A little more style, better fit and workmanship and better service-- at Wohlenberg's

Follow closely and with a marked interest the original style tendencies of the makers of

LaVogue

Suits and Coats. They have well earned the distinction of being looked to as the "Standard of Style."

And yet every wearer of a La Vogue garment has learned to expect much more than mere Style. They look to the La Vogue label as the standard of the most skilled workmanship, perfect tailoring and satisfactory service.

The makers go back of the style element and guarantee perfection in every minute detail. That's why we're so enthusiastic and so willing to recommend this line to our trade as the very best.

The new models are sure to interest you—the styles, fabrics, and wide range of colorings and trimmings will prove a real revelation.

And it will be a real pleasure to show you now while the stock is complete. You'll find selection an easy matter.

The reason we are so enthusiastic about these new Coats and Suits is because we have learned from experience that there is no other line with which they can be compared. And the maker stands back of every garment—so there is protection for you and us.
