Roman Wedding) in the assembly room of the high school building and considerable interest is being aroused in society circles over the approaching event. The cast will include a large number of students who have been carefully drilled to enact their parts and it is said that they accomplish their purpose so well that the piece has a very distinct antique flavor.

Mrs. G. I. La Dow and Mrs. Adolph L. Schaefer were hostesses for the Thursday Afternoon club on February 14. A most delightful musical program was given. Mrs. W. E. Pruitt read a paper on "German Songs and Song Writers" from the time of the early German folk-songs down to the Wagnerian period. The musical numbers as given below, were interspersed in the reading of the paper.

- Irene La Dow—Folk Songs—

The second of the series of dances planned by the Terpsichorean club will be held Monday evening of the next week.

Mrs. J. R. Dickson attended the production of "Elijah" by the Whitman conservatory of music on Thursday evening.

It was a most brilliant gathering that assembled in the Eagle-Woodman hall on Tuesday evening to contribute to the success of the annual Library Ball and the occasion will hold a place in the memories of those attending once for long. Ladies, a host of them, garbed in magnificent tributes to the skill and taste of the modiste, flitted about the hall lending a kaleidoscopic change of color to a scene made beautiful by an elaborate decoration scheme. Hearts were used in a red profusion emblematic of the Valentine event and the effect was a most beautiful one. The music by the seven piece United Orchestra was never better at any dance ever held in the city and the large number of spectators in the balcony enjoyed it fully as much as did the dancing throng. During the evening refreshments were served to the guests, punch being given to the thirsty ones from the alcove while coffee, sandwiches and cake were served up stairs. The ladies presiding in the punch room were the Mesdames George A. Hartman, Jr., T. M. Henderson, E. P. Marshall, John Halley, Jr., Thomas Thompson, Ben S. Burroughs, F. E. Livengood, Adolph Schaefer, G. I. La Dow, E. T. Wade and William McKinney. Pouring the hot beverage were the Mesdames Mary La Dow, Mary J. Lane, H. B. Johnson, R. Alexander, E. J. Somerville, T. M. Starkweather, George H. Clark, Lee Moorhouse, H. E. Bickers, H. D. Jones, James Johns, J. F. Robinson, Thomas Vaughan, I. U. Temple, Will Moore, Charles Bonney, J. E. Jerard, E. T. Wade and the Mesdames Adna Hiley and Una Smith. Mrs. J. F. Robinson and Mrs. Norbourke Berkeley acted as committee in charge of the refreshments. Patronesses of the events included Mesdames William F. Mallock, James A. Fee, C. F. Colesworthy, T. C. Taylor, James Kennedy, A. J. McAllister, W. L. Thompson, F. E. Judd, J. R. Dickson, C. P. Bishop, Edwin P. Marshall, Norbourne Berkeley, G. M. Rice, Frank Frazier, Robert Forster and Miss Lotta Fleck. Responsible for the beautiful decorations were the Mesdames A. C. Hampton, G. W. Phelps, Nesmith Ankeney, R. E. Ringo, W. C. E. Pruitt, J. P. Winter, and Laura D. Nash. Frank Frazier acted as floor manager during the evening and much of the enjoyment of the affair is attributed to the manner in which he conducted the festivities.

TALENTED ORGANIZATION WHICH APPEARS AT OREGON THEATRE THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22ND.

FROM THE TROPICS TO HEAL US.

In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedron Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article. This country is a large consumer of this costly seed because it enters into the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna, sold the world over.
