AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
An extra good program for Tuesday's change. Four full reels of good pictures. 1. "For the Cause of the South." Edison. This picture brings home the horror and patriotism which abound in that lost cause. The Blue and Gray are bound close together in this story.
2. "A False Suspicion." Essanay. A spendthrift wife is told by her husband that he will no longer be responsible for her debts. She is besieged by creditors and borrows money from a gentleman friend.
3. "Unmerited Shame." Pathe. A fisherman's daughter is loved by sailors, one of whom is not to her liking. He plans to injure her in the community.
4. "A Boarding House Romance." Lubin. A couple of sweethearts are boarding in the same house. They have a little tiff. The landlady advises him to make Bessie jealous. The star order makes a similar suggestion to Bessie.

5. "Making Hay" Lubin. This industrial picture is very pretty and interesting.
6. "A Compromise." Lubin. Mrs. Wallace makes a mistake in hiring pretty girls to help, for she discovers her husband kissing the servants. She fires the girls and engages men. She in turn practices flirtation.
The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Attractive program for Friday's change.
No. 1. "A Girl of the West." Vitagraph. In a hand to hand battle on horseback she foils the villain. After miles and miles of exciting chase and daring horsemanship his confederates are captured. We wish there were more girls like this one. She is able to take care of herself and defend her honor when attacked. With it all she is most attractive and it is no wonder she wins a man who appreciates her true worth.
No. 2. "His Mother." Kalem feature. The story of a mother's sacrifice for her son. A delightfully human Irish production made in Ire-

CASCARETS INSURE INSIDE CLEANLINESS

The Millions of Cascaret Users Never Have Headache, Constipation, Bilioussness or Sick Stomach.
It is more necessary that you keep your bowels, liver and stomach clean pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.
Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway through every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.
Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.
No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

land and America. A mother in Ireland gives her life savings to enable her son to come to America where a kind banker hears him play the violin and appreciates his talent, assists him to start a musical career. Not long after he is the rage of the season. The mother in despair, when no news comes of her boy, decides to look him up in America. The mother's experience is interesting. Miss Gene Gauntier plays the banker's daughter; Mr. Hollister, the genius; but the old woman seems made for her part.
No. 3. "The Maniac." Lubin. A love comedy with something doing every second. Exceptionally fine acting by Lubin's leading players.
No. 4—"A Windy Dream." C. G. P. C. Don't miss seeing what happens to Billy after playing with a pin wheel all day.
No. 5. "Life in Our Ponds." C. G. P. C. Interesting educational subject.

The Cosy.
Wednesday and Thursday a strong sociological drama that grips. The rest of the bill is comedy.
"The Blood of the Poor." Champion. This story depicts a harrowing phase of human life, a result of our present economic conditions and struggle of the very poor to live. The contrast between the rich and poor is seen.
"Love and Lemons." American. Western story that introduces the audience to some things they never saw before, the picking and shipping of lemons which is cleverly worked into a clever story of a brand new way of winning a girl.
"Taming a Husband." Majestic. A delightful comedy of what happened to a fault-finding hubby, who thought he could cook. He got his stenographer to get dinner while wife and mother-in-law were out, claiming he was the one who cooked it. He was found out and got nicely tamed when he came out of the mixup.
"Bill Determines to Go." Lux. The clever little comedian in some mirth-making situations.
"Short-Sighted Miss Prim." Lux. Bright little comedy that abounds in laughs.

At the Grand Tonight.
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Drew in a singing, dancing and comedy sketch, entirely new to the Pendleton people. If you want to laugh, come and see this act. Messrs. McSorley and Eleanor, everybody's favorites, who scored such a big success on their previous visit, will present an entirely new sketch, entitled "Sweet Clover." This act is full of pathos and comedy. The Uptown Flats by the entire company, a comedy. Guaranteed to send every one away saying it is the best show seen at the Grand theater this season. Do not fail to see this show if you come once you will come again.

WALKS 25 MILES BAREFOOTED.
Negro Asserts He Was Driven Out of Toppensish.
North Yakima, Wash.—A telephone message to the sheriff's office from Toppensish confirmed the story told by Emmanuel Fulton, the negro, who came to the police station and declared that he had been driven out of Toppensish the night before. The negro was without hat or coat, and was barefooted, his feet showing the effect of the 25-mile tramp. He said that an expressman named Hill and a man named Rodney White had intimidated him.

SANG JORDAN'S BANKS AND THEY LET HIM GO
Richmond, Ky.—Isaac Lakes sang himself out of jail here when he rendered "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," before a jury in the circuit court room. He was indicted for disturbing public worship by singing too loudly. Several continuances had been granted on account of the absence of witnesses, so the judge suggested that in lieu of testimony the jury be allowed to pass judgment on the prisoner's voice. The prisoner acquiesced and, standing in the witness stand, he sang with all his might. The jury retired and immediately acquitted the defendant.

GRAND JURY'S FINGER ON GOOD ROADS LEAKS

Inquisitorial Body Declares, That Oil Macadam System As Practiced in the Expenditure of County Bond Issue Is a Failure—Direct Supervisory Care of Highways Secured—Subjects for Commendation.
(Los Angeles Times, Oct. 7, 1911.)
As the result of a thorough and searching inquiry into the roads and highways situation in Los Angeles county, the grand jury yesterday returned a partial report setting forth that the oil macadam type of road construction which has been in general use in the highway building under the $3,500,000 bond issue cannot be considered otherwise than as a failure.
The grand jury calls attention to the deficit which, according to Engineer Joyner, will occur before the construction is finished on the good roads system, but declares that it need not cause uneasiness to taxpayers. The report sets out the belief of the inquisitorial body that the mistakes, which it intimates were numerous, were honest ones growing out of the fact that the good roads movement was in the nature of an experiment for which it must be expected to pay.
The Report.
The matter of highways we do not think it necessary to quote any figures or to make any statements as to the progress of this work, or the expenditures as a whole, or per mile, as statements covering these matters are prepared and published in the daily papers by the engineers in charge of the work. It is to be regretted that the last report of Chief Engineer Joyner shows that the $3,500,000 bond issue will not complete the 304 miles of oil macadam road in accordance with the engineer's estimate given to the public at the time the vote was taken to authorize the bonds.
Oil, pitch, tar and numerous other applications are used in the eastern states and in Europe as a top dressing to lay the dust, and for the purpose of adding to the life of macadam roads, but, we think, in Southern California only have oil macadam roads been tried extensively and we further find them a failure. Oil used as a mixture with the top and wearing surface of macadam roads, causes the road to become soft to roll and to cut in deep ruts. We think the use of oil should be restricted, or rather that its use be confined to a very light spreading over the surface of the road after it is finished, and just enough applied thereafter to keep the surface in good condition, and as free from dust as possible.
