AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
An exceptionally good program for Tuesday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.

"Where the Money Went." Vitagraph. To surprise his wife on her birthday, a young husband draws their savings from the bank to purchase a home and in the course of the business transaction becomes friendly with the family of a real estate man who gives him a family photo, which with the withdrawal of the money, when learned by the wife, arouses her jealousy and starts interesting complications.

"For Massa's Sake." Pathe. The faithful negro, who with eight other slaves are freed by their master on his deathbed, sells himself back into slavery to pay off the debts of his master's son who has squandered the fortune left him by his father. Going west the young man makes another fortune, returns and again buys the freedom of the negro.

"Alias Billy Sargeant." Essanay. The wife through forgetfulness saves her husband, a jeweler, from the clutches of a robber who represents himself to be a jewel broker and makes a date with the husband, through the wife.

"Love vs. Strategy." Rival in business as well as love, a clerk in one construction firm plots to have a clerk in another similar company kidnapped, and beating him in business and also for the hand of the daughter of the head of the firm employing his intended victim. The young lady, herself frustrates the plot, in a clever manner.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Tuesday's change of program.

"Paid in His Own Coin." Lubin. This is a very strong story. Marguerite Moreland, a young society girl, meets with a sad accident by a railroad train striking her automobile. The gate to the track being open it is clearly a case of fault on the part of the railroad company. A suit is brought and the railroad attorney wins out against the young lady by a cruel trick. Marguerite is sent abroad for permanent cure. On her return she is a gorgeous creature and the lawyer falls desperately in love with her. She encourages him only to break his heart. She gets her revenge and marries her fiancé, Herbert Hamersley.

"Widow Jenkins' Admirers." Essanay. A big Snakeville comedy with the always funny "Alkali Ike," "Mustang Pete" and the other Essanay laugh producers.

"By Way of Mrs. Browning." Vitagraph. Read and learn how a young lady made up with her sweetheart, by quoting apt words from Mrs. Browning's poem. She sets herself right after she had wrongfully suspected him of being false to her and learns he was only doing his duty as a physician.

"The Russian Peasant." Kalem. This artistic presentation of life in the land of the czar is founded on personal observation of an incident that occurred recently near Warsaw.

Musical program:
No. 1—Alamo Rag. Percy Wenrich.
No. 2—Pekin Rag. H. W. Martin.
No. 3—Polar Bear Rag. G. P. Howard.
No. 4—Oh, You Angel Rag. F. T. Danby.
No. 5—Rhapsody Rag. H. Jentes.

Cosy.
Monday and Tuesday rapid fire western, educational, topical and novelty comedies.

"Just a Bad Kid." Thanhouser. The "Thanhouser Kid" takes the part of the bad youngster and she acts it so delightfully that she gives the kid of the picture an expression that is charming and keeps the audience in sympathy with her.

"The Sheriff's Sister." American. A man is thrown from a railroad bridge onto a swiftly moving train after a struggle with the outlaws. This is on scene in this rapid-fire western story which is all life and action.

"Willie Challenges Jim Jackson." Eclair. Funny picture of a kid's fight with the colored champion of the world.

"Launching of Two Italian Dreadnaughts." Embrosia. Showing the excitement of the launching of these immense battleships.

"Life at the bottom of the Sea." Eclair. Queer fish and many wonderful creatures that live in the ocean's depths are seen, making this a wonderful picture.

"Marquis of Lantenc." Ambrosia. Story of the French revolution, and depicts the heroism of a brave man who lost his liberty to save the children.

At the Grand.
Opening of:
The Gabbert's Trio. A novelty acrobatic act.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drew, members of the famous Drew family, presenting a Dutch comedy sketch.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

THE GREAT AMERICAN PLAY, "PAID IN FULL"

Eugene Walter's powerful play of contemporary American life, "Paid in Full," is to be seen at the Oregon theatre tonight and Wagenhals & Kemper, who will make the production, promise one of the strongest and most notable acting companies ever gathered in one organization and the production itself will be complete in the minutest detail. The play is in four acts, and the theme is taken from some incidents in real life. The handling of the story throughout is done in a most forceful style, the characters breathing real life, and their actions are not the studied movements of the ordinary "Play-of-the-day" actor. They are human, and for this very radical departure from conventional lines and themes it would seem that Mr. Walter merits the thanks of the theatre-going public. "Paid in Full" played for two years in New York and the play has to its credit a run of five months in Chicago.

ALASKAN CABLE IS REPAIRED.

Breaks Found Due to Extensive Submarine Slides.

Seattle, Wash.—The government cable to Alaska, which has been out of service for several days, because of breaks off Bush point, Whidby island, and near Port Angeles, has been repaired. Officers of the cable ship Burnside found that the damage had been caused by extensive submarine slides which had materially changed the character of the bottom of Puget sound and the Strait of Fuca.

BRYAN'S DOUBLE FOR PRESIDENCY

Eugene, Ore., March 7.—On next Tuesday and Wednesday, March 12 and 13, the students at the University of Oregon will have an opportunity to express their preference for the presidential nominee, a straw vote will be taken among the students at that time. Equal suffrage being granted, the co-eds will have an opportunity of expressing their preference also.

Similar votes have been held recently at both Washington and Stanford, where the results showed Roosevelt the most popular candidate. However at Oregon it is anticipated that Taft will lead the list with William J. Bryan or Bill Hanley, Bryan's double, a close second.

A good treatment for a cold settled in the lungs is a HERRICK'S RED PEPPER POROUS PLASTER applied to the chest to draw out inflammation, and BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP to relax tightness. You get the two remedies for the price of one by buying the dollar size Horehound Syrup; there is a porous plaster free with each bottle. Sold by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.
