AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
Vitagraph feature for Friday and Saturday.

1. "Two Wolves and a Lamb." Vitagraph feature film. This picture makes us understand ourselves and others. There is not a disappointing thing in it. A pretty stenographer of two unscrupulous sharpers prevents them from fleecing a prospective victim. A story that thrills with both love and dramatic interest. It acts as a warning to the unwary and inexperienced in business transactions.

2. "The Foster Sister." C. G. P. C. A little baby girl is left by its rich father in the hands of peasants. She grows up and falls in love with the peasant's son. When her father returns to bring about a wealthy match for her she insists upon wedding the man of her choice.

3. "Jack and the Beanstalk." Edison. A fairy tale, as familiar in the homes as a household word, unfolding the adventures of Jack, his triumphant return from the mystic height of the beanstalk, with the giant's ill-gotten treasures. The photographic work in showing the size of the giant and his wife, is little short of wonderful.

4. "Brave and Bold."—Biograph. It takes a brave man to set calmly in a dental chair and have the heartless knight of the forceps project through one's maxillary ivory. Mr. Blowhard is relating his great deeds of daring to a party of admiring friends, when he is seized with a toothache. He spurs the liquid pain-killer proffered by his wife, and rushes bravely to the dentist to have the aching molar yanked, but, oh, well—

5. "Did Mother Get Her Wish?" Biograph. Mamma desired a rich husband for her daughter, Nellie, and so Tom, who was simply a clerk was by no means her choice, though he was Nellie's. Don't miss seeing how they outwitted mamma.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Program for Friday's change:

"The Story of Rosie's Rose." Lubin. How a coquette learned in the wiles and ways of winning men, carried her game too far. Replete with stirring scenes, including a fight at sea, the capsizing of a boat and a daring rescue and love's triumph.

"The Old Bookkeeper." Biograph. A story of heart interest. Distinct and clear is the recompense of kindness bestowed. A story sure to prove lasting in the minds of all who see it.

"Uncle Ned's Diplomacy." Kosmik. A pleasant comedy, telling of the love between a young man and an actress, of his mother's distress and how her brother, the lad's uncle, helped on the match while he heart-winked his sister.

"The Squaw Man's Revenge." Western Pathé. A remarkable story of western life, full of thrills from start to finish.

"The Chinese Smugglers." Bison. A graphic story of the illegal smuggling of Chinese in the United States. Scenes laid on the Pacific coast.

"Back to His Old Home Town." Imp. The funny things that happened to a man who was mistaken for a moving picture actor. Shows how a moving picture is made.

"Tweedledums Financial Distress." Ambrosia. The comical way in which this comedian relieved his "broke" condition.

"Playing the game." Imp. Amusing story of a lazy man and a game of golf.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

In "The Girl from Rector's," at the Oregon theatre, Saturday night, March 2, Marcella Singleton is engaged to a stupid, elderly cousin of Richard, a professor whose past would have appealed to the most cultured audience. Richard skillfully manages to end that engagement and bring about his own. He drives Colonel Andrew Tandy out of his rooms and good luck takes Miss Sedaine off on a supposed visit to her father, a Grand Army veteran, in Buffalo, where she spends a few months each year. Richard hires himself to Battle Creek and arrangements go forward for the marriage and the scenes shift from the east to the west. The complications begin at the same time. Mrs. Copley's husband, the general, is thought to be in Martinique looking after extensive plantations, but he is to return in time for the wedding. Another guest at the Copley home is Judge Caperton of the American court at Shanghai, who spends ten months of the year abroad, leaving his wife to travel in America. General Copley turns out to be none other than Colonel Tandy. "The Girl" is Mrs. Caperton, the charity worker.

In the closing scene all dine at French Charlie's and Richard is put in a most trying position.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

FUNERAL OF BASEBALL CAT. Children of the Neighborhood Turned Out En Masse for Burial.

New York.—Children living in the vicinity of Horton avenue, New Rochelle, are mourning the death of their playmate, Blackie, a large black Maltese cat, that could play baseball and was owned by Police Sergeant George P. Smith.

They planned a funeral in which every child in the neighborhood took part.

The children made a coffin out of a box, covered and lined it with white silk, and carried it on a catafalque made from a boy's express wagon, draped with white cloth. They buried him in Smith's back yard.

A scald, burn, or severe cut heals slowly if neglected. The family that keeps a bottle of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT on hand is always prepared for such accidents. Price 25c. 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

HANDICAPPED.

This is the Case With Many Pendleton People.

Too many Pendleton citizens are handicapped with bad backs. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys.

The following statement should convince every Pendleton reader of their efficiency.

Mrs. Thomas Burns, 803 W. Birch street, Walla Walla, Wash., says: My back caused me much suffering and it was almost impossible for me to attend to my household. The secretions from my kidneys also bothered me a great deal and were very unnatural. Soon after I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills these difficulties were relieved and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. My relatives also think highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, having used them with benefit.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SPLENDID LECTURE TOMORROW NIGHT

The Pendleton people have been most fortunate in securing Dr. Preston W. Search, the eminent traveler and art critic for two of his remarkable lectures, which will be given at the city hall auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Tomorrow night's subject will be "Beautiful Sunny Italy."

Italy of all lands is the one most attractive to the traveler and lover of the beautiful. Not only are the historic, and the art, literary and classic interests the greatest, but its superb scenic beauty has been the inspiration of poets and artists in all ages. "O, Italia, thou hast the fatal gift of beauty," sang Byron, and Mrs. Browning ever more enchantingly cried: "Open my heart and you will see in scribed therein, 'Italy.'"

This lecture of tomorrow night, it is said, avoids the usual paths of travelers and takes the audience into the superb beauty of the south, where every glimpse is one of enchantment and the music of "Italia Beloved" swells on every breeze. Vesuvius and the unsurpassable Bay of Naples will be visited; also the magical Isle of Capri, the wonderful Blue Grotto, and charming Capri. Then will come an entrancing ride along the Italian Riviera, said to be the finest ride in the world.

The lecture will be especially rich in a realistic representation of the destruction of Pompeii. Dr. Search's own work in this colored city will be presented in beautiful colored pictures. There never has been any kind of such commingled beauty and distraction, of despair and hope, with loves so deeply depicted in immortal song as Southern Italy. The lecture of tomorrow night will be a glorious presentation and should be attended by every lover of the beautiful.

JACK FROST AS A POISONER.

Cracks Bottle in Wisconsin Home; Contents Leak Into Food.

Malden Rock, Wis.—Shortly after having eaten some food, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carpenter and two children, living near Stockholm, became violently ill with symptoms of poisoning.

Only hard work of a physician saved their lives.

It was afterwards discovered that a bottle which was kept on an upper shelf of the pantry and which contained a quack grass extermiator, has been cracked by the frost and some of the contents had leaked on the food.

the Newfoundland oil fields as driller sent a descriptive and interesting letter to a Leamington friend. Among other things he described a native wedding.

The bride was bought for $2.50, about the price of an ordinary mink skin, but when it came to the preacher there was a different story.

He had to travel forty miles by dog sled to perform the ceremony and the husband was assessed $40, or just a dollar a mile.

SHOE BUTTONS CURE PAIN.

Man Finds the Fastener's Just as Good as the Pills He Wanted.

Middlebourne, W. Va.—Roused in his sleep in the dead of the night from intense pain caused by acute indigestion, T. P. Swan, road commissioner, went to the cupboard, where the pills were usually kept, and, finding a box, swallowed three of the pellets.

After taking the supposed pills, Ewan seated himself in a chair and in a few minutes the pain wore off. He went to bed and was not bothered with the pain again until morning. He went to take a second dose of the pills.

Then he discovered that three shoe buttons were missing from a small box and that the pill box was untouched.

THE GREATEST SUCCESSFUL CURE OF ANY CHRONIC DISEASE WITHOUT THE KNIFE.

See our patients testimony. Dec. 1st, 1911. I am glad to tell the public what the Chinese Doctor did for me. I was nearly dead suffering from abscess in the stomach and three American doctors told me there was no hope for me except an operation which I felt would kill me. So we called Dr. Leo Ching Wo and tried his medicine and in two weeks I was out of danger. Took his wonderful medicine four weeks more and am nearly well.

I can cheerfully recommend his remedy to any one who is in need of a doctor, for he certainly saved my life. Mrs. Ida Herring, 215 West Alder St., Walla Walla, Washington.

We receive testimonials from our patients daily who have been cured. If you want to be cured, come and see us or if unable to come, write and enclose a two-cent stamp for symptom blank. Write without delay.

Address:—LEO CHING WO, CHINESE MEDICINE CO., 14 E. Main St., Walla Walla, Washington.
