AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Swell program for Tuesday's change.

1. "The Freshet." Borne by an irresistible force of circumstances, two souls are separated and brought together again. Through the bursting of a dam the child of a widowed mother is carried into the flood and rescued by the village blacksmith, who was jilted by his mother when she married his father. The widow and the blacksmith are reconciled and united in marriage.
2. "The Better Man." Melles. Dorla cannot decide which of two suitors to accept, so devises a novel plan to test which is the better man. It's a race, but contrary to convention, the last proves first and wins the prize.
3. "The Revenue and the Girl." Kalem. A stirring drama of the Kentucky mountains. Love finds a way to overcome a hated enemy. One sensation follows another in this picturesque story.
4. "The Scheme that Failed." Lubin. Dick Birch and Harry Blake were "hall room" boys who decided to become detectives. It's a bully comedy, tingling with action. Don't miss it.
5. "Cement Rock Blasting." Lubin. Explosion of 8 1-2 tons of dynamite in one blast is a feature of this industrial film. The blast moved 50 tons of solid rock.

The Pastime.

The home of Good pictures. Tuesday's new program follows:
"The Ventriloquist's Trick." Vitagraph. Packed with loads of fun and a host of funny people. You can't keep the lid down. It fairly bursts with laughter. It takes you right into its spell and throws you into a fit of laughter that you can't overcome until the picture closes.
"Bill's Flute." Kalem. A cowboy's story. An exciting Western story of how Bill proves a winner by not only saving himself from the Indians through his cleverness in playing the flute, but by winning the rancher's daughter as well.
"A Summer Adventure." Selig. The girl's lover was out of favor with the girl's father and his rescue of the heroine's little brother from the den of the wolves gives him a chance to square things. Exciting and gripping.

"The Three Bears." Essanay. The story of Goldilocks and the three bears is familiar to all. It is an excellent production with much quaint humor and will be enjoyed by adults and children alike.

Musical program:
No. 1—Allmo Rag. Percy Wenrich.
No. 2—Pekin Rag. H. W. Martin.
No. 3—Polar Bear Rag. O. P. Howard.
No. 4—Oh You Angel Rag. F. T. Dabney.
No. 5—Rhapsody Rag. H. Jentes.

Cosy.

Wednesday and Thursday, a dandy aeroplane comedy drama.
"The Higher the Fewer." Thanhouser. The higher up in the air you get the fewer the rivals so the wooer took her up in the clouds. They were pursued by a rival in an aeroplane, but after a fight the lover won his girl.
"His Fate's Rehearsal." Majestic. A most powerful story of the novel method employed by a wife and her father, a doctor, to show her drunken husband the way he was drifting. A picture that will delight and charm.
"The Trinity." A well-acted intimate story of home life, very pleasing of sentiment. Two men were left a baby to care for much to their dismay. She proved to be a nice grown up girl and of course everything ends fine.

"Foolishhead, Protector of Innocence." It is Mr. Foolishhead in one of his funniest laugh-provoking stunts.
"Life of Bees." Itala. Showing the inside of the hive and how bees do their work.

Coming, great two-reel Imp feature, "From the Bottom of the Sea." Sensational submarine story.

A GOOD BILL AT THE GRAND THEATRE

That is some cash register that Elmer E. Potter & Co. is using in their rural comedy sketch at the Grand this week. It sounds more like a threshing machine. "At Washing Corners" as it is produced by Mr. Potter and his associates, Miss Josephine Oakley and Mr. B. D. Oakley, is a complete little play in itself, filled with good, quaint Yankee comedy, with just enough pathos in it to relieve the strain.

This being the last night these able players will be with us every one should take advantage of it and not miss this performance.
Miss Dot Harris, who was late on getting in and missed the Sunday opening, was on deck on Monday and was indeed an added feature to the strong bill of Sunday night.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

Coming, "The Girl from Rector's."

At the Oregon theater on Saturday, March 24 will introduce a girl born in France under another name, "The Girl from Rector's," a mischievous but harmless creature, has been adopted to this country by Paul Potter, who in the importing process has constructed what is said to be one of the most laughable farce comedies ever produced. "The Girl from Rector's" which is coming to the Oregon is an adaptation from the French. In its natural state it ran for over two years in Paris and was still tickling the risibilities of the Parisians. It has also been translated into several languages and the Germans are all in a flutter over this convulsive comedy. Even Denmark, the land of Ibsen, is being amused by it. It remained to acclimatize this comedy to America and as it is surrounded by an excellent company of artists, it was an instantaneous success and ran to packed houses for more than a year on Broadway. The company that is to produce it at present is one of exceptional ability composing as it does several competent New York favorites. Miss Katherine Raymore as Louie was a most enjoyable reputation in a number of farces which she has been identified with, and the associated players are one and all of well known competency.

This story of "The Girl from Rector's" which Paul Potter has made into such a delightful comedy is as follows: Louie Sedaine is "The Girl from Rector's" a dancing, dashing piece of humanity in love with Richard O'Shaughnessy, a young chap of ample wealth who, at the opening of the play, has plunged into dissipation as a result of the influence of Col. Andrew Tandy, whose headquarters is the famous Broadway restaurant. Richard has wearied of bachelor life and welcomes the visit of Mrs. Gen. Witherspoon Copley of Battle Creek, Mich., and her daughter by her first marriage, Miss Marcia Singleton.

OVERBOARD WITH BABY.

Nurse Took Truby Infant With Her When She Committed Suicide.
San Francisco.—Mourning the loss of their baby boy, who was taken from them under heartrending circumstances, Major Albert E. Trouby of the army medical corps and his wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Downing, a popular belle of local society, returned to Berkeley from the Philippines on the army transport Thomas With them were two little girls. Before starting for home the Trubys made the round trip of the Philippine Islands on the transport Warren. They took with them their baby boy, one year old, and a Japanese nurse to care for him. These two were left on deck one evening while the parents went below to dinner.

When they returned to the deck all ready for a good-night romp with "Buster" neither baby nor nurse was in sight. Left alone with her charge the Japanese girl, prompted by some unknown motive, had committed suicide by jumping overboard and had taken the baby with her.

Germs of Disease should be promptly expelled from the blood. This is a time when the system is especially susceptible to them. Get rid of all impurities in the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and thus fortify your whole body and prevent illness.

A heavy cold in the lungs that was expected to cure itself has been the starting point in many cases of disease that ended fatally. The sensible course is to take frequent doses of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It checks the progress of the disorder and assists nature to restore normal conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

HE LEFT FAMILY SHOELSS.

Atlantic City, N. J.—John Peters and his wife arose from their beds to find their shoes missing. Search of the house for other pairs developed the same situation. They were forced to remain indoors during the day, while the police searched for the thief.

He is said to have been a boarder, who used this novel expedient to prevent immediate pursuit when decamping without paying his board bill.
