

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

TEMPORARY DITCH FOR SURFACE WATER

DRAINAGE CANAL WORKERS DELAYED BY HIGH WATER

Work Stopped Until Flood Can Be Controlled—Presbyterian Church Committee Considering Plans for New Building.

(Special Correspondence.) Stanfield, Feb. 28.—P. J. Eschbach of Eschbach, Bruce company, in consultation with the board of directors of the Umatilla drainage district has practically decided that it will be advisable to construct a temporary ditch to take the surface water from the lower lands in order to enable them to proceed with the permanent ditch and work on this will commence in a few days. The contractors have met with considerable difficulty and delay caused by high water in the Umatilla river.

A committee has been appointed by Hope Presbyterian church of Stanfield for the purpose of selecting plans for the new church which will be constructed at an early date. The committee will meet Friday evening and will then consider various plans which have been submitted by architects, the members of the committee being Rev. James E. Faucett, W. T. Reeves, F. A. Baker, Mrs. J. E. Reeves and Mrs. T. G. Smith.

Attorney A. W. Gray was transacting business in Umatilla Monday.

H. E. Allen, the contractor who is constructing the Waits building, went to Portland Sunday on a brief business trip.

Albert E. Kessler arrived from Portland Sunday and has taken charge of the barber shop in the Columbia building.

Mr. Spence of Portland, was in Stanfield Monday on business connected with the Oregon Journal.

Mrs. Owen F. Jones of Hermiston was calling on friends here Sunday.

Claude Sloan of Echo, was a Stanfield visitor Monday.

Jack O'Neill, traveling passenger agent for the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Co., was here Monday looking after business.

The ladies' embroidery club was entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. C. Carr, northeast of town.

Who Stole Her Hair. Springfield, Mass.—Miss Emily Wilson, 18, was reputed to possess the finest head of hair in Springfield. When she retired the other night she arranged her hair as had been her custom, in two long braids which reached almost to her knees. A 3-year-old brother slept in the same room, and her parents in an adjoining room. A pedigreed Boston bulldog lay in the hall.

When Miss Wilson awoke next morning both braids of hair had vanished. The appearance of her head indicated that a sharp knife or razor had been used. Miss Wilson, her parents and the bulldog were not awakened, every door was locked and every window securely fastened.

Blamed a Good Worker. "I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25c at Keop-pens.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dupuis of Adams, were in Weston Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Dupuis.

Messrs. Leonard King and Glenn Morrison of Weston were in Athena Sunday.

WILDCAT VS. BULLDOG.

Feline and Canine Will Battle to Finish in Missouri. Springfield, Mo.—Bull fighting is tame, cock fights are akin to a meeting of the "Ladies Sewing circle" and a Kentucky feud is about as exciting as a funeral dirge in comparison to a form of sport which, although it was in vogue years ago in the Ozarks, has just been revived by two Springfield sport fans.

Spiffire, a wildcat captured on White river in Taney county, a few days ago, and some local bulldog (the victim has not been pointed out) will "mix it" in a one round "go-as-you-please" battle before a crowd of sports soon after the first of March.

The wildcat has one "game" foot, caused by a too close inspection of a steel trap just before he was captured in the "gum." As soon as this foot heals he will be matched with any Springfield bulldog that thinks it will have any luck in a fight. The scrap is to be pulled off on the strict "4-1," the only requirement being that the feline keep mum and the dog be placed under a fifteen pound handicap. The wildcat is 4 years old, 36 inches long from tip to tip 29 inches high and weighs 37 pounds.

HANGS SHIRT OUT OF BROADWAY WINDOW

Yukon Miner Thought It Was All Right to Do Own Washing While in New York. New York—Halfstan Hendrickson, who is what is known as a sourdough miner up Yukon way, blew into the Breslin the other night from the Cobalt country with a big suitcase and was assigned to a room on the Broadway side. There Hendrickson begged the attendant to turn off the steam, as it made the room too hot for a man who had been accustomed to sleeping in a blanket out on the ground when the temperature was ever so many degrees below naught. Then he went out to see the sights.

Early the next morning the information reached the room clerk of the hotel that a crowd had gathered at the corner of Twenty-ninth and Broadway and that traffic was being impeded by the sight of an object which was being displayed at one of the hotel windows. A bellboy was sent out to investigate.

"You'd better make that big Swede take in that red flannel undershirt he's got hanging from his window," he suggested when he came in. Forthwith, one was sent upstairs so charged.

Knocks on the door failed of a response, and a passkey was used. On the bed lay the gigantic form of Hendrickson. When protest was made at the display he was making he turned over and yawned.

"Ay bane makin' a vash," he explained and rolled over and snored again.

TOWN HONORS AGED MAN.

Pennsylvania Village Suspends Business on Resident's 100th Birthday. Berlin, Pa.—There was a special holiday the other day, proclaimed by the township officials as a mark of respect to Levi Shoemaker, the oldest citizen of the community, who celebrated his 100th birthday.

All business houses and schools were closed and special services were given at the Reformed church, with addresses by leading citizens. During the afternoon Shoemaker received a delegation of school children and a party of friends, no one of the latter being under 70. For supper, the centenarian was the guest of the city at the town hall.

Shoemaker has spent his entire life in Berlin.

Oitawa, Kans.—The William Redmond of Oakhurst, a suburb of Long Branch, who danced a jig at the age of 100 and walked the Brooklyn bridge, has celebrated his one hundred and third birthday.

The old man is spending his last days with his niece, Miss Mary Gugel. He lost his power of speech during the past year and can talk only in a whisper.

He tilled the soil for nearly four-score years and used tobacco for seventy years, when he gave it up.

KISS FILCHED FROM PRETTY GIRL COSTS A SWAIN $5

St. Louis, Mo.—A St. Louis judge was called upon to say whether he, when a young man, would have been the claimant to a kiss from a pretty girl, if an arrest and fine had been the penalty.

His judicial opinion was that Eugene Venel, a tailor, 19 years old, should pay $5 and costs for kissing Miss Celia Charbulak, who is just 16, and said she never was kissed before.

"I don't know how you feel about it judge," said Venel's attorney, "but when I was a young man I believe I would have taken a chance on kissing such a pretty girl. My client was not disrespectful, and should not be fined."

Miss Charbulak refused to accept an apology and the fine was assessed.

SMOKES AS SURGEON WORKS.

Fireman Displays Rare Stoicism After Painful Accident. Chester, Pa.—While responding to an alarm of fire, Louis H. Moore, driver of the Felton fire company's truck, was seriously injured when the apparatus crashed into an awning at Third and Kerlin streets, crushing him between the seat of the truck and the building. When removed from the debris Moore insisted upon remounting the apparatus, but had not driven a block before he collapsed and was taken to the engine house where he revived and sat smoking a pipe while Dr. H. C. Donohoo dressed the deep gashes in his leg.

SNOWSTORM SWEEPS OVER CAMAS PRAIRIE

(Special Correspondence.) Ukiah, Ore., Feb. 28.—Camas Prairie was visited last Friday and Saturday by a snowstorm that continued 36 hours and swept by a high wind. No loss of stock has been reported and ranchers have an abundance of hay on hand.

Henry Casteel has sold his interest in the Ukiah Mercantile company to his partner, J. R. Lawrence.

Bert Andrews has leased three acres of land half a mile above Ukiah of Mr. Lentz. He will move his sawmill to this place.

The German orchestra gave a masquerade ball last Friday at Kirk hall, which was largely attended, 125 being present. Fifty maskers appear-

SAVED FROM DANGEROUS OPERATION—NEIGHBOR ADVISED WHAT TO DO FOR BLADDER TROUBLE.

I, too, wish to add my testimonial to the thousands you no doubt have, and will tell you what your great medicine did for me.

Several months ago I was taken very sick with bladder trouble, had intense pains and suffered greatly, at times I could not stand on my feet or sit in a chair and often was forced to cry out with pain.

I consulted two doctors who gave me different kinds of medicine, which did me no good. It seemed as though the more of their medicine I took, the worse I became. The doctors seemed to be greatly puzzled over my case and after holding a consultation I was told that I had a severe case of inflammation of the bladder and an operation was very necessary.

I was being prepared to be taken to the hospital, when a neighbor came to my house and said, "Why don't you try a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root?" I was willing to try anything to get relief from my suffering. My wife bought a bottle of your medicine which I began taking and soon noticed a change for the better. I continued taking it and got better right along, my appetite returned and I was able to resume work.

I have used about fourteen bottles of Swamp Root and know that had I not taken it, I would have been operated on and perhaps never recovered. I never fail to tell my friends about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root as I know it will save many people from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation.

Yours gratefully,

CHALLENGES SENATOR TO EXCHANGE PHOTOS

This to Be Preliminary to Fight When Mr. Bourne and G. O. P. Chairman Mott Meet.

Washington.—A duel between United States Senator Jonathan Bourne Jr. of Oregon and Dr. J. J. Mott, chairman of the republican state committee of North Carolina, is eagerly expected by some of Dr. Mott's fire eating friends as a result of a "challenge" put out today by Dr. Mott.

"I shall send Senator Bourne my photograph, with the request that he send me his," said Dr. Mott, "and ask that he give me a promise of a notice of the first day he goes out of the District of Columbia, and of a point where I can join him and see the length of his eyelashes, and we will go over this thing face to face."

Dr. Mott is a civil war veteran—healthy, hearty and game—according to his friends.

Senator Bourne, who is fifty-seven is athletic, and his friends say that if he and Mott face each other Bourne is likely to see the length of the North Carolinian's eyelashes with ease and rapidity.

The anger of Dr. Mott is due to Senator Bourne's comment on the withdrawal of the ten North Carolina nominations from the Senate by President Taft. The language that Dr. Mott resents is: "The purchase of votes for money debauches but two individuals, the purchaser and purchased. The purchase of federal votes for federal patronage debauches not only the individual parties to the transaction but the nation itself."

OFFICER PROSECUTES SON.

Arrests Youth and Testifies Against Him Following Quarrel. Wabash, Ind.—Because of a family disturbance Patrolman Joseph Bidwell arrested his son and later led him to the police court, where, by his evidence, the prisoner was sentenced to thirty days in jail. The patrolman said he had no control over his son. The formal charge placed against the latter was for malicious trespass.

Have Your House Wired for Electricity

It's cheaper, safer, far more pleasing and saves much unnecessary eye-strain.

At the present low rate for lighting you get one kilowatt more for $1.00 than was formerly given for $1.50.

By using the new wire-type MAZDA lamp you get three times more light than from the ordinary carbon lamp—and your light is as bright and clear as daylight. This new MAZDA can be used on ordinary drops and cords without breaking.
