$75,000 GEMS VANISH AT HELEN TAFT DANCE

Diamond Necklace Said to Have Disappeared While 400 Made Merry.

Washington.—Mystery surrounds the disappearance of a diamond necklace, valued at $75,000, from the neck of a New York guest at a dinner dance given in honor of Miss Helen Taft by Captain Sowerby, naval attaché of the British Embassy at Rauscher's.

Not only are strenuous endeavors being made to find the gems, but equally strenuous denials are being made that they were lost at all.

Among the guests at the dinner dance were: Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Edward McLean, Mrs. Esmond Gey, Miss Mabel Boardman, Miss Helen Taft, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry, Miss Margaret Draper, Miss Harriet Anderson, niece of the President, Miss Cameron and Mrs. Clarence Moore.

It was not until 1:30 o'clock, when the dance was drawing to a close, that the necklace is said to have been missed.

SO SAD! WOMEN JUST CAN'T REALLY THINK

Nine-Tenths of Them Scatter-Brained and Minds Go Off at Tangent.

Says One of Them.

Cambridge, Mass.—"Nine-tenths of women are scatter-brained," says Mrs. Mary Thompson Chaplin, well known in Boston and New York society circles.

"The well controlled mind travels as a planet does, steadily in its orbit, but the large majority of minds fly off in any or every direction," she continued. "They bob about as a cork on the waves. Talk to most women about anything you choose. Perhaps you ask their advice about something. After the first sentence or two they change the subject. They can't think. Their minds have flown off on a tangent, as usual."

"Women need to learn how to think. They must learn to focus their squiggly, unsteady, and unsteady learned this can solve every problem of her life, be it little or big, quickly and easily. Most women don't know what they want."

DEATH IN BLOWING NOSE.

Altoona, Pa.—From the effects of blowing his nose William B. Saylor, aged 38 years, died here.

Saylor, who was assistant foreman of the Pennsylvania air brake department, contracted a cold which settled in his head. To clear his nose he gave a vigorous blow and ruptured a blood vessel.

All efforts to stop the flow of blood proved unavailing, but he reported for work. The exertion proved too much for him and he was assisted home to die.

STANFIELD ENJOYS PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

SCHOOL CHILDREN HONOR MEMORY OF WASHINGTON

Songs, Recitations and Readings Given by Children—Drunkard Laborer Creates Excitement and Lands in Jail.

(Special Correspondence.)

Stanfield, Feb. 24.—Yesterday afternoon Washington's birthday was commemorated in the public schools in an appropriate manner, two excellent programs being rendered by the pupils and enjoyed by a large attendance of the parents and friends. A program was rendered by the elementary grades, in charge of Miss Chezik and Miss Pratt.

The program given by the fifth, sixth and seventh grades in charge of Mrs. Dumas, whose school room was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting, etc., was by the following: Vernon Wald, Mazie Rising, Mildred Hurd, Tom Bagan, Mazie Rising, Orpha Dunning.

The Stanfield Women's Study club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Faucett, the principal paper being read by Mrs. C. W. Connor, her subject being "Taft's Cabinet." A reading was also given by Mrs. E. N. Wheeler.

Fred W. Steiwer, Pendleton candidate for district attorney, was a Stanfield visitor yesterday.

A laborer named Gumm, who has been working in and about Stanfield the past few weeks, imbibed an over supply of firewater yesterday and became so boisterous that City Marshal Hodges confined him in the city jail.

W. H. Chure, an attorney of Fargo, North Dakota, made a brief visit here Thursday as the guest of P. H. Buchholz.

County Clerk Frank Saling came down from the county seat Thursday to look after his farm.

Mrs. M. C. Baragar, who recently underwent a serious operation at a Pendleton hospital, returned to her home here on Thursday.

E. P. Marshall, vice president and manager of the Finnish Ditch company and the Inland Irrigation company, with headquarters at Pendleton, was here Thursday.

R. A. Holte and John F. Bagan, visited Echo Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Thad Barnes returned to her home in Echo Thursday after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fulford.

Mrs. P. H. Buchholz went to Portland Thursday to remain a few days.

W. J. Haney, a well known farmer on the Umattilla Meadows, was transacting business at Pendleton Wednesday.

R. W. Fletcher, circulation manager of the East Oregonian, was a Stanfield visitor Friday.

Gay Hayden returned to his home in Pendleton yesterday.

Last evening Miss Myrtle Anderson entertained a number of her fellow students of the high school, the evening being spent with music and games, after which Mrs. Anderson, the mother of the young hostess, served delicious refreshments. Those present were Miss Mary Connelly, Helen Wheeler, Lillian Hoosier, Anita Howard, Julia Hangman, Myrtle Anderson, Messrs. Clement Howard, John Beavert, Floyd Brumfield, Glen Wallace, Harry Hoosier and Harold Wheeler.

The Stanfield Commercial club smoker which was to have been held last night was postponed until Friday evening of next week.

John Towers went to Portland yesterday to remain a few days.

Prof. F. D. Carruth is spending the week-end with friends at Pendleton. Miss Mildred Hurd was a Pendleton visitor today.

The Human Heart

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body at the rate of seven miles an hour. "Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good, pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Being made without alcohol, this "Medical Discovery" helps the stomach to assimilate the food, thereby curing dyspepsia. It is especially adapted to diseases attended with excessive tissue waste, notably in convalescence from various fevers, for thin-blooded people and those who are always "catching cold."

experiments with, at the Chlartian church, Monday, March 4.

The term "mystery" seems inadequate in referring to radium. "Miracle" appears none too strong. Each particle of this wonderful mineral constantly gives heat and light and "perpetually" throws off the tiniest particles of itself, yet apparently does not diminish in weight or strength, and scientists estimate this phenomena will continue for many thousands of years before radium dies out. Experiments with liquid air and wireless telegraphy will also add to the interesting and entertainingly instructive features.

of police, following a complaint from the millionaire mill owners, that the former chief of police "was not firm enough" in dealing with the conditions since the strike started several weeks ago.

STICK TO HOBBLES; DEMAND LOWER STEPS

Women Throughout Greater Boston, Headed by Mrs. Maria W. Clark, Start Strenuous Campaign Against Entrance to Street Cars.

Boston, Mass.—Women throughout Greater Boston are striving for abolition of the present high steps on the street cars.

The movement, mothered by Mrs. Maria W. Clark, of the Hyde Park Current Events club, has enlisted the sympathies of the members of the 150 women's clubs, and they are co-operating in a crusade that car steps be lower.

"We don't propose to give up our style because the steps are too high," said Mrs. Clark. "Let them lower the steps. Women will wear what they want, and if the hobble skirt prevents us from climbing cars let them lower the steps. To ask that women give up the hobble skirt—if they so choose to wear it—is outrageous."

Will Not Give Up Hobble.

She refuses to permit the street cars to say, mutely but effectively, to the women of Greater Boston: "You must give up your hobble skirts. You cannot get aboard of us with them on."

Mrs. Clark insists that women shall wear hobble skirts if they so desire, and that the public cars be made to accommodate them.

When Mrs. Clark first broached the subject to the club women her idea was met with smiles.

"Do you think you will get men to agree to lower the steps, just because they are uncomfortable for us?" they asked.

And Mrs. Clark's answer was: "Yes."

Deny They Are Cranks.

So she was given the organization of a committee. She brought into it a woman physician, Dr. Lucy Barney Hall. The third member was Mrs. Lella M. Speed, a well known business woman. These three formulated a plan of campaign.

"We are not cranks," Mrs. Clark told the Massachusetts railroad commission. "We've got pretty good reasons for demanding lower car steps. Any one who is familiar with our
