CATTLE SHORTAGE IS NOW LIKELY

MARKET LOADED NOW BUT MAY SOON BE EXHAUSTED

Extreme Strength East May Effect North Portland Trade—Hogs Are Again Soaring—No Available Sheep—May Wheat Drops.

(From Wednesday's Journal.) Very heavy supplies of cattle were due to arrive in the North Portland market late this afternoon. Two trains were due, one containing about 30 loads of livestock and another 11 loads. While sheep and hogs are firm and in good demand, there is but one buyer willing to take cattle just now. Notwithstanding this one cow sold at $6 this morning. This was far out of line with general conditions owing to exceptional quality.

The extreme strength of the cattle situation elsewhere is likely to cause a shortage in local supplies after the present surplus is out of the way.

Cattle prices are firm all over the country, Portland being a notable exception. The wants of the trade here are not heavy and therefore whenever a good run is presented it has a reactionary effect upon values.

Without a place to take care of the surplus except at high priced feeding grounds, the local trade is not in a position to successfully compete with more fortunate centers in this respect. Only a few cattle came forward to North Portland today, but this did not move quickly.

North Portland cattle prices: Heavy fancy steers $6.35@6.45; Choice steers 6.25; Select steers 6.00@6.15; Common steers 4.75@5.00; Feeder steers 4.75; Speyed heifers 5.90@6.00; Ordinary heifers 5.50; Ordinary cows 5.00@5.25; Fancy cows 5.00@5.60; Fancy light calves 8.50; Medium light calves 7.75; Fancy bulls 4.50@5.00; Medium bulls 4.25; Ordinary bulls 4.00; Stags 5.00.

Hogs Higher Elsewhere. Portland today lost its reputation of being the highest priced swine market in the country. Chicago over-empted North Portland by at least 15c during the day and the market was very firm.

Locally the arrivals were quite fair during the day. A total of 341 head arrived, compared with 180 head last Wednesday. Sales were made as high as $6.85 for tops but only one load brought this figure while another went at $6.80 and still another at $6.75. The advance for the day was therefore 10c.

Nominal NorthPortland swine prices: Fancy mixed 6.85; Good heavy 6.80; Medium light 6.00@6.85; Rough and heavy 6.00; Stockers 6.95.

No Sheep Are Available. There was still another famine day in the mutton market at North Portland today. The only arrivals were 48 head and these were brought in by the regular buyer of the Union Meat company for that concern.

The situation in the mutton trade is extremely good. Demand is increasing while offerings for this market are smaller. This is due entirely to the fact that better prices are available at other centers. Therefore the movement of sheep is away from here.

Sheep range at North Portland: Select lambs $6.25; Choice lambs 6.00; Common lambs 5.50; Yearling wethers 5.35; Old wethers 4.75; Fancy ewes 4.65; Ordinary 4.25.

Wheat—Nominal—Producers' prices, nominal, track delivery 78c; blue-stem, 90; fortyfold, 87c; Willamette valley 87c; red Russian, 85c; Turkey red, 87c.

Barley—Producers' prices—1911—Feed, $35; rolled, $36; brewing, $39 @40.

Millstuffs—Selling price—Bran, $23; middlings, $29.50; shorts, $25; chop, $19@25. Car lots 50c per ton less.

Oats—Producers' price—Track No. 1, spot delivery, white, $33.50@34; gray, $33@33.50.

Range of Chicago wheat prices furnished by Overbeck & Cooke Co.: May—Open, 103 7-8; high, 104; low, 102 1-2; close, 102 3-4.

July—Open, 99 5-8; high 99 7-8; low, 98 3-4; close, 99 A.

Sept.—Open, 96 3-4; high, 97; low, 96 1-4; close, 96 3-8 A.

See Fort George and Live

THE CENTER OF THE GREAT LAND OF CANADA'S RICHEST PROVINCE.

Population Last Year, 200, Now 2000, End of This Year, 10,000.

Fort George and its surrounding territory offer to the right man better chances than can be found anywhere else on the continent. The country is young and exceedingly wealthy in products of forest, field and mine.

Fort George is rated by men of affairs throughout America and Europe as one of the railroad centers of Canada. With a level town-site, admirably located, best of water and splendid climate, it has, as the central point of the Inland Empire of British Columbia, advantages enjoyed by but few other cities in the east or west. The Grand Trunk Pacific has ordered completion of its main line to this point by the fall of this year, 1912. By the first of June freight should be coming over its rails via Edmonton to Ute Jaune Cache, thence by river steamer to Fort George.

The Edmonton Board of Trade is working hard for this and states that the freight rate then will be three cents per pound. Ten other railroads are chartered to this point and at least four of these are looked upon as certain to come in the near future. The Canadian Northern Railway let contracts this month for construction of a line from Vancouver, B. C., to Fort George; also a number of other points. If you want land that will make you money do not delay but see at once the system in which the North Coast Land Co., Ltd., of Vancouver, B. C., with a paid up capital of $1,500,000, will contract with you for the purchase of acreage around the growing city of Fort George, British Columbia.

DICTOGRAPH TRAPPED

CLARENCE DARROW

Indianapolis.—That Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for the McAmarras, indicted on a charge of bribery of the McNamara jury, was trapped by the dictagraph. It is the statement made here by Walter Drew, counsel for the National Erectors' association. Drew declares that the dictagraphs recorded conversations between Darrow and John R. Harrington, counsel associated with Darrow, which will be used in the trials here of the alleged dynamiters. He says that a dictagraph in the room in the hotel at Los Angeles occupied by Harrington recorded conversations relative to Darrow's defense.

STATE COMMITTEE SEEKS LOOPHOLE

Salem, Ore., March 14.—While those members of the republican state central committee who denounced the proportional scheme of voting in selecting presidential electors and delegates to the national conventions failed to test the law in the courts, they still have hope that some loophole will be found through which the central committee may be able to have electors of their own choosing.

This is indicated in a letter received by Attorney General Crawford from C. W. Nottingham, chairman of the republican state central committee.

"We are not certain about the law in regard to presidential electors and want to know is enough candidates do not come out at the primary it devolves on the state central committee to get up a petition and fill any vacancies that may remain," he asks.

"The law makes no provision for selecting delegates except by means of the primary," said L. H. Van Winkle, assistant attorney general, who has the letter under consideration. "It is provided by the law that as many electors shall be elected as there are offices to be filled, and that each voter can vote for but one. Each party in Oregon is entitled to five electors, and the five men receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected. This office is the same as other offices, and a voter may write in the name of any person for whom he may wish to vote. And although there may not be three names of five candidates on the ballot, I do not think there is the slightest probability that as many as five men will not be voted for in each party for this office. If a man received but one vote and no more than four others had more votes than that, he would be elected."
